Come buy my flow'rs, — My ros-es gay and bloom - ing!

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It begins with a forte (f) dynamic, featuring a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together in groups of three. The lyrics "Come buy my flowers, — My roses gay and bloom - ing!" are written below the staff. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves, treble and bass, with a grand staff brace on the left. It starts with a piano (pp) dynamic and includes a section marked "sf" (sforzando) with the instruction "(Curtain rises)" above it. The piano part uses various chords and arpeggiated figures, ending with a piano (p) dynamic. The score is a single system with a repeat sign at the end.
