Critical notes

This score is the first modern edition of the song “Die drey Sterne von Theodor Körner” (G.153) by the Danish composer “Georg Gerson” (1790–1825). The composition is dated March 11, 1819.

The source is:

MS      “Partiturer No. 5”, “George Gersons samling: mu 7105.0963 C II, 6b”, a collection of manuscript scores by Gerson preserved at the Royal Library of Copenhagen, Denmark. The song is found on pp. 76–77.

The poem “Die drey Sterne” by the German poet, Theodor Körner (1791–1813) was published in “Theodor Körners poetischer Nachlaß”, Leipzig 1815.

In his manuscripts Gerson made use of various shorthand notations like slashed notes representing repeated notes. Such notation types are also found in music prints from that period like Gerson’s string quartet no. 5 (G.63) published as part books 1826. The full score of this modern edition comes in two versions: a score keeping as close as possible to the original notation and an alternative, ’contemporized’ score expanding the shorthand notations. In the contemporized scores the beaming of vocal staves has been adapted to modern practices. Separate parts are contemporized as well.

When a slurred phrase obviously starts with tied notes the tie is often omitted:

In the modern edition the tie has been added:  (G.41, String Quintet, movement 1, V11. bar 55–56.)

Performance indications within brackets and dashed ties and slurs have been added by the editor.
