“OF OLD SAT FREEDOM ON THE HEIGHTS.”

Of old sat Freedom on the heights,
The thunders breaking at her feet:
Above her shook the starry lights;
She heard the torrents meet.

There in her place she did rejoice,
Self-gather'd in her prophet mind,
But fragments of her mighty voice
Came rolling on the wind.

Then stopt she down through town and field
To mingle with the human race,
And part by part to men reveal'd
The fulness of her face—

Grave mother of majestic works,
From her isle-altar gazing down,
Who, god-like, grasps the triple forks,
And, king-like, wears the crown.

Her open eyes desire the truth.
The wisdom of a thousand years
Is in them. May perpetual youth
Keep dry their light from tears;

That her fair form may stand and shine,
Make bright our days and light our dreams,
Turning to scorn with lips divine
The falsehood of extremes!

The first system consists of four vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal staves are arranged in a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass). The piano accompaniment is written for the right and left hands. The music is in a key with three flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor) and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "heard . . the tor-rents meet. There in her place did she re - joice, Self -" repeated on the first three staves, and "heard . . the tor-rents meet. . . There in her place did she re - joice, Self -" on the fourth staff.
