The musical score consists of four systems of music. System 1 starts with a piano part in forte dynamic (P[iano] forté) and a vocal part (Chant) in Andante con moto. System 2 begins at measure 4 with lyrics in French. System 3 begins at measure 8 with lyrics in French. System 4 begins at measure 12 with lyrics in French. The piano part includes dynamics such as p rf, p, mf, and p. The vocal part follows a melodic line with various note values and rests. The score is in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). Measures 1-3 are silent for the vocal part.

Critical notes

This score is the first modern edition of the song “Tu n’ es pas lui. par J. Pain” (WoO 15) by the Danish composer “Georg Gerson” (1790–1825). Composed in Mariánské Lázně (Marienbad), May 23, 1824.

The source is:

MS “Partiturer No. 5”, “George Gersons samling: mu 7105.0963 C II, 6b”, a collection of manuscript scores by Gerson preserved at the Royal Library of Copenhagen, Denmark. The song is found on p. 242.

COP “Duetten und Romanzen”, “C II, 140 tv. Fol. 1910-11.172”, a collection of manuscript copies written around 1825 preserved at the Royal Library of Copenhagen, Denmark. The song is found on p. 28.

The text is by the French librettist and journalist, Marie Joseph Pain (1773–1830). It was published in “Poésies de M^r Joseph Pain”, Paris, 1820, pp. 113–114.

In his manuscripts Gerson made use of various shorthand notations like slashed notes representing repeated notes. Such notation types are also found in music prints from that period like Gerson’s string quartet no. 5 (G.63) published as part books 1826. The full score of this modern edition comes in two versions: a score keeping as close as possible to the original notation and an alternative, ’contemporized’ score expanding the shorthand notations. In the contemporized scores the beaming of vocal staves has been adapted to modern practices. Separate parts are contemporized as well.

Performance indications within brackets and dashed ties and slurs have been added by the editor.
