COMPLETE METHOD FOR THE BOEHM CLARINET

In Three Parts

This unequalled Course of Study for the Clarinet has been adopted by the United States Army Bands. It is carefully graded, and all studies are linked to each other in progressive fashion so that one "difficult" is taken up at a time. Thus everything—from the elementary lesson to the cadenza—is systematically covered.

The text, which is well written, describes and clearly illustrates each fingering as taken up, and there are many interesting solos, duets, and trios to make study a real pleasure.

Part III, a veritable treasure house for the true lover of the clarinet, contains routine studies and exercises to keep the tongue and fingers limber. There are also rhythmical studies in 5-4 time, scherzos, some beautiful duets, and a trio.
