COUNTER, or Tenor.
BASS.

Explanation.

I. THE Gamut is divided into three parts, each part including five lines with a half circle drawn round the end, on which seven letters are set, which are these, viz. G A B C D E F, and then G again, for every eighth letter is the same upwards or downwards.

Cliffs Explanation.

In the foregoing Scale, you will find three characters called Cliffs, one of which must be set on one of the five lines, in every piece of Musick, to shew the place to begin to count at, and shew which is Bass, Counter, Tenor, or Treble.

I. The Bass Cliff is made thus  and stands on the second line from the top, its name is F, and when sung called Fa.

II. The Counter, or C Cliff, is made thus  and is set on any of the middle lines, its name is C, and when sung, called Fa.

III. The Treble or Tenor Cliff, is made thus  and is set on the second line from the bottom, its name is G, and when sung called Sol.

A Short EXPLANATIONA Table to find the Mi by Flats and Sharps.(By Flats.)(By Sharps.)

When neither Flat nor Sharp is set at the Beginning of a Tune, Mi is in B. But,

- I. If B is Flat, Mi is in - - - - E
- II. If B and E are Flat, Mi is in - - - A
- III. If B E and A are Flat, Mi is in - - D
- IV. If B E A and D are Flat, Mi is in - G

- I. If F is Sharp, Mi is in - - - - F
- II. If F and C are Sharp, Mi is in - - - C
- III. If F C and G are Sharp, Mi is in - - G
- IV. If F C G and D are Sharp, Mi is in - D

---

The Rule to call your Notes is this, Fa, Sol, La, Fa, Sol, La, twice over above your Mi, and under Mi, La, Sol, Fa, La, Sol, Fa, twice over, observing that from Mi to Fa, and from La to Fa, are semi or half tones.

---

Names and Measures of Notes, and their Rests.

1. The Semibreve, is the longest Note now in use, and must be sung in the time of four seconds, in the first Mood of Common Time.
2. The Minim, is but half the length of the Semibreve, having a Tail.
3. The Crotchet, is but half the length of the Minim, having a black Head.
4. The Quaver, is but half the length of the Crotchet, having a Tail turned up.
5. The Semiquaver, is but half the length of the Quaver, having a Tail turned with two strokes.
6. The Demisemiquaver is but half the length of the Semiquaver, having a Tail turned up with three strokes.

Rests are Notes of silence, which signify, that you must rest so long as you are sounding one of their respective Notes.—A Semibreve rest, is a whole Bar, in any time whatever.

A Short EXPLANATION, &c:

Explanation of Characters used in MUSICK.

1. A Flat set at the beginning of a Tune, serves to regulate the Mi, but when a Flat is found set before a Note in a Tune, it sinks it half a tone lower.
2. A Sharp set at the beginning of a Tune serves to regulate the Mi, but when a Sharp is found set before a Note in a Tune, it serves to raise that Note half a tone higher.
3. A Repeat is set to direct the performer, that the strain must be repeated from over or after where it stands.
4. A Direct is set at the end of a line, to shew the place of the first Note in the next line.
5. A Slur is a Bow drawn over or under a quantity of Notes, that are to be sung to but one syllable.
6. A single Bar, divides the Tune according to its measure Note.
7. A double Bar, serves to divide strains, and when used in Psalm-Tunes, to divide lines.
8. A Natural set before any particular Note, reduces it to its natural sound, the same as if no Flats nor Sharps were set at the beginning.
9. A Divider divides the Score and shews what parts move together.
10. A Hold signifies to hold that Note over which it is set, something longer than its usual time.
11. A figure of 3 set over or under any three Notes, makes them a third quicker, viz. three Crotchets must be sung in the time of a Minim, and three Quavers in the time of a Crotchet.
12. A Close is three or more Bars set at the end of a piece of Musick. — Observe also that when you meet with the figures 1, 2; set over two Notes or Bars in a piece of Musick, it signifies a Repeat, and that Note or Bar under the one, to be sung the first time; the second time skip that Note or Bar under the one, and sing that under the two.
13. A Dot on the right side of a Note, makes it half as long again; that is, one dotted Semibreve is as long as three Minims: See the example of dotted Notes.

A Short EXPLANATION

Explanation of Time.

Time is of two Kinds, viz. Common and Treble.

First, Common-Time contains the Quantity of one Semibreve, or two Minims, or four Crotchets in a Bar, the two first are to be sung and beat with the hand or foot down, and the two last with it up.

1. The first mark or Mood of Common-Time is a simple C, Crotchets in this Mood must be sung in the time of Seconds.
2. The second Mood has a line drawn across the C and must be sung and beat half as fast again as the first Mood.
3. The third Mood the C is inverted or turned backward, or is marked with a large figure of 2, and must be sung as fast again as the first Mood.
4. The Fourth Mood is marked 2, 4, and contains two Crotchets in a Bar, the first is to be sung and beat with the hand or foot down, and the second or last with it up ; Crotchets in this Mood, are to be sung in the time of Crotchets in the second Mood.

Treble-Time.

Treble-Time contains three Minims, three Crotchets, or three Quavers in a Bar ; the two first in each Bar are to be sung and beat with the hand or foot down ; and the third or last with it up.

1. The first mark or Mood is three to two thus  $\frac{3}{2}$  : Containing three Minims in a Bar, and are to be sung in the time of three Seconds, or three Crotchets in the first Mood of Common-Time.
2. The second Mood is three from four, containing three Crotchets in a Bar, and are to be sung in the time of three Crotchets in the second Mood of Common-Time.

3. The third Mood is three from eight, containing three Quavers in a Bar, and are to be sung in the time of three Crotchets in third Mood of Common-Time.

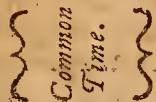

Observe here, that the figures in the Moods of Treble-Time, do not determine the precise time in which the Notes in any of the Moods are to be sounded, as some have weakly imagined; they only shew what kind of Notes the time of any piece of Musick is composed of, whether Minims, Crotchets, or Quavers in a Bar; thus if the Mood is three to two, it is composed of three Minims in a Bar, for the figure of 2 in this Mood having relation to two Minims which make a Bar in Common-Time, shew that the Treble-Time so marked must be in Minims; that is, three Notes in a Bar of that denomination whereof two make a Semibreve.

2. For the same reason the figure of 4 in the second Mood, shews that this Treble-Time must be in Crotchets, that is, three Notes in a Bar of that denomination whereof four make a Semibreve.

3. The figure of 8 in the third Mood, shews in like manner, that this Treble-Time must be in Quavers, that is, three Notes in a Bar of that denomination whereof eight make a Semibreve.

4. But in beating and keeping of Time, I would recommend the beating and dividing by Notes, before that of Bars, although that has already been laid down; for I think a steady motion with the hand and foot right down and up, answers to divide the Notes and Rests with more exactness than the old way of beating and dividing by Bars.

5. In the several Moods of Time, you must beat Notes and Rests in the following manner, viz.

Crotchets in the two First Moods.
Minims in the Third Mood.
Crotchets in the Fourth Mood.

Minims in the First Mood.
Crotchets in the Second Mood.
Quavers in the Third Mood.

A Short EXPLANATION

Explanation of Keys used in MUSICK.

8. There is naturally but two of these Keys in Musick, the one chearful or sharp ; the other mournful or flat.—Observe that all Tunes in a regular sharp Key, end in the next Note above Mi, and all those in a regular flat Key, end in the next Note below Mi ; a sharp Key has a greater third, sixth and seventh above it ; and a flat Key has a lesser third, sixth and seventh above it :—The Key is known, whether flat or sharp, by the third above the last Note of the Bass : If that third contains two whole tones, viz. Fa, Sol, La, the Tune is in the sharp Key, but if only a tone and half, viz. La, Mi, Fa, it is a flat Key, &c. &c. &c.

Of Tuning and forming the Voice.

9. In order to tune and form the voice for any part of Musick, it will be absolutely necessary to procure the assistance of some skilful Master in this art, to lead your voice in the true knowledge of sounds ; beginning first with your eight Notes ; observing your Semitones till you are Master of the whole lesson ; then proceed to sing in plain Psalmody.

A few Miscellaneous Thoughts in Regard to Singing.

- I. LE T not a Learner covet to run on too fast ; but make himself perfect in rising and falling by degrees and intervals ; and each Tune both as to the air and time, before he proceeds further.
- II. LET a Learner's first care be to sing true, and to give the just sound of the Note ; he may afterwards learn graces and ornaments.—In regard to these, the best Instructor is a kind of musical taste, a good imagination and ear, these may be improved by observing a little assistance from rules.—A Trill, which is usual at the last Note but one in the upper part before a close, in some other cases it is made by alternately sounding two Notes as long as the time will allow ; always beginning and resting a little on the highest, and ending somewhat distinctly on the lowest.—See the example of a Trill.
