The first system of musical notation for the 'Lied der Nachtigall' is written on a single staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some notes beamed together. There are two asterisks (*) placed below the staff, one under a pair of beamed eighth notes and another under a pair of beamed sixteenth notes. The system ends with a double bar line.
