

UNION

TEMPERANCE SONG BOOK.

A COLLECTION OF SONGS FOR

PICNICS, TEMPERANCE MEETINGS,

SOCIAL GATHERINGS,

AND

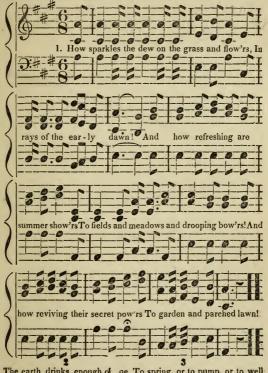

THE FAMILY CIRCLE.

BOSTON:
PUBLISHED BY OLIVER DITSON & CO.
277 Washington Street.

There Ditama Dec 20.1859

Cold Water Song.

From the Lowell Offering. Words by Rev. A. C. Thomas

The earth drinks enough of ne To spring, or to pump, or to well cooling rains, we'll hie,

And quenches her burning; mrst.
The sea a portion by rills ootans, And this to others skall be our cry,
A part by vapor the cloud reget, s; Odrink cold water whene'er you're
And some sinks downwards 'ash' dry,

earth's small veins
An), calth and pleasure yet (hir in springs from her bear in thereby, burst. A I honor a holy cause.

Away the Bowl.

Words adapted by Alvan Simonds.

2. See how that staggering drunkard reels!

Away, away the bowl;

Alas, the misery he reveals,

Away, away the bowl;

His children grieve, his wife's in tears!

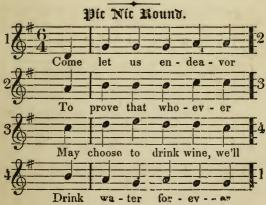

How sad his once bright home appears!

Away the bowl, away the bowl, away, away the bowl.

3. We drink no more, nor buy nor sell,
Away, away the bowl!
The tippler's offers we repel,

Away, away the bowl.
United in a temperance band.

We're joined in heart, we're joined in hand,
Away the bowl, away the bowl, away, away the bowl.

Temperance Call.

TIME .- " The Schoolmaster."

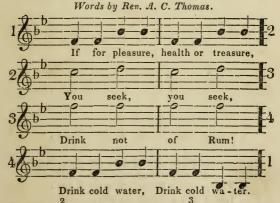

2 Blooming youth, come sing the song, Tune your lips, the strains prolong; Sit not by the wine too long, Grief and wo to it belong, Сно.—Cheerily, readily, &c.

3 Lovely maid, the call obey. Tune your lips, and keep away From the tyrant's awful sway, And be not the bibber's prey.

Сно.—Cheerily, readily, &c.

4 Anxious parent, hear the call; See! your children, great and small, Come to you with loudest call-Sign the pledge, and save them all. Cheerily, readily, come along, Sign the pledge, and sing the song.

Round-Drink Cold Water.

You'll be stronger, and live longer, We are freemen, and will be men, If you obey; And heed the voice:

Hark! hark! hark! hark! Drink cold water.

Hark! hark! hark! hark! Drink cold water

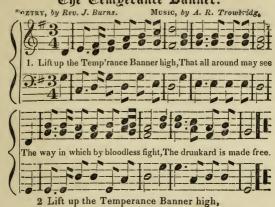

Raise your Banner high in air

Tune - The Schoolmaster.

Raise your Banner high in air,
Write Cold Water—write it there,
Let its folds be wide unfurl'd,
Let it float o'er all the world—
Temperance Banner—raise it high,
Let it flap against the sky!

- 2 March, Reformers, march ye on, Soon the battle will be won; Soon the last poor, staggering soul, Will have turned—or found his goal Press, Reformers, press ye on, Cease not, till the battle's won'
- 3 See, you star is rising high;
 Hope is bending from the sky;
 See, you Rainbow bending o'er
 Ireland's lately deluged shore;
 See, her star is rising high,
 Hope is bending from the sky!
- 4 Hark! I hear yon spirits cry,
 Come and see us—for we die;
 Brandy, Rum, and Gin are dead;
 Wine and Beer are frightened, fled.
 And the very winds reply,
 Alcohol shall surely die!
- 5 Raise your Banner, raise it high;
 Let it flap against the sky:
 Let the world adoring see,
 Temperance—Truth—and Liberty—
 Temperance Banner; raise it high;
 Let it flap against the sky!

The Temperance Banner.

- 2 Lift up the Temperance Banner high, Its numerous trophies show, Of deathly spirits, timely saved, From Hell's undying wo.
- 3 Lift up the Temperance Banner high, In market-place and street, Let its bright streamers nobly wave, Where'er poor drunkards.meet.
- 4 Lift up the Temperance Banner high, In schools, where youth are taught; Until the mind of rising age, With its rich truths are fraught.
- 5 Lift up the Temperance Banner high, In the house of pray'r and praise; That all who own the Savior's name, May shun the drunkard's ways.
- 6 Lift up the Temperance Banner high, In palace and in cot; Will rich and poor and high and leva With us cast in their lot.
- 7 Lift up the Temperance Banner high, On every hill and shore; Until the drunkard's voice is heard, O'er this wide earth no more.

Hymn for Simultaneous Paceting, washington's birth day, february 22, 1842.

- 3 Joyful news we bring to-day;
 GLORY, GLORY to OHT KING!
 Temperance speeds its orward way,
 Wafted, as on angel's wing.
- 4 Lo another Jubilee!

 Thousands hail it with delight:

 Thousands, once in chains, now free
 From the drunkard's damning blight.
- 5 Washington! our country's friend! Claims our praise, as well he may:— 'Temperance with that name shall blend, On our patriot's natal day.
- 6 Washington, for freedom fought—
 Freedom from a foreign foe:
 Freemen with the Plenge have wrought
 Freedom from Intemperance too.
- 7 Hallelujan! Praise our King! Shout his pra ses—old and young! Make the Heaven's high arches ring! Praise Him! every human tongue!

Song of the C. W. A. From the Lowell Offering. Song by Rev. A. C. Thomas. Solo. 1. C. W. here proclaim, We 2. 0 are they to us who come, happy A. shall 3. C. ev - er 4. We never will seek re-ward or thanks. claim. claim. A ti - tle de - void of come, Dis - card-ing come. the use of be, The boast of be, the glad and thanks, thanks, From a - ny who our Wa-ter shame: Cold Ar - my is our name. its dire woes we've witness'd some. Rum: still free: Cold Wa-ter Ar - my we're a stout and firm phalanx. ranks; waging a war With what we abhor, And seeking for health, And pleasure and wealth, O we Round-Flee from Rum.

Words by Rev. A. C. Thomas.

2 Flee, O from Rum flee! Let this thy pledge be, Rum shall not bind ME.

There's the Pic=Nic.

AIR, 'Try again'-By permission.

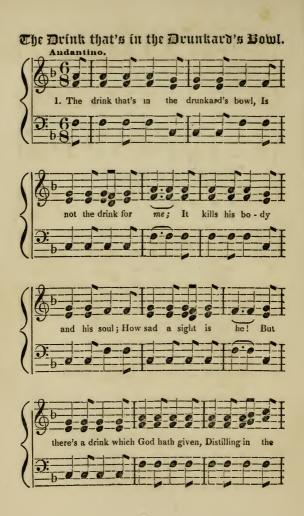

2 Don't despair, my little lad;
Try, Try, Try again.
Oft at first one's luck is bad;
Try, Try, Try again.
What if a repuise you get,
Persevere, you'll prosper yet,
Then your toil you'll not regret.
Try, Try, Try again.

3 Put on courage—never tire—
Try, Try, Try again.
Let the "Cause" your heart inspire—
Try, Try, Try again.
Raise your banner, raise it high;
For recruits then loudly cry,
They will rally by and by.
Try, Try, Try again.

4 Come, my lads, and lasses too,
Try, Try, Try again.
Come, let's see what you can do:
Try, Try, Try again.
Total Abstinence proclaim—
Sign the Pledge—then spread the same
Let each try to get a name.
Try, Try, Try again.

5 List as many as you can;
Try, Try, Try again.
On the safe "tee-total" plan:
Try, Try, Try again
Soon our "Army" will embrace
All the lovers of our race,
The sober, take the drunkard's place
Try, Try, Try again.

6 "Here's the Pic-nic! who will take—
Cry, Cry, Cry again.
'Twill good soldiers always make:
Cry, Cry, Cry again.
Temperance stories it will tell,
All who take it, like it well;
Here I come, I come to sell.''
Cry, Cry, Cry again

2 The stream that many prize so high,
Is not the stream for me;
For he who drinks it still is dry,
Forever dry he'll be.
But there's a stream so cool and clear,
The thirsty traveller lingers near,
Refreshed and glad is he;
O, that's the stream for me.

3 The winecup that so many prize,
Is not the cup for me;
The aching head, the bloated face,
In its sad train I see.
But there's a cup of water pure,
And he who drinks it may be sure
Of health and length of days;
O, that's the cup for me.

Song for Endependent Day.

TUNE-" Yankee Doodle."

what they take to 'wet their clay,' Is sure to bring disease, sir.

- 4. We need not send to Portugal,
 Nor go to good old Spain, sir;
 The best of wine is at our call,
 Port, Lisbon, or Champaigne, sir.
 They'll make us any kind we choose,
 Without the aid of grape, sii
 And when 't is done, will not refuse
 A price to make it take, sir.
- b. Some love to swig New England rum,
 And some do Cider choose, sır;
 But, so they only make "drunk come,"
 No matter what they use, sir.
 But I'll not touch the poisoneus stuff,
 Since all the brooks are free, sir;
 Give me cold water, 't is enough,
 That cannot injure me, sir.

Cold Water Song.

2 Before all laws, or East or West,
I count the law of Love the best—
Its accents mildly spoken,
Will harmless make the poisoned bowl—
Bind up the wounded, and control
The heart that's almost broken.

3 Before all people East or West,
I love the Temperance men the best,
I love their noble spirit!
In generous deeds, not words, they deal;
They have at heart the poor man's weal—
All praise their efforts merit.

4 To all the world I give my hand—
My heart is with that noble band,
Cold Water Army brothers;
God speed and prosper every plan
That strives to bless poor sinful man,
But this before all others.

The Pledge.

- 2 Oh, what's the pledge good for, it it will not defend, Keep safely through life and make happy the end? Oh, what's the pledge good for, if we may not extend The hand of true friendship—be th' Inebriate's friend? Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee, This night and forever, thy friend I will be.
- 3 Oh, what's the pledge good for, if it will not protect, Be the friend of all freed men, the standard erect? Oh, what's the pledge good for, which God has so blessed, But to save the poor drunkard, and relieve the oppressed? Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee, This night and forever, thy friend I will be
- 4 Oh, what's the pledge good for, but to spread through the land

The manifold blessings that fall from her hand?
Then take the pledge, freeman, and bless'd be the day,
When you cast so far from you, the curs'd cup away.
Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee,
This night and forever, thy friend 1 will be.

5 Oh, what's the pledge good for, that is freeing our land From the scourge of intemperance, by the aid of God's hand?

Oh, what's the pledge good for, but to lengthen our days!
Let us joy in her freedom, as we pass o'er her ways.
Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee,
This night and forever, thy friend I will be.

6 How glorious the spark that enkindled the flame! How happy the thousands that rejoice in its fame! How glorious the breeze that so caused it to glow! How happy the drunkard relieved from his wo! Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee,

Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee, This night and forever, thy friend I will be.

6 Oh, blessed be the day when the South sent the word In numbers, sweet numbers, its echoes were heard; Oh, hail it with pleasure, rejoice every man—
For the rumseller's days are reduced to a span!
Then wake, drunkard, wake, I am coming for thee,
This night and forever, thy friend I will be.

Tant oak, majestic tree, Lifting up thy mighty form To the lightning and the storm, Answer, what hath nourished thee 6 "Water, want, pure cold water Shouts the kingly oak in glee.

17.

Rose,—thou blush of modest Spring,— Lilly, resting like a swan Snowy white the wave upon, What hath given the hues ye bring ? "Water, water, pure cold water!" Rose and lily sweetly sing.

V.

Little lambs upon the lea
Bounding here and there away,
What is 't ye have drunk to day.—
Rosy wine, to give you glee?
"No, 't is water', pure cold wwer!"
And the lambs I aped joycusly.

VI.

Valleys sm? ng to the day,
Where t. e merry mowe?'s sm?,
Murmurs on the breeze alor g,
What hath drest your fields 40 gay?
"Water, water, pure cold water?"
All the blooming valleys say.

VII

Seserts, with your seas of sand,
Where the hungry lion growls,
And the Arab robber prowls,
Fixat can cheer your thirsty land?
"Water, water, pure cold water.
From the bounteous Giver's hand."

VIII.

Tree and herb, and living thing, All that can make glad the earth; Since your power, and the arth worth, And your varied beauties spang From the water, pure cold water, Be it in the songs we sing.

IX

Where the crystal waters run, Fill the bowl, and fill it high, And ring out your joyous cry-'This shall be our drink alone, Sparkling water, pure cold water, the our days of life are done."

The Connecticut Cold Water Army.

II.

We'll raise our happy voices high In loudest accents to the sky; While heaven and earth shall then reply— The Cold Water Army.

III.

We'll make the woods and valleys ring
With loudest echoes while we sing,
While all around re-echoes bring,
The Cold Water Army.

IV.

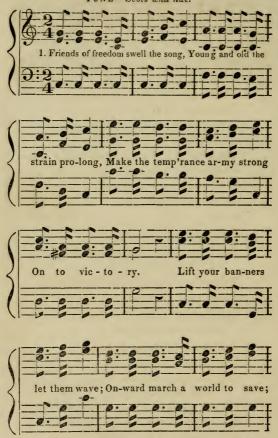

O Lord, let now a copious shower,
Of grace descending on us pour,
Nor let one blightning prospect lower
The Cold Water Army.

V.

O may we meet around thy throne, To praise Thee there, in strains unknown And flowers of love and peace be strewn, The Cold Water Army.

otal Abstinence Wymn.

TUNE-Scots wha hae.

2. Shrink not when the foe appears; Spurn the coward's guilty fears; Hear the shrieks, behold the tears Of ruined families! Raise the cry in ev'ry spot-"Touch not-taste not-handle not!" Who would be a drunken sot?

Worst of miseries!

3. Give the aching bosom rest; Carry joy to every breast; Make the wretched drunkard blest! Living soberly.

Raise the glorious watchword high-"Touch not-taste not-till you die!" Let the echo reach the sky, Earth keep jubilee.

4. God of mercy! hear us plead, For thy help we intercede; See how many bosoms bleed; Heal them speedily. Hasten, Lord, the happy day, When, beneath thy gentle ray, Temp'rance all the world shall sway, Reign triumphantly Overthrow of Alcohol.

Tune - America.

- 2 Then Let the drunkards hear,
 And every one draw near,
 And sign the pledge
 Alone you shall not stand,
 For over all the land
 Is found a noble band,
 By yow engaged.
- 3 And moderate drinkers too,
 The voice addresses you,
 Come, go along.
 You surely are to blame
 While in the drinking train
 For alcohol has slain
 His thousands strong.
- 4 This work may soon be done,
 If all unite as one,
 To push it on.
 Then shall the truth and rigion
 O'er all prevail in fight,
 And all the world unite
 In one glad song.
- 5 For since Goliath's dead, The Philistines are fled In wild dismay. Then let us gladly bring Our thanks, and loudly sing, Through David's God and sling We've won the day ler's Farewell to his Whiskey.

AIR, BRIDE'S FAREWELL.

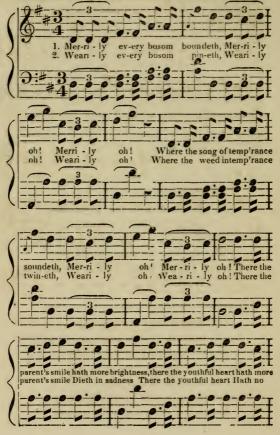

- 2 Farewell Porter! thou art smiling,
 Yet there's poison in thy flow;
 Long you've tempted me, beguiling,
 Chaining me when I would go.
 Farewell Toddy! thou didst curse me,
 E'er my lips thy name could tell;
 See the wounds where you've caress'd me;
 Vile seducer, fare thee well.
- 3 Farewell drinking! now I leave thee,
 Thinking all my sorrows o'er;
 Every thought of thee must grieve me,
 Though I shun thee ever more.
 Harken brothers who deride me,
 I to thee a tale can tell;
 Come and join with scores beside me,
 And bid tippling haunts fare well.

Song of Temperance.

Tune.—" Tyrolese Song of Liberty."

Music adapted by Wm. II. Graham, Song by Henry S. Farwell.

Cheerily then awake the chorus,
Cheerily oh! cheerily oh!
All our way is light before us,
Cheerily oh! cheerily oh!
If a virtuous life
Hath more pleasure,
Than where care and strife
Fill each measure,
Cheerily oh! cheerily
Cheerily cheerily, oh!

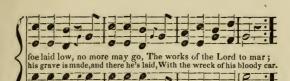

Cold Water Boy's Hurrah.

WORDS BY E. D. H.

MUSIC BY G. F L

In some of the verses the small notes should be sung and the slurs observed

,

Come on then come, and we'll all rejoice,
And leap on the grave of the slaughtered foe:
Our glorious Army of girls and boys,
Have laid the pride of the Spoiler low.
One shout give out, as we close the route,
To the light of our morning star,
Loud ring the peal till the green woods reel,

And echo the wild HURRAH!

Pour it again for the Cold Water Boys,
Who've-joined the ranks of our fearless band,
Roll it out like a single voice,
Till the shout is heard all over the land;
Yea pour, one more like a torrent's roar,
Till the clouds above us jar;
And yon blue sky shall shake to the cry
Of our brave Hurrah! Hurrah!

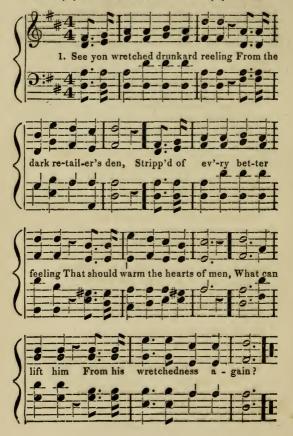

And now for the girls, the fair wee girls,
Who trip it so gay in our victor dance,
We'll send the shout, till the still air whirls
High up and away in the blue expanse;
Well done, each one, in the race ye've begun,
In the field of the bloodless war;
Peal high and aloud, the chorus proud,
HURRAH! HURRAH!

Now for our fathers, and mothers, and friends,
And all who've fought in the glorious strife,
Ere yet our song of rejoicing ends,
We'll give one round, with fire and life;
Send out the shout, around about,
All over our lines afar;
Hurrah then! Hurrah again!

Murrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!

The Pledge.

Music, by Lowell Mason .- Words, by E. D. H.

See you wretched drunkard reeling From the dark retailer's den, Stripp'd of every better feeling That should warm the hearts of men What can lift him From his wretchedness again?

'Tis the Pledge, which binds in union All our brothers' hearts as one, 'Tis the holy, sweet communion Of the Pure in unison,— Join us brother! And thy wretchedness is done.

Young and old, in strength and beauty, Warm of heart, and firm of limb, Sign it! 'tis a blessed luty, Sign it! for the love of him In whose spirit Burns the fire of manhood dim

Sign it! that the weeping mothers May rejoice in hope once more, Sign it! that your friends and brothers May be rescued from the power Of the spoiler, Who is lurking to devour.

By the utter degradation Of the drunkard's murder'd soul, By your own blood-bought salvation, Sign! and fling away the bowl, And forever

Spurn the sateless fiend's control. Pleasant Height, 1843. E. D. H.

The nice Brighton Brober.

Written by C. W. Denison.

AIR,-The Hobbies

1. I'll sing you a song of the Drover, I will, Tha nice Brighton Drover, Who lost all his drove in a little rum till.

I'll sing you a song of the Drover, I will, Who came to old Brighton with cattle to kill, But who lost all his drove in—a little rum till!

O, the Drover, The nice Brighton Drover,

Who lost all his drove in —a little rum till!

II

He came at a time—I shan't name it 'twas one day'Twixt Saturday night and the morning of Monday,
To him and to many such journeyers fun-day!

O, the Drover,

The nice Brighton Drover, Who lost all his drove in—a little rum till!

ш

His cattle were hungry—and well might they be; His cattle were dry too—but drier was he! Yet the cattle kept sober—while he had a spree!

O, the Drover,

The nice Brighton Drover,
Who lost all his drove in—a little rum till!

IV

When he entered the Inn all the drove was his own, But when tumbled out in the gutter alone, He had not a hide, nor a hoof, nor a bone!

O, the Drover,

The nice Brighton Drover, Who lost all his drove in—a little rum till!

v

The cattle drank hard—but the drover drank harder!
They stuffed from the mow, and he sipped from the

They were scraped by a card—he was skinned by a

O, the drover, [carder]

The nice Brighton Drover,

Who lost all his drove in-a little rum till!

VI

He staggered them up to the bar from the stall, Where he gulped them in rum—heads and horns, tails And the sheriff politely soon made him a—call! [and all'

O, the drover,

The nice Brighton Drover, Who lost all his drove in—a little rum till!

Newton, Mass.

Brightly has Temperance.

AIR-Gaily the Troubadour.

2 Richly she brought us, too,
Blessings of peace;
Giving the heart of wo
Joyful release.
Tidings of gladness she
Brought to our ears:
Temperance, temperance,

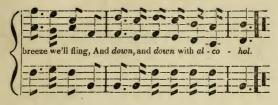

Give her three cheers!

- 3 Food with her visit comes,
 Cheering the soul;
 Bringing our needy homes
 Bread to the full.
 She wipes, with Mercy's hand,
 Want's briny tears:
 Temperance, temperance,
 Give her three cheers!
- 4 Raiment of goodly store,
 Where'er she goes,
 She, on the tatter'd poor,
 Freely bestows.
 Banish, you needy ones,
 All your dark cares:
 Temperance, temperance,
 Give her three cheers!
- 5 Those whom the Demon's wil!,
 Turned out of door,
 She, with her magic skill,
 Shelters once more.
 Home with its joys again,
 For them appears:
 Temperance, temperance,
 Give her three cheers!
- 6 Oft in her track there flies
 A message of grace,
 Bringing from upper skies
 Pardon and peace
 This all her other joys
 Richly endears:
 Temperance, temperance,
 Give her three cheers'

The Water Ring.

Music, by Asa. R. Trowbridge

9

We boast no sword or glittering spear,
Ours is a bloodless crown—
A purer, brighter, fairer thing
Than conquerors ever won

Сно.—Then let us sing, &с.

3

Our strength is the living spring—
As long as waters run,
Or grass grows green, we're pledged to keep
Our Temperance armor on.

Сно.—Then let us sing, &c.

4

What though the Fire-King mocks our kosts, As great Goliah did, We've temperance Davids in our ranks, Who'll bring away his head.

CHORUS.

Then let us sing the Water-King, Good soldiers, one and all— Our banners to the breeze we'll fling, And down with alcohol.

Enchanter of the Grove.

Music by Asa R. Trowbridge.

Once more, the table circle round,
Cold water's praises shout once more;
Let not a lukewarm heart be found,
But each one firmer than before.

9

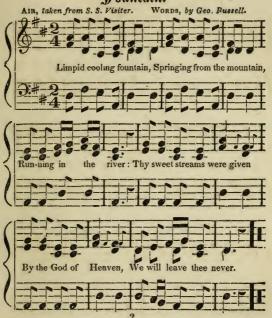

And when the spring again returns,

Each soldier steadfast let us see,

As each heart now for temp'rance burns,

So may it thus, and ever be.

No, not alluring wine,
Our lips shall e'er incline
Nature's drink to leave.
Cold water cannot harm us,
No other drink shall charm us,
This cannot deceive

Give us water ever,
Mixed with spirit never,
While our life shall last:
We the pledge have taken,
Our faith shall be unshaken.
To handle not or taste

'There came for the Bledge.' Written by F. W. Adlington. Air, Erin go Brah. Arranged by J. Plimpton Andanta Affettwore 1. There came for the pledge a poor vic - tim 2. Intemp'rance had set her foul seal on his fea-tures, And 3. He stretch'd forth his hand that with pal - sy was shak-ing, And face bore the marks of con-tention and strife; With his children he came, heart grind ing pov-erty claim'd him her own. You scarce could believe. scarce could his fing-ers sup - port the light pen; He sobb'd as he wrote. Os-car and Rol - le, And her, the poor his poor one of God's crea-tures, He look'd so un - man - ly, so for his stout heart was break-ing; He sign'd-and a gain he soul stricken wife. Oh! sad was his heart, as a - round him wretched and lone. He ask'd for the pledge, with a look number'd with men. In - tent-ly he gaz'd on His wild strreing eyes with hard drinking were glazed, - ti-tion, And he eyel it all o'er with a look of con - tri - tion, 'Till fore him, While look'd his poor wife as she fain would a - dore him, Con-

4

'Tis done—he exclaim'd, while h. And kissing his fingers his little on tand;
'Tis done—never more shall the Ro 'THEF—confound him,
Grow rich by the toil of an Irishman, and.
As one that is rous'd from a dream that oppresses,
And wakes to the joy of his loved ones' caresses.
So looked the reform'd as his Mirein he blesses.

And vows from his promise to never depart.

There came to the church a fair daughter of Erin.

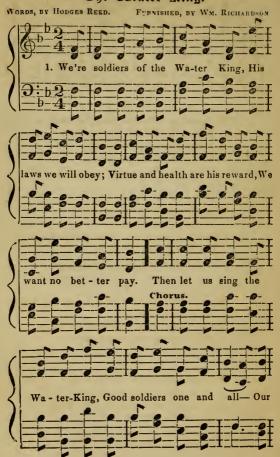

They came to the Altar where penitents gather.

While two lovely children her footsleps attend;
"Its she, the once week ned, but I. w happy Mirein,
Who leans on the arm o her hasoand and friend.
There's a tear on her cheek from the fountain of pleasure,
A smile on her lip as she looks on her treasure,
While gratitude springs in her heart without measure
For blessings that blot out the mem'ry of pain.

.

And breathe their thanksgiving to God's holy name;
That he, the lov'd husband, and now honor'd father,
is pluck'd like a brand from the furnace of shame.
Oh, who that has look'd on a scene so endearing,
For lucre would ruin a prospect so cheering,
And blight the fond hopes of the sweet Rose of Erin,
And lure a free'd seu! to his fetters again

The Wlater=King.

2

We boast no sword or glittering spear,
Ours is the bloodless crown—
A purer, brighter, fairer thing
Than conquerors ever won.
Cho.—Then let us sing, &c.

3

Our strength is the living spring —
As long as waters run,
Or grass grows green, we're pledged to keep
Our Temperance armor on.

Сно. — Then let us sing, &c.

4

What though the Fire-King mocks our hosts,
As great Goliah did,
We've temperance Davids in our ranks,
Who'll bring away his head.

CHORUS.

Then let us sing the Water-King, Good soldiers, one and all — Our banners to the breeze we'll fling, And down with alcohol.

The Clarica.

The army, the army have taken the field, The hosts of cold water no never will yield; From fountains refreshed animation now glows, With ardor immortal they rush on their foes.

3

The armor, the armor that gilds every breast, is the hope of deliverance for thousands distrest; With words of persuasion we call on the throng, Desert the black banner and join in our song.

4

The banners, the banners of freedom now wave, Lo the eagle now covers the ranks of the brave; With the shout Independence creation shall sing From the cruel taxation of alcohol king.

5

The conflict, the conflict will shortly be o'er,
And the Demon Intemperance triumph no more
O'er the tears and the sighs and premature graves—
See the flag of our freedom eternally waves.

b

The empire, the empire of freedom divine, Like the gray vault of heaven forever shall shine. Then as wide as creation her blessings shall roll, And a star of new glory illumine each pole

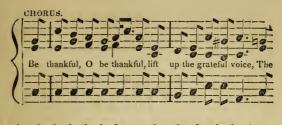

The laurel, the laurel unfading shall wave,
In the brows that have rescued their friends from the grave
And the thanks of a nation forever be given
To the heroes immortal, co-workers with heaver.

They Call'd me Brunken Roarer.

ADAPTED TO THE AIR OF "O CRUEL." ARRANGED BY J PLIMPTON.

WORDS, by F. M. ADLINGTON.

- 2 The females once would shy me, or drop the pitying tear,
 The men pass'd scornful by me, then the boys call'd out to jeer.
 'Twas there goes drunken Blarney, the Lazy Lounging Cur,
 But now its Mister Barney Sir, I'm glad to see you, Sir.
 CHORUS. Be thankful, &c.
- 3 The females now, oh bless them, politely, kindly smile,
 The men when 1 address them, now no longer treat me vile,
 The boys who sported freely, when I got tipsy high,
 Now touch their caps genteely O, or bowing pass me by.
 CHORUS. Be thankful, &c.

The very dogs who knew me, when I was Barney Blue, No more in wrath pursue me now, but whine a 'how do you do, O Temp'rance the restorer, thy quick'ning power I feel, No more the drunken roarer now, but Temp'rance firm as steel. CHORUS. Be thankful, &c.

5 Oh may all Temp'rance Teachers like Father Mathew thrive, And like a band of brothers all in peace and friendship live. Bless every Washingtonian, and may they never tire, "Till all the world in union firm, make one great Temp'rance Chorr CHORUS Be thankful, &c.

3 Cold water too, (though wonderful,
'Tis not less true, again)—
The weakest of all earthly drinks,
Doth make the strongest men.
Doth make the strongest men, my friends,
Doth make the strongest men;
Then let us take that weakest drink,
And grow the strongest men.

4 I've seen the bells of tulips turn,
To drink the drops that fell
From summer clouds;—then why should not
The two lips of a belle?
The two lips of a belle?
The two lips of a belle?
What sweetens more than water pure
The two lips of a belle?

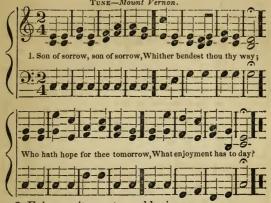

The sturdy oak full many a cup
Doth hold up to the sky,
To catch the rain; then drinks it up,
And thus the oak gets high:
'Tis thus the oak gets high, my friends,
'Tis thus the oak gets high;
By having water in its cups,
Then why not you and I?

b Then let cold water armies give
Their banners to the air;
So shall the boys like oaks be strong.
The girls like tulips fair;
The girls like tulips fair, my friends,
The girls like tulips fair,
The boys shall grow like sturdy oaks,
The girls like tulips fair

'Boll on, thou Temp'rance River.'

AIR .- Blue Eved Mary. Arranged by J. Plimpton. Andapte. 1. Roll on, thou temp'rance river! A branch we are of thee;
2. A small and noiseless streamlet, We're winding t'wards that shore 3. Come all ye smiling beauties, Ye matrons, too, ap - pear; 4. There's virtue in this goblet, Young men we drink to you; Chorus. Our land we must de-liv-er, From Bacchus wash her free. Where temp'rance's sparkling sea yet Will a broad ocean roar. Come, now perform your du-ties, Come, pledge to water clear. Pure nec-tar now flows from it, 'Tis Hermon's spicy dew. our mot-to, From pur - est foun-tains flow, Last time. small notes. grottos, And from the sparkling

Son of Sorrow.

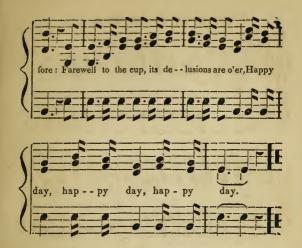

- 2 False excitement, maddening ever, Fills thy fever heated brain, This will save from sorrow never, Leaving death, remorse and pain.
- 3 Son of sorrow! son of sorrow!

 Come with me, O come to day;

 Wait not—wait not till to morrow,

 Leave, O leave delusion's way.
- 4 Where are now the babes thou loved?
 Where the wife thou held so dear?
 What has their affections proved?
 Son of madness, shed a tear!
- 5 Change thee ere thy doom is fixed, Bringing everlasting gloom! Flee, O flee the drunkard's madness! Flee from madness and the tomb!

2

To whiskey and gin, beer and cider farewell— Happy day, happy day, happy day; For language would fail all their mis'ries to tell: Bu' alone let them be, and then all will be well, To whiskey and gin, &c

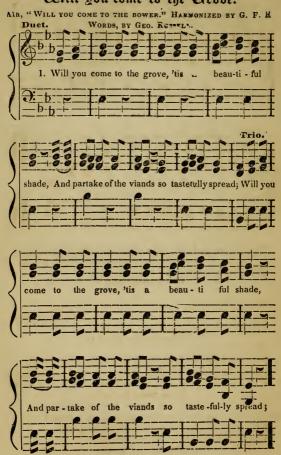

3

The sparkling champaigne, all its pleasure has lost—
Happy day, happy day, happy day;
For all the bright visions the tempter may boast,
Will never half pay for the heart-aches they cost.
The sparkling, &c.

4

Oh! glorious time, when resolved ere too late—
Happy day, happy day, happy day,
We pledge all our lives to perpetual hate,
To all kinds of drink that can intoxicate.
Oh! glorious time, &c.

Mill you come to the Grove.

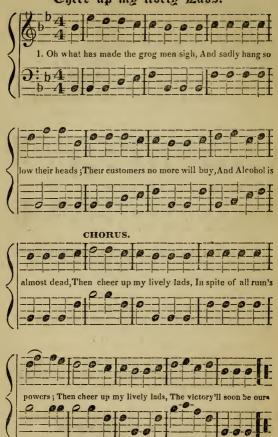

- 2 Will you come to the spot where the evergreens grow, Whose leaves drink the dew, and decay never know, Will you, will you, will you, will you, Come to the spot?
- 3 We will sportively chat, and will merrily sing,
 While we drink of the water that flows from the spring,
 Will you, will you, will you,
 Come to the grove?
- 4 Will you bring each his mate and invite him to sign,
 The sweet pledge, the safe pledge, to drink water, not
 Will you, will you, will you,

 Each bring his mate?
- 5 'Tis the hope of our country, that pledge—it will save
 Full many a youth from th' inebriate's grave,
 Will you, will you, will you,
 All sign the pledge

Cheer up my lively Lads.

But now I think we'll take our turn,
And as they often made us blue,
Their Brandy, Rum and Gin we'll burn,
And see if that wont look so too.
Then cheer, &c.

3

Hurrah my lads we're coming on,
They're shaking now within their shoes,
The rum heads now most all are gone,
They soon will have no more to lose.

4

We're building forts all round the town, And guns in plenty we have got; Wε'll batter all the rum holes down, For only turn coats aim the shot.

5

Then shout my lads, give three loud cheers, Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, away; The rascal's dead, we'll shed some tears, But that we'll do some other day.

6

The ladies all will to a man,
Turn out and help us onward too;
And every one do all she can,
To help the noble Cause quite through;

7

The grog men think that we are weak,
And that our feeble bands are few,
In thunder tones we soon will speak,
Ten thousand in each hardy crew.

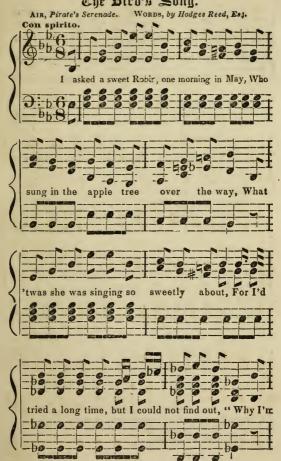

8

They've stood their ground quite long enough Now corporal gin and captain rum And every other nasty stuff, Will shortly have to cut and run

The Bird's Song.

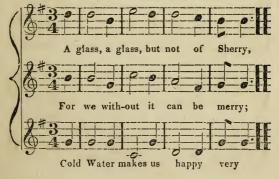

"Tetotal—O, that's the first word of my lay,
And then don't you see how I rattle away,
'Tis because I've just dipp'd my beak in the spring,
And brushed the fair face of the Lark with my wing,
Cold Water, Cold Water, yes, that is my song,
And I love to keep singing it all the day long."

3

"And now my sweet Miss, won't you give me a crumb For the dear little nestlings waiting at home? And one thing beside; since my story you've heard, I hope you'll remember the lay of the bird, And never forget, while you list to my song, All the birds to the Cold Water Army belong."

A Glass, a Glass, but not of Sherry.

CATCH-from Temperance Lyre, by Mrs. Dana.

Temperance Watchword.

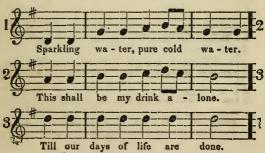

What a thraldom I was under,
Crush'd beneath intemperance's reign,
Reason, with her voice of thunder
Could not break the galling chain;
Weeping wife and starving children
Plead with tears but plead in vain.

Sunk in vice and black pollution,
Where no rays of comfort dart,
Shame and scorn and destitution,
Could not reach this slavish heart;
Chains of adamant had bound me
Far too strong to rend apart.

Thanks to God his grace has found me,
Placed me on a solid shore;
Father, let it still surround me,
That I stray away no more;
That alone has power to keep me
Safely till my days are o'er.

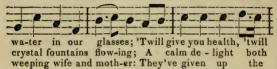

Allegretto.

1. Sparkling and bright in its liquid light Is the

2. Bet - ter than gold is the water cold From the give you wealth, Ye lads and ro - sy lass - es. day and night, To hap-py homes be - stow - ing. poi-son'd cup, Son, husband, daughter, broth - er.

The Bird's Song.

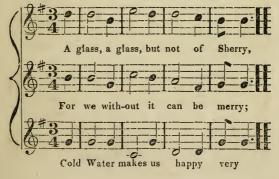

"Tetotal—O, that's the first word of my lay,
And then don't you see how I rattle away,
"Tis because I've just dipp'd my beak in the spring,
And brushed the fair face of the Lark with my wing,
COLD WATER, COLD WATER, yes, that is my song,
And I love to keep singing it all the day long."

3

"And now my sweet Miss, won't you give me a crumb For the dear little nestlings waiting at home? And one thing beside; since my story you've heard, I hope you'll remember the lay of the bird, And never forget, while you list to my song, All the birds to the COLD WATER ARMY belong."

A Glass, a Glass, but not of Sherry.

CATCH-from Temperance Lyre, by Mrs. Dana.

Temperance Watchword.

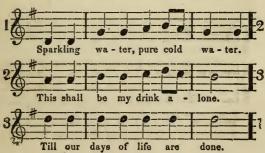

What a thraldom I was under,
Crush'd beneath intemperance's reign,
Reason, with her voice of thunder
Could not break the galling chain;
Weeping wife and starving children
Plead with tears but plead in vain.

Sunk in vice and black pollution,
Where no rays of comfort dart,
Shame and scorn and destitution,
Could not reach this slavish heart;
Chains of adamant had bound me

Far too strong to rend apart.

Thanks to God his grace has found me,
Placed me on a solid shore;
Father, let it still surround me,
That I stray away no more;
That alone has power to keep me
Safely till my days are o'er.

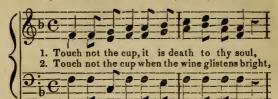

Touch not the Cup.

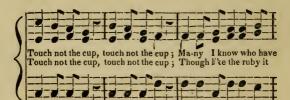

FROM THE WASHINGTONIAN HARP.

WORDS, BY J. H. A.

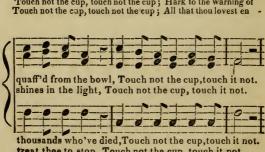

Tune, "Long, LONG AGO."

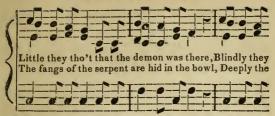

- Touch not the cup, young man in thy pride,
- 4. Touch not the cup, O drink not a drop.

Touch not the cup, touch not the cup; Hark to the warning of treat thee to stop, Touch not the cup, touch it not.

Go to their lonely and desolate tomb, Think of their Stop! for the home that to thee is so near, Stop! for the death, of their sorrow and gloom, Think, that perhaps thou may'st friends that to thee are so dear, Stop, for thy country, the share in their doom, Touch not the cup, touch it not. God that you fear, Touch not the cup, touch it not.

Who'll join the Army.

TUNE, ORPHAN NOSEGAY GIRL.

2 Who'll join the army? Come and arm for the fight, Equip with the badge and the song; With arms such as these, surely we'll put to flight King Alcohol's bands, ere 'tis long. Then come, &c.

3 Who'll join the army? Come one and come all, Let's march in a phalanx so broad That the sound of our songs shall on every ear fall, Till the monster strong drink be destroyed Then, &c.

A New Temperance Song.

AIR .- " Sandy and Jenny."

- "No, no, my old codger," said Harvey with speed,
 "I'm not to be caught by that gammon indeed
- "I'm not to be caught by that gammon indeed Beside, if I sign, what will Swiggonton say? So none of your cold water doings to-day."
- "Take care, my good fellow and mind what you de Both whiskey and grog are bad liquors for you; You're getting quite frequently "over the bay." So sign the teetotaller's paper to-day."
- "No, no, old aquatic," he answered again,
 "You'd like a stiff bumper yourself, it is plain;
 Beside, I've got used to it now, as they say,
 So I'll stick to the switchell, at least for to-day."
- "Good-bye to you then," Waters gravely replied,
 "You mistake your own welfare, it can't be denied;
 For could you but hear what the lecturers say,
 You'd join the society this very day."
- "Stay, stay, honest Waters," said he with a smile,
 "I've been thinking you" right in the main all the while
 Let drunkards and remembers laugh as they may,
 I'll sign the teetotaller's paper to-day."

NOV 7 1935

