

To Mrs. Georg Heuschel.

BOAT-SONG.

Words by Sarah O. Jewett.

Music by Olga von Radecki.

Allegretto.

p 1. Oh rest, sweet rest, your wild p leggiero

rit. a tempo

oars and let me drift and let me drift While all the stars come ro - ses hear and wake, they hear and wake, And send their fragrance out to see. The birds are talk-ing in their sleep through the air. The hills are hid-ing in the dark p pp mf

As we go by so si - lent - ly The i - dle winds are There is no hur-ry a - ny where The shad - ows close a - colla voce rit. mf

in the pines, The ripp - les touch a - gainst the shore, So rest your oars and round the boat, Ah why should we go back to shore, So rest your oars and let me drift And let me dream for - ev - er - more, And let me we will float With - out a care for - ev - er - more, With - out a dream for - ev - er - more. care for - ev - er - more.

1. 2. 3. Oh

2. The

lit - tle waves that splash and call, How fast you lead us out of sight, And we must foll - ow where you go, This sweet and strange mid - sum - mer night. The qui - et riv - er reach - es far How long a - go we left the shore, With i - dle oars we downward float In star - light cresc.

dim for - ev - er - more, In star - light dim for - ev - - - er - more, for - ev - er - f accel. pesante f

more.

mf leggiero dim. rit. p