SONG

COMPOSED BY ROBERT JONES.

2nd from the 2nd Book for 1601.

My love bound me with a kisse that I should no longer stay when I felt so

My love bound me with a kisse so that I should no longer stay when I felt so sweete a blisse I had lesse pow'r to part away a-las a-las sweete a blisse I had lesse pow'r to part a-way a-las aa-las that women doth not know kisses makes men loath to go a-las a-las that women doth not know kisses makes men loath to go aa-las a-las that women doth not know kisses makes men loth to goe.

a-las a-las that women doth not know kisses makes men loth to goe.

2
 Yes she knowes it but too well,
 For I heard when Venus doue
 In her eare did softlie tell,
 That kisses were the seales of love:
 Oh muse not then though it be so,
 Kisses makes men loth to goe,

3
 Wherefore did she thus inflame,
 My desires heat my bloud,
 Instantlie to quench the same,
 And starve whome she had giuen food.
 I, I, the common sence can show,
 Kisses make men loth to goe.

4
 Had she bid me go at first,
 It would nere haue greeued my hart,
 Hope delaide had beene the worst,
 But ah to kisse and then to part,
 How deepe it stricke, speake Gods, you know,
 Kisses make men loth to goe.

Welcome, welcome as the Sunne,
 When the Night is past:
 With us the day is now begunne,
 May it for ever last.
 Such a morne
 Did nere adorne
 The Roses of the East
 As the North
 Hath now brought forth:
 The Northerne morne is best,
 And so best King good rest.

Robin is a love-ly Lad, No Lasse a smother ever had.

The Bass is here newly adapted.

Tommy hath a looke as bright, As is the ro-sie morning light.

This Bass was sung to the above words.

Tib is dark and browne of hue, But like her colour firme and true.

Ginny hath a lip to kisse, Where in a spring of Nectar is.

Simkin well his mirth can place and words to win a womans grace.

Sib is all in all to me, There is no Queene of Love but she.

ALL.

Let us in a Lovers round, Circle all this hallowed ground

Softly softly trip and goe, trip and goe; The light foot Fairies let it

Here and there and every where, and every where, Winding to and winding fro; skipping hye, and lowting low.

CHORUS.

And like lovers hand in hand, march a-round march a-round and make a stand.

A BALLAD.

Dido was the Carthage Queene, And lov'd the Troian Knight, That wandring ma-ny coasts had seene, And many a dreadfull fight: As they on hunting road a shower, Drave them in a loving hower, Downe to a darksome cave. Where Æneas with his charmes, Lockt Queene Dido

2

Dido Hymens Rites forgot,
 Her love was wing'd with haste:
 Her honor she consider'd not,
 But in her Breast him plac't,
 And when her love was new begun
 Jove sent downe his winged Sonne,
 To fright Æneas sleepe:
 Bad him by the breake of day
 From Queene Dido steale away:
 Which made her waile and weep.

3

Dido wept, but what of this,
 The Gods wou'd have it so:
 Æneas nothing did amisse,
 For he was forc't to goe.
 Learne Lordlings then no faith to keep
 With your loves but let them weep:
 'Tis folly to be true:
 Let this story serve your turne
 And let twenty Didoes burne,
 So you get daily new.

O stay! sweet is the least de-lay, When parting forceth mourning.

This Bass, added.

Oh Joy! too soone thy flowers de-cay: From Rose to Bryer re-tur-ning

Bright Beams that now shine here, when you are parted, All will be dimme, all will be dumbe, and eve-ry breast sad-hear-ted.

Yet more, for true love may pre-sume, if it excede not measure

O Griefe! that blest houres soone con-sume, But joy-lesse passe at leasure

Since wee this light must loose, our love expressing: Farre may it shine, Long may it live, to all a publique blessing, to all a publique bles-sing.

Musical score for Sute in D=SOL=RE by M^r John Jenkins. The score consists of four systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The key signature is D major (two sharps). The time signature is common time (C). The music is written for Viols or Violins. The first system shows a complex melodic line in the treble and a supporting bass line. The second system continues the melodic development. The third system features a repeat sign in the treble staff. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence.

Continuation of the musical score for "OLD SIMON." The piece concludes with a final cadence in the treble staff, while the bass staff continues with a few more notes.

This page of handwritten musical notation, numbered 187, contains six systems of music. Each system consists of a treble staff and a bass staff, often with a brace on the left. The notation is dense and complex, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, as well as various rests and accidentals. The first system shows a treble staff with a continuous melodic line and a bass staff with a more rhythmic accompaniment. The second system introduces a trill in the treble staff. The third system features a rapid ascending scale in the treble. The fourth system continues the melodic development in the treble. The fifth system shows a more active bass line. The sixth system concludes with a final cadence in both staves. The handwriting is clear and professional, typical of a composer's manuscript.

JIGG.

THE 100th PSALM TUNE. Set as a Lesson, from a M.S.M^r. Blow.

This page of musical notation, numbered 189, contains seven systems of piano accompaniment. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble and a bass clef. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#). The notation includes various musical elements such as notes, rests, and repeat signs. The first system shows a complex melodic line in the treble and a more rhythmic bass line. The second system continues this pattern. The third system features a repeat sign with first and second endings, labeled '1st' and '2d'. The fourth system shows a continuation of the melodic and rhythmic patterns. The fifth system has a more active bass line. The sixth system shows a continuation of the melodic line. The seventh system concludes the page with a final cadence in both staves.

A SONG BY

191

37th in the third Book, from the Theater of Music pub^d 1686.

If mighty wealth, that gives the Rules to vicious Men, and cheated

Fools, could but preserve me in the prime of bloo - ming youth, and purchase time;

then I wou'd covet riches too, and scrape and cheat as others do, then I wou'd covet riches too, and scrape and cheat as others do; That when the Minister of fate, pale Death was knocking at the gate, I'd send him loaded back with Coyn, a Bribe of rich - er Dust than mine; I'd send him loaded back with Coyn, a Bribe of rich - er Dust than mine I'd send him loaded back with Coyn, a Bribe of richer Dust than mine But since that Life must slide a - - - way, and wealth can't pur - - - chase one poor

Day; why shou'd my cares en - - crease my pain, and waste my time with sighs in vain, and waste my time with sighs in vain, and waste my time with sighs in vain

SECOND PART.

Since riches cannot Life supply, it is a useless pover - ty it is a use - - - less po - - - ver - - - ty

Since riches can not Life sup- ply, it is a use- less po- ver- ty, it is a use- less po- ver- ty Swi- ft time, swi- ft time, that can't be bought to stay, I'll try to guide the gentlest way I'll try to guide, to guide the gentlest way

With cheerfull friends brisk wine shall pass, and drown a care, drown a care in ev- ry glass:

Sometimes di- ver- ted with Love's charms, the cir- cle made by Ce- lia's arms;

Sometimes di- ver- ted with Love's charms the cir- cle made by Celia's arms.

A SONG — Set by M^r Henry Purcell.Song 45.th In the 4.th Book from the Theater &c.

Amidst the shades, and cool refreshing streams where Lovers ease their panting hearts in dreams poor Da-mon lay; his grief, his grief, so sadly printed in his Face, his looks disturb'd the pleasures of the place: In hol-low Notes he sung his wretched

Fate, his hope-less Love, and his A-minta's hate; the trem- - - bling Birds a-bout him throng, listen, and murmur at his Song, which hinder'd their sweet strains so long, which hinder'd their sweet strains so long But streight with charm- - ing

Notes they stretch their war - - - - - bling throats; and all with one consent and voice, invite the Shep-herd to re-joyce: But streight with charming Notes, they stretch their war - - - - - bling throats and all with one consent and voice in-vite the Shepherd to re-joyce in-vite the Shepherd to re-joyce But what can his sad Soul inspire, his Heart so much by grief opprest? A sigh (alas!) breaks from his breast which frights the harmless Birds, and damps the chear - - - - - full quire.

2

Farewell, farewell, since this I finde is true
 I will not spend more time in wooing you:
 But I will seek els where,
 If I may find her there,
 Shall I bid her goe,
 What and if I doe?
 Shall I bid her goe and spare not,
 O no no no no I dare not

3

Ten thousand times farewell, yet stay awhile,
 Sweet kisse me once, sweet kisses time beguile
 I have no power to move,
 How now, am I in love?
 Wilt thou needs be gone?
 Go then, all is one,
 Wilt thou needs be gone? oh hie thee,
 Nay, stay and doe no more denie mee.

4

Once more farewell, I see loth to depart
 Bids oft adew to her that holds my hart:
 But seeing I must loose,
 Thy love which I did chuse
 Go thy waies for me,
 Since it may not be,
 Go thy waies for me? but whither?
 Go, oh but where I may come thither.

5

What shall I doe? my love is now departed,
 Shee is as faire as shee is cruell harted:
 She would not be intreated
 With praiers oft repeated:
 If shee come no more Shall I die therefore
 If shee come no more what, what care I?
 Faith, let her go, or come, or tarry.

by W. Lawes.

First system of the musical score. It consists of three staves: a vocal line in treble clef and two piano accompaniment staves in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: "If my mistress fix her Eye on these ru - der Lines of mine". The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

If my mistress fix her Eye on these ru - der Lines of mine

If my mistress fix her Eye on these ru - der Lines of mine,

If my mistress fix her Eye on these ru - der Lines of mine,

Second system of the musical score. It continues with the same three-staff format. The lyrics are: "let them tell her how I lye Fetter'd by her looks divine Tell her it is on - ly". The piano part continues with the same accompaniment. There are repeat signs (double bar lines with dots) at the end of each line of music.
