PREFACE

---

THE excuse, if any be needed, for the publication of this collection of carols, is a double one: viz., the happy and widely prevailing return in recent years to the old custom of carol singing, and the desire on the part of the compiler to further this custom by placing within the reach of those who engage in it, an abundance of good material.

Some of the carols presented in this volume already have appeared in the "Parish Choir," but none are here reprinted which have not, in at least one circle, attained some degree of popularity. For the convenience of those who are accustomed to the use of the carols in the leaflet form in which they have been published, they retain the same numbering in this collection.

It is not the compiler's purpose to dwell upon the antiquity, the history, and the beauty of the custom of carol singing as well at Easter and other seasons of the Christian Year as in connection with the Christmas Festival. There is an abundance of literature on the subject as may be seen in the list of publications to be found in the latter part of this volume.

The number of Christmas carols in this collection largely exceeds those for any other season, because the use of carols at Christmas time is more general than at other times. And in sending forth this volume the compiler would adopt the words of John Audley, the blind and deaf chaplain of Haughmond Abbey, about the year 1426 —

"I pray you sirs, both more and less,
Sing these carols in Christēmas."

FACSIMILE

Of a MS. (Bodleian 572, fol. 50) still existing, and thought to be the first Native Carol in England. It probably was the work of a monk inventive and well skilled in music. The old alphabetical notation is seen above the Latin text.

In low'ring gloom and cloudiness.

Carol 1.
(Last Verse Major.)
Slow and soft.

(FOR EASTER.)

Edward Handley.

1. In low'-ring gloom and cloud-i-ness, the sun had sunk to rest;
2.* { The an-gels who in grief and awe had watch'd His suff'-rings dread,
3. † A-gain the scourge, the cross, the nails, the out- rage and the wrong,
3. † A-gain the light of Eas-ter dawns, and shall we si-lent be,

1. And drear-iest night had dark-en'd o'er the earth's sin-la-den breast:
2. { The an-guish keen, the storm of woe, that gath-er'd o'er His head,
3. Seen Sa-tan's pow'r tri-umph-ant, the hosts of e-vil strong,
3. Nor bless the Love, the Grace, the Pow'r, that us from death set free?

Quicker.
But when that brightest morn-ing broke, the woe and curse were o'er, The pow'rs of death were Now wake the strain with one ac-cord thro' all the courts of Heav'n, To sing the praise of
With ho-ly joy from ear-liest morn let each his voice up-raise, And thro' the ransom'd van-quish-ed, and Sa-tan reign'd no more. The Sav-iour from the tomb a-rose, the Love Di-vine, the joy of man for-given. The Sav-iour from the tomb a-rose, the world resound our Great Re-deem-er's praise. O praise the Fa-ther, praise the Son! and darkness pass'd a-way, And o'er the world in beau-ty dawn'd the glorious Eas-ter day.

darkness pass'd a-way, And o'er the world in beau-ty dawn'd the glorious Eas-ter day.
Ho-ly Spir-it bless'd! And be the Name of God most High thro' ev'-ry land con-fess'd.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen!

Carol 3.

(FOR EASTER.)

Arthur S. Sullivan.

1. Christ is ris - en! Christ is ris - en! He hath burst His bonds in twain! Christ is ris - en!

Christ is ris - en! Earth and Heav'n, pro-long the strain! He who suff-ered pain, and loss,

In His love to us, Dy - ing on the bit - ter Cross, Lives vic - to - ri - ous!

Christ is ris - en! Christ is ris - en! He hath burst His bonds in twain!

Christ is ris - en! Christ is ris - en! Earth and Heav'n, pro - long the strain!

Lo, the chains of death are broken!
 Earth below, and heaven above!
 Joy anew in every token
 Of Thy triumph, Lord of love!
 He o'er earth and heaven shall reign
 At His Father's side
 Till He cometh once again,
 Bridegroom to His Bride,
 Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
 He hath burst His bonds in twain!
 Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
 Earth and Heaven, prolong the strain!

Angel legions, downward thronging,
 Hail the Lord of earth and skies!
 Ye who watch'd with holy longing
 Till your Sun again should rise;
 He is risen! earth, rejoice!
 Sing, ye starry train!
 All things living, find a voice!
 Jesus lives again!
 Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
 He hath burst His bonds in twain!
 Christ is risen! Christ is risen!
 Earth and Heaven, prolong the strain!

f Glad tidings of great joy he bringeth,
 The azure vault with anthems ringeth;
 "Emmanuel" awakes the song,
ff And countless hosts the glorious theme prolong.

p "To you this day is born a Saviour,
 Your Prophet, Priest, and King for ever;"
f "All glory be to God," they cry;
ff "All glory be to God," let earth reply.

p "On earth be peace with mercy blending,
 Good-will to men, and love unending;"
 Thus sweetly sing the angel throng,
 And all the heavenly host rehearse the song.

f Through field and wood the song resoundeth,
 O'er hill and vale the chorus boundeth;
 Exultingly the echoes roll,
ff And hymns of triumph spread from pole to pole

p The shepherds view the host returning,
 Their hearts with holy ardour burning;
 To Bethlehem they wend their way,
 Repeating with glad tongues th'angelic lay.

p In haste they seek the heavenly Stranger;
 They find the Babe laid in a manger;
 With wonder and with awe they fall,
ff And joyfully adore Him, Lord of all!

f Now every voice with rapture swelleth,
 For Christ the Lord with mortals dwelleth;
 Let men and angels Him adore,
ff And shout their glad Hosannas evermore.

In the early morning, early.

Carol 5.

[FOR CHRISTMAS.]

W. Borrow.

To the humble Bethlehem shepherds,
On the first glad Christmas morn,
Sang the choir of God Angelic,—
Christ the Son of God is born!
When the dew was white and pearly,
Flashed a light across the sky,
In the early morning, early,
Glory be to God on high.

Glory in the heavens eternal,
Upon earth be glory, too,
For the day of grace hath broken,
And a King is born to you.
In the early morning, early,
Glory be to God on high:
Rang the sound of Angels harping,
Though the stillly, list'ning sky.

Joy fills our inmost hearts to-day.

Carol 6.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Samuel Smith.

1. Joy fills our in - most hearts to - day! The Roy - al Child is born:

Once again the Holy Night
Breathes its blessing tender,
Once again the Manger Light
Sheds its gentle splendour;
Oh! could tongues by Angels taught
Speak our exultation
In the Virgin's Child that brought All mankind Salvation?

Welcome Thou to souls athirst,
Fount of endless pleasure:
Gates of Hell may do their worst,
While we clasp our Treasure:
Welcome, though an age like this Puts Thy Name on trial,
And the Truth that makes our bliss
Pleads against denial!

Yea, if others stand apart,
We will press the nearer;
Yea, O best fraternal Heart,
We will hold Thee dearer:
Faithful lips shall answer thus
To all faithless scorning,
"Jesus Christ is God with us,
Born on Christmas morning."

So we yield Thee all we can,
Worship, thanks, and blessing:
Thee true God, and Thee true Man,
On our knees confessing;
While Thy Birth-day morn we greet
With our best devotion,
Bathe us, O most true and sweet!
In Thy Mercy's ocean.

Child of light! Be Thou our might, Our gen - tle King for aye!

Slowly fall the snow-flakes.

Carol 10.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

W. Borrow

1. Slow - ly fall the snow - flakes, Cloth - ing earth in white,

Sweet - ly bells are chim - ing, On this Christ - mas night;

Dark the earth a - fore - time, White on Christ - mas morn;

Christ the curse re - vers - ing,— Ma - ry's Son is born.

Slowly fall the snow-flakes,
Virgin-white the sod,
In the chill descending,
Like the grace of God;
Wild the varied chimings,
One tale only tell—
Lies in Bethlehem's manger
Great EMMANUEL.

Slowly fall the snow-flakes,
Hang the holly high,
Bright its berries, greeting
God Incarnate nigh;
Dark the earth no longer,
Barren nevermore,
Grace-flowers spring to blossom
On the eternal shore.

Sleep, Holy Babe.

Carol 11.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Rev. J. B. Dykes.

Sleep! Holy Babe! Thine Angels watch around,
All bending low with folded wings,
Before the Incarnate King of kings,
In reverent awe profound.

Sleep! Holy Babe! while I with Mary gaze
In joy upon that Face awhile
Upon the loving infant smile
Which there Divinely plays.

Sleep! Holy Babe! ah! take Thy brief repose:
Too quickly will Thy slumbers break,
And Thou to lengthened pains awake
That Death alone shall close.

Carol, sweetly carol.

Carol 12.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

T. E. Perkins.

1. Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, A Sav - iour born to - - - day:
 2. Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, As when the An - gel throng
 3. Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, The hap - py Christmas - time;

Bear the joy - ful tid - ings, Oh, bear them far a - way.
 O'er the vales of Ju - dah, A - woke the heaven-ly song.
 Hark! the bells are peal - ing Their mer - ry, mer - ry chime;

Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, Till earth's re - mot - est bound Shall
 Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, Good will, with peace and love,
 Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, Ye shin - ing ones a - bove, hear the might - y cho - rus, And e - cho back the sound.

 Glo - ry in the high - est, To God who reigns a - bove.
 Sing in loud - est num - bers, Oh, sing re - deem - ing love.

CHORUS.

Ca - rol, sweet-ly ca - rol, Ca - rol, sweet-ly to - day;
 Ca - rol, Ca - rol, Ca - rol, Ca - rol,
 Ca - rol sweet-ly, Ca - rol sweet-ly to - day,

Bear the joy - ful tid - ings, Oh, bear them far a - way.

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain.

Carol 13.

(FOR EASTER.)

Arthur S. Sullivan.

1. Come, ye faith - ful, raise the strain Of tri - umph - ant glad - ness;

God hath brought His Is - ra - el In - to joy from sad - ness:

Loosed from Pha - raoh's bit - ter yoke Ja - cob's sons and daugh - ters;

Led them with un - moistened foot Through the Red Sea wa - ters. A - MEN.

'Tis the Spring of souls to-day:
Christ hath burst His prison;
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen;
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His Light, to whom we give Laud and praise undying.

Now the Queen of Seasons, bright
With the day of splendour,
With the royal Feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection,
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' Resurrection.

Alleluia now we cry
To our King Immortal,
Who triumphant burst the bars
Of the tomb's dark portal;
Alleluia, with the Son
God the Father praising;
Alleluia yet again
To the Spirit raising. AMEN.

Bright Easter Skies.

Words by Bishop A. Burgess.

Music by G. W. Marston.

[FOR EASTER.]

1. Bright Eas-ter skies! Fair Eas-ter skies! Our Lord is risen, We, too, shall rise.
 2. Green Eas-ter fields! Fair Eas-ter fields! Heaven's first ripe fruit, Death, conquered, yields.
 3. Sweet Eas-ter flowers! White Eas-ter flowers! From Heaven descend Life-giv-ing showers.
 4. O Christian child! O Christian men! Our Vic-tor Lord, Shall come a - gain.

Nor walls of stone, hewn firm and cold, Nor Ro-man sol-diers, brave and bold;
 In church-yards wide the seed we sow, Be-neath the cross the wheat shall grow;
 Each plant that bloomed at E-den's birth, Shall blow a - gain o'er ransomed earth;
 Wake we our hearts at His com-mand; Lift we our love to His right hand;

dim.
 Nor Satan's mar-shalled hosts could keep The pierc-ed hands in death-ly sleep:
 One Eas-ter - Day death's reign shall end, And gold-en sheaves shall heav'n-ward send.
 Pluck lil-ies rare and ro-ses sweet, And strew the path of Je-sus' feet,
 With warmest hopes, to Eas-ter skies, Stretch we our arms, and fix our eyes:

cres.
 Just as the Eas-ter day-beams dawn, Our bur-ied Lord is risen and gone.
 Hail the blest morn, by whose glad light, An-gels shall reap the har-vest white.
 Throw fragrant palms be-fore our King, And wreath the crown the saved shall bring.
 Till in the clouds His sign we see, And quick and dead shout "Ju-bi-lee!"

AFTER EACH VERSE.

CHORUS.

ff Wake and sing, good Chris - tians, On this Birth - day Morn,

ff

Heaven and Earth are tell - ing God for man is born.

p 2 Here for us abiding,
Cradled in a Stall,
All His glory hiding,
See the LORD of all!
CHORUS—Wake and sing, &c.

p 3 Born that He might lead us,
From this desert home,
Guide our way, and feed us,
Till the end shall come!
CHORUS—Wake and sing, &c.

mf There were poor Shepherds in the field,
 Their flocks at midnight tending;
 Then Heaven came down and brought for news, cr
 A rapture never ending;
 So they went swift to Bethlehem,
 And saw—and told the story
 Of CHRIST the LORD, a little CHILD,
 And Angels singing "Glory."
 CHORUS.—Noel! Noel! &c.

mf Not in the manger lies HE now;
 Far o'er the sapphire portal
 At God's right Hand of Power He sits
 Who was this day made mortal:
 All in the highest, holiest place,
 Where there may dwell none other,
 There our own Manhood sits enthroned,
 There is our Elder Brother.
 CHORUS.—Noel! Noel! &c.

Blithely from the moated churchyard.

Carol 19.

1. Blithe - ly from the moat - ed churchyard Ring the clear-voiced bells this morn;

mf

While a - cross the wav y land-scape, Far a - way the mists are borne.

cr

Pass a - way, ye clouds of sad - ness, Ev' - ry sel - fish care de - part;

f

Grate - ful tho'ts, and tho'ts of glad - ness, Ring from ev' - ry Chris-tian heart.

Brightly in the holy chancel
Leafy circles intertwine
Telling how in Blessèd JESUS
Life and strength and joy combine.
As beneath the arch we enter
Welcome words our coming bless,
For in Thee our hopes we centre,
CHRIST, "THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS."

In the nave each space is speaking
Of the light which JESUS brought,
Of the freedom and the glory
Which for all the world He wrought.
Wherefore, O ye congregation,
Should your hearts be cold and dumb,
While the walls proclaim Salvation,
And, "Arise, thy LIGHT is come."

Listen to the old-new message,
At the Holy Table kneel;
Grudge not, when ye leave the Temple,
To diffuse the warmth ye feel.
Life has time enough for sadness,
Clouds too seldom pass away;
Only love and peace and gladness,
Should be named on Christmas Day.

p He who built the starry skies
Low within a manger lies,
Stooping from His Throne sublime,
High above the cherubim.

CHORUS.—Hail, &c.

p Say, ye wand'ring Shepherds, say
What your joyful news to-day;
Wherefore have ye left your sheep?—
Wherefore fail your watch to keep?

CHORUS.—Hail, &c.

p “As we watched at dead of night,
Lo! we saw a wondrous sight,—
Angels singing Peace on Earth,
Telling of the SAVIOUR'S Birth.”

CHORUS.—Hail, &c.

Come, ye lofty, come, ye lowly.

Carol 23.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Rev. A. Gurney.

Cheerfully.
Come, ye loft - y, come, ye low - ly, Let your songs of glad-ness ring ; In a sta - ble lies the Ho - ly, In a man-ger rests the King ; See in Mary's arms re - pos-ing, Christ by highest Heav'n a - dored ? Come, your cir - cle round Him clos-ing, Pi - ous hearts that love the Lord.

Come, ye poor, no pomp of station
Robes the child your hearts adore :
He, the Lord of all salvation,
Shares your want, is weak and poor :
Oxen, round about behold them !
Raffers naked, cold, and bare,
See the Shepherds, God has told them
That the Prince of Life lies there.

3.
Come, ye children, blithe and merry,
This one Child your model make ;
Christmas holly, leaf and berry,
All be prized for His dear sake :
Come, ye gentle hearts and tender,
Come, ye spirits keen and bold ;
All in all your homage render
Weak and mighty, young and old.

High above a Star is shining
And the Wise men haste from far :
Come, glad hearts, and spirits pining :
For you all has risen the star.
Let us bring our poor oblations,
Thanks and love and faith and praise ;
Come, ye people, come, ye nations,
All in all draw nigh to gaze.

Hark ! the Heaven of heavens is ringing :
Christ the Lord to man is born !
Are not all our hearts, too, singing,
Welcome, welcome, Christmas morn :
Still the Child, all power possessing,
Smiles as through the ages past ;
And the song of Christmas blessing
Sweetly sinks to rest at last.

On this glorious Easter morning.

Carol 24.

(FOR EASTER.)

Traditional.

1. On this glo - rious Eas - ter morn - ing, Rob - bing death of all its sting,

Shattering Sa - tan's gloom - y em - pire, Rose our Prophet, Priest, and King; Rose the Son of God, tri - umphant, Conq' - ror o - ver death and sin. Lift your heads, ye heav'n - ly Por - - tals, Let the King of Glo - ry in!

He who left His Father's glory,
He who stooped from Heaven most high,
Lived as man on earth—and suffered,
Died—that man no more should die,
Now returns, a mighty Victor,
Conq'ror over death and sin.
Lift your heads, ye heav'nly Portals,
Let the King of Glory in!

3.

Christians! this glad Easter morning,
Tells of Light, and Life, and Love;
Tells us somewhat of the yearning
Felt for man in heaven above;
Tells how Jesus rose triumphant
Conq'ror over death and sin;
How the everlasting Portals
Ope'd to let their Monarch in;

4.

Tells us, too, the joyful tidings,
That where He is, we shall be;
And that we, too, shall be like Him,
When we Him in Glory see.
Like Him, Vanquishers of Satan,
Conq'rors over death and sin,
Lift your heads, ye heav'nly Portals.
Let the ransomed servants in!

Holy is the harvest, when each ripened ear,
Bending to the sickle, crowns the golden year;
Store them in our garners; winnow them with care;
Give to God the glory in our praise and prayer.

Holy seed our Master soweth in His field;
Be the harvest holy which our hearts shall yield;
Be our bodies holy, resting in the clay,
Till the Resurrection summons them away.

Glory to the Father, who beheld our need;
Glory to the Saviour, who hath sown the seed;
Glory to the Spirit, giving the increase;
Glory, as it has been, is, and ne'er shall cease!

Sleep, my Saviour, sleep.

Carol 27.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Bohemian. Arranged by Rev. R. F. Smith.

Sleep, my SAVIOUR, sleep,
On Thy bed of hay,
Ere the mourning Angel cometh
To the moon-lit olive garden,
Wiping tears away.

Sleep, my SAVIOUR, sleep,
Sweet on Mary's breast,
Now the shepherds kneel adoring,
Now the mother's heart is joyous,
Take a happy rest.

Sleep, my SAVIOUR, sleep,
Sweet on Mary's breast,
Crucified, with wounds and bruises
Bleeding, purple, stained, disfigured,
One day Thou wilt rest.

Silent night! Holy night!

Carol 28.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight!
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia!
Christ, the Saviour, is born!
Christ, the Saviour, is born!

Silent night! Holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy Holy Face
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy Birth!
Jesus, Lord, at Thy Birth!

Mortals, awake, the morning is breaking.

Carol 30.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

M. A. F.

Mor-tals, a-wake, the morn-ing is break-ing, Chris-tians, re-joice, for the day is at hand;

f

See in the man-ger the In-fant a-dor-ing, Shepherds and An-gels, a won-der-ing band.

Who is the ten-der Babe gent-ly re-pos-ing 'Mid cat-tle and strangers in yon hum-ble stall?

mf

T'is Christ the A-noint-ed, who, from the be-gin-ning, Is Sov'reign, Cre-a-tor, and LORD o-ver all.

f cres. Lento.

Hail the In-car-nate One, Ho-ly and Glo-ri-ous, Sav-iour, Em-man-u-el, God with us.

Shepherds, arise, reveal the strange story
How through the darkness there shone all around
Light far exceeding the sun in its glory;
Trembling ye gaz'd as ye lay on the ground;
How there appeared an Angel declaring
The message of mercy; "Glad tidings I bring," Salvation on high for mankind is preparing,
Earth has received a Heavenly King,
Hail the Incarnate One, &c.

Mortals fall down in devout adoration,
Christians unite in the heavenly strains;
Join in the chorus of loud exultation
Carol'd by Angels on Palestine's plains,
Let the still air ring with music sublimest,
And echo in praises creation to fill;
All honour and glory to God in the Highest,
Peace be on Earth, unto all men good will.
Hail the Incarnate One, &c.

Shepherds, rejoice, lift up your eyes.

Carol 31.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Traditional.

Shep-herds, re-joyce, lift up your eyes, And drive all fears a - way. And drive all fears a - way; News, from the re - gion of the skies! News, from the re - gion of the skies! News, from . . . the re - - - gion of the skies! A SAV - IOUR born to - day.

Jesus, the God whom angels fear,
Comes down to dwell with you;
To-day He makes His entrance here,
But not as monarchs do.

Go, shepherds, where the Infant lies
And see His humble throne; —
With tears of joy in all your eyes,
Go, shepherds, "Kiss the Son"!

Glory to God, who reigns above,
Let peace surround the earth.
Mortals shall know their Maker's love,
At their Redeemer's birth.

Hark! what sounds are sweetly stealing.

Carol 32.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Hark! what sounds are sweet - ly steal - ing, Soft thro' Beth-lehem's mid - night air?

Loud - er yet, and loud - er peal - ing, An - gel ac - cents sure are there.

See! a light from heav'n is streaming,
Night and darkness quit the plain;
See! an angel brightly beaming,
Followed by a radiant train.

"Fear not, shepherds! glad my story,
Tidings of the greatest joy;
Christ is born, the Lord of Glory!
I proclaim a Saviour nigh."

Thus the angel, then ascending,
Seeks again the realms of light;
Now the chorus faintly ending,
All is silence, all is night.

Sing ye the songs of praise.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 33.

Mrs. C. Farebrother.

1. Sing ye the songs of praise; JE-SUS is come! High your glad voi-ces raise; JE-SUS is born!
 2. This day in Beth-le-hem, JE-SUS was born! King of Je-ru-sa-lem, JE-SUS was born!

Cast worldly cares a-way, Wor-ship and homage pay, Welcome the blessed day, JE-SUS is come!
 Sun of all righteousness, Shin-ing with blessedness, Healing our wretchedness, JE-SUS was born!

3.
 Cleanse us from all our sin,
 SAVIOUR Divine!
 Make our thoughts pure within,
 SAVIOUR Divine!
 Lo! now the herald sound
 Carols the love profound,
 Telling of JESUS found,
 SAVIOUR Divine!

 Save through Thy merit,
 Great PRINCE of Peace!
 Give Thy good SPIRIT,
 Great PRINCE of Peace!
 Let not Thy love depart,
 But holy gifts impart,
 Born into every heart,
 Great PRINCE of Peace!

Let heaven and earth rejoice and sing.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 34.

Joseph W. Sidebotham.

1. Let Heaven and earth re-joice and sing; Sa-lute this hap-py morn;
 2. Come, let us join our hearts to God, And thus ex-alt His fame;

The Sa-viour, which is Christ our King, And on this day was born.
 To save us all, this Babe was born, And Je-sus is His Name.

3.
 Wise men and kings rich gifts did bring
 To Bethlehem straitway,
 Conducted by a leading Star,
 Where Christ our Saviour lay.

4.
 O Lord, to Thee all glory be,
 Whom Heaven and earth adore;
 For our Redeemer we will praise
 This day and evermore.

There came three kings ere break of Day.

(FOR EPIPHANY.)

Carol 35.

Andante grazioso.

Rev. R. F. Smith.

1. There came three kings, ere break of day, All on E - pi - phan - ie; Their gifts they bare, both rich and rare, All, all, Lord Christ, for Thee; Gold, frank - in - cense, and myrrh are there, Where is the King? O where? O where? O where is the King? O where?

2 The star shone brightly overhead,
The air was calm and still,
O'er Bethlehem fields its rays were shed,
The dew lay on the hill:
We see no throne, no palace fair,
Where is the King? O where? O where?

3 An old man knelt at the manger low,
A babe lay in the stall;
The starlight played on the Infant brow,
Deep silence lay o'er all:
A maiden bent o'er the Babe in prayer:—
There is the King, O there! O there!

Hark, what mean those holy voices.

Carol 36.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Geo. B. Arnold.

1. Hark! what mean those ho - ly voi - ces Sweet - ly sounding from the skies?

Lo, the An - gel host re - joi - ces; Heaven - ly Al - le - lu - ias rise.

2 "Glory in the highest, glory,"
Thus they chant their joyful strain;
"Glory in the highest, glory;
Peace on earth, good will to men."
3 With their blessed Alleluias
Hear what wondrous things they tell—
How lost man has now a Saviour,
Born to conquer death and hell.

4 Born Thy people to deliver,
Jesu, from the death of sin;
Born to make us Thine forever;
Still abide our souls within.
5 Son of God, most holy Jesu,
Endless glory be to Thee,
To the Father and the Spirit,
Now and through eternity.

3.

Witness throughout all the ages,
Voice to every faithful heart,
Guide to Christ's one holy body,
Sanctifying love Thou art.
Holy Spirit!
Cleanse us, quicken every part!

Holy Trinty we praise Thee!
God the Father who did'st make,
God the Son who did'st redeem us,
Liv'st in glory for our sake.
Holy Spirit!
May we of Thy grace partake.

Keep us in Thy love secure.

3.

God our Saviour, our Redeemer,
Who from glory didst come down,
Who didst veil in shame and weakness,
Thy great might, Thy great renown,
Yea, we thank Thee, yea, we praise Thee,
Thou hast won the victor's crown.

God the Spirit, God of comfort,
Who by promise dost abide
In the faithful hearts that love Thee,
Who our feet in truth dost guide,
Peace and joy Thy presence brings us;
We by grace are sanctified.

5.

God, who rulest through the ages,
Glorious in Thy majesty,
Sov'reign merciful and mighty,
All Thy creatures worship Thee.

as you sang His birth, "Christ the Lord is ris - en," "Peace, good-will on earth."

In the dreadful desert, where the Lord was tried,
There the faithful angels gathered at His side.
And when in the garden, grief and pain and care
Bowed Him down with anguish, they were with Him there.
Cho.—Angels, sing, &c.

Yet the Christ they honour, is the same Christ still,
Who, in light and darkness, did His Father's will.
And the tomb deserted, shineth like the sky,
Since He passed out from it, into victory.

Cho.—Angels, sing, &c.

God has still His angels, helping, at His word,
All His faithful children, like their faithful Lord,
Soothing them in sorrow, arming them in strife,
Opening wide the tomb-doors, leading into Life.

Cho.—Angels, sing, &c.

Father, send Thine angels unto us, we pray;
Leave us not to wander, all along our way.
Let them guard and guide us, wheresoe'er we be,
Till our resurrection brings us home to Thee.

Cho.—Angels, sing, &c.

Let the merry Church Bells ring!

Carol 40.

(EASTER.)

Rev. J. S. B. Hodges.

Fast.

1. Let the mer-ry Church bells ring! Hence with tears and sigh-ing! Frost and cold have fled from Spring,

Life hath con-quer'd dy - ing. Flow'rs are smil - ing, fields are gay, Sun - ny is the weath - er;

With our ris - ing Lord to - day, All things rise to - geth - er. Let the mer-ry Church bells ring!

Let the birds sing out again
From their leafy chapel,
Praising Him, with Whom in vain
Satan sought to grapple;
Sounds of joy come fast and thick,
As the breezes flutter;
Resurrexit, non est hic,
Is the strain they utter.
Let the merry, &c.

3.

Let the past of grief be past;
This our comfort giveth,
He was slain on Friday last,
But to-day He liveth:
Mourning heart must needs be gay,
Nor let sorrow vex it,
Since the very grave can say,
Christus resurrexit.
Let the merry, &c.

Come, and vigil keeping,
Chase away your sleeping;
Your Mother would your hearts prepare
The Queen of Feasts to keep and share.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
This their song,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
All day long.

Come with early morning,
Grace your souls adorning;
For with the rising sun 'tis meet,
The Church her risen Head should greet.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
This her song,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
All day long.

Come with holy yearning,
Love within you burning;
Oh! come, the Church's board is spread,
Consume the Chalice, eat her Bread.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
This her song,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
All day long.

The world itself keeps Easter Day.

Carol 42.

(FOR EASTER.)

Rev. J. S. B. Hodges.

There stood three Maries by the tomb
On Easter morning early,
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly;
Alleluia, Alleluia.
With loving but with erring mind
They came the Prince of Life to find:
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

But earlier still the angel sped
His news of comfort giving;
And "why," he said, "among the dead
"Thus seek ye for the living?"
Alleluia, Alleluia:
"Go tell them all and make them blest,
"Tell Peter first, and then the rest."
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

But one, and one alone, remained
With love that could not vary;
And thus a joy past joy she gained,
That sometime sinner Mary:
Alleluia, Alleluia:
The first the dear, dear form to see
Of Him who hung upon the tree:
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Church is keeping Easter Day,
And Easter hymns are sounding,
And Easter flowers are blooming gay,
The holy Font surrounding;
Alleluia, Alleluia;
The Lord hath risen, as all things tell,
Good Christians, see ye rise as well:
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

of the Lord.

Ye carol-bells of Easter Day!
The teeming earth,
That saw His birth
When lying 'neath the sword,
Upspringeth now in joy, to show
The rising of the Lord!

Ye glory-bells of Easter Day!
The hills that rise
Against the skies,
Re-echo with the word—
The victor-breath that conquers death—
The rising of the Lord!

Ye victor-bells of Easter Day!
The thorny crown
He layeth down:
Ring! ring! with strong accord—
The mighty strain of love and pain,
The rising of the Lord!

Ye passion-bells of Easter Day!
The bitter cup
He lifted up,
Salvation to afford.
Ye saintly bells! your passion tells
The rising of the Lord!

Ye mercy-bells of Easter Day!
His tender side
Was riven wide,
Where floods of mercy poured:
Redeemed clay doth sing to-day
The rising of the Lord!

AWAKE, AWAKE, 'TIS EASTER MORN.

CHORUS.

The musical score consists of five staves. The first four staves are for vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass) and the fifth is for the piano accompaniment. The melody is 'Alleluia' repeated five times. Dynamics include ff (fortissimo), pp (pianissimo), and f (forte). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

To prison'd souls, that long had pined
In Death's dark shadow, Light hath shined ;
A Voice divides the flames of fire,
And wonder wakes a new-born choir :
For hell below forgets her woe,
And forth her kindling praises flow :
CHORUS. Alleluia, &c.

The Gardener in His garden walked,
And with a weeping woman talked ;
To eyes that look through loving tears,
Lo ! Death is Life, and CHRIST appears !
Before all men, by Magdalene
The risen LORD is heard and seen :
CHORUS. Alleluia, &c.

The gates of brass are closed in vain,
The iron bars He bursts in twain ;
The gulf that ne'er was crossed before
Wafts armies to its happier shore :
And Death, once King, has lost his sting,
And hell its CONQUEROR learns to sing :
CHORUS. Alleluia, &c.

The faithful Women next rejoice ;
They clasp His feet, and hear His voice ;
They tell the Apostles all, that He
Will meet them soon in Galilee ;
Their spices rare the morning air
Now sends in perfume everywhere :
CHORUS. Alleluia, &c.

From Heaven an Angel came alone,
And rolled away the mighty stone ;
While two, within, at either end,
In reverent, radiant state attend.
There, clothed in white, their forms of light
Fill all the tomb with glory bright.
CHORUS. Alleluia &c.

And "Peace" is breathed from JESUS now,
On beaming face and bended brow ;
And tongues have come, of cloven fire,
And shades of night and sin retire.
Through earth and sky the voices fly,
And all Creation makes reply :
CHORUS. Alleluia, &c.

The streams that run through every vale,
To field and forest tell the tale ;
The birds, in all their songs of Spring,
Proclaim it, chanting on the wing :
Awake ye then, O sons of men,
And swell the chorus once again :
CHORUS. Alleluia, &c.

PEDALS (if accompanied.)

Alas! in what poor state
The Son of God is seen;
Why doth the Lord so great
Chose out a home so mean?
That we may learn from pride to flee.
And follow His humility.

Where Joseph plies his trade,
Lo! Jesus labours too;
The hands that all things made
An earthly craft pursue,
That weary men on Him may rest,
And faithful toil in Him be blest.

Among the doctors see
The Boy so full of grace:
Say, wherefore taketh He
The scholar's lowly place?
That Christian boys with reverence meet
May sit and learn at Jesus' feet.

Christ! once Thyself a boy,
Our boyhood guard and guide;
Be Thou its light and joy,
And still with us abide;
That Thy dear love, so great, so free,
May draw us evermore to Thee.

Whom ar - mies of light, in their ves - ture bright, Love, serve, and a - dore e - ver - more.

Far, far be - low, where the sun - beams glow On a realm of His wide do - main,

Sad ru - in and woe, hath come through His foe, With trouble and sor - row and pain.

When thus spake the Prince to His Father dear—
 "Now life with a life will I buy,
 Bring help from above for the sons of my love,
 For them will I suffer and die!"
 Away and away to the far-off land,
 When the fulness of time was come,
 Now speedeth the Lord of the Golden Strand
 From His fair everlasting home.

And bright was the carol, and loud the song
 Which burst from the silver sky,
 When entering lowly Earth's sons among
 He was seen by the hosts on high.
 Which song shall resound, as the years go round,
 Till the moon and the stars shall cease;
 All glory and praise to the Ancient of days,

Their glorious voices ringing,
 The heavenly hosts are singing,
 On that Christmas morning.
 They sing of peace and love,
 Good-will from heaven above,
 On that Christmas morning.

Hark! the full-voiced Choir is singing.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 59.

Wm. Gowman.

Arr. by H. S. Irons.

VERSE.

Hark! the full-voic'd Choir is sing-ing, As the mid-night dark-ness flies;
Heavenly An-gels now are bring-ing Peace-ful tid-ings from the skies.

CHORUS.

Hail! O Je-sus! Hail! O Je-sus! Sun of Righ-teous-ness, a-rise! Sun of Righ-teous-ness a-rise!

Yes, behold the Day of Glory
Dawn at length for all the earth;
List, the Cherubs tell the story,—
"This the Day of Jesus' Birth."
Hail! O Jesus! Hail! O Jesus!
Day-spring from on High, shine forth!

Lo, He comes! His Throne the Manger,
Shepherds, seek His Shrine the Stall;
Ox and ass behold the Stranger,
God, who made and governs all!
Hail! O Jesus! Hail! O Jesus!
Hail Thy glorious festival!

Mortals, raise your loudest voices,
Jesus lifts on high your horn;
Earth redeemed to-day rejoices,
For to-day her Lord is born!
Hail! O Jesus! Hail! O Jesus!
Hail, all hail this sacred morn!

"To you in the City of David,
A Saviour is born to-day!"
And sudden a host of heav'nly ones
Flash'd forth to join the lay!
O never hath sweet message
Thrill'd home to the souls of men,
And the Heav'ns themselves had never heard
A gladder choir till then,—
For they sang that Christmas Carol,
That never on earth shall cease, etc.

And the shepherds came to the Manger,
And gazed on the Holy Child;
And calmly o'er that rude cradle
The Virgin Mother smil'd;
And the sky, in star-lit silence,
Seem'd full of the angel lay;
"To you in the City of David
A Saviour is born to-day;"
Oh they sang— and I ween that never
The carol on earth shall cease, etc.

CHORUS. FULL.

f Let eve - ry heart now dance with joy, For Christmas comes a - gain;

Sing "Glo - ry be to God on high, On earth good will to men!"

VERSE SOLI.

mf Though win - try cold may chill the skies, And earth be dark and bare;

Our Christmas light with - in shines bright, And love reigns eve - ry - where.

Though summer trees are leafless all,
And grey on Nature's brow;
Our Christmas tree now sparkling see,
With lights on every bough!
CHORUS. Let every heart, &c.

Though fields are stripped of Autumn fruits,
And snow-storms end the Fall;
By loving hands well loaded, stands
Our Tree, so strong and tall!
CHORUS. Let every heart, &c.

No room was found for CHRIST the King,
When he was born of yore;
But hearts now yearn for His return,
To reign for evermore!
CHORUS. Let every heart, &c.

No love like His was ever known,
Our earthly life to share;
It is His light makes Christmas bright.
His love reigns everywhere!

Easter Day hath dawned again.

Carol 62.

(FOR EASTER.)

C. A. Barry.

• May be sung as an accompanied melody, or as a two-part chorus, with or without accompaniment.

Faithful hearts their watch have kept,
Loving eyes have mourned and wept,
Where, it seemed, He lately slept,
So still and silent, Jesus!

Now, all tears have passed away
With the early morning ray;
From the grave, where once He lay,
There hath arisen Jesus!

Risen, He hath worshipped been
By repentant Magdalene,
And by Simon hath been seen,
Our all-triumphant Jesus!

On this blessed Eventide,
Two there were He walked beside,
And they prayed — "With us abide!"
Although they knew not Jesus!

Jesu, Lord! I pray to Thee,
Though Thy Face not yet I see,
Evermore abide with me—
My Lord—my God—my Jesus!

He has risen! He is pleading
For each poor and struggling one;
Blessed day we hail thy dawning,
Hope shall gild thy rising sun!
While on earth, reviled, rejected,
Gain He counted but as loss.
Hallelujah! He has risen
And we bow before the Cross.

Let the glad songs now ascending,
Sing our dear Redeemer's Name;
Christ has risen! Christ has risen!
All our hope is in the same;
Blessed day that banished darkness,
At the Cross we bow in love,
Knowing that a risen Saviour
Smiles all sweetly from above.

Ring, glad bells, your loudest anthems,
Sounding joy o'er all the earth,
Crown the altars now with garlands,
Let us bow before His worth!
Christ has risen! joy excelling,
All our sorrows flee away,
And our hearts with joy are beating.

O hasten we to meet Him,
With our companions dear,
With love and awe to greet Him,
As He is drawing near;
Once dead, our Jesus liveth,
Who ne'er again may die,
Yet still His death He pleadeth
Before the Throne on high.
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The stars are shining bright and clear.

Carol 67.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Rev. E. W. Bullinger.

The stars are shin-ing bright and clear, The hills are white with snow: Our Christ-mas eve has come a - gain, Our hearts with joy o'er - flow; The Christ - mas car - ols, sweet and glad, Are sound - ing on the air; And Christmas wreaths, in glist'-ning show, Make bright the house of prayer.

Not here across the snow was heard
The first sweet Christmas song;
But where the crimson lilies bloom,
Judaea's hills among:
Those hills where David long before
His father's sheep had kept;
And where, o'er Rachel's lonely tomb,
The mourning Jacob wept.

And not by earthly choristers
Was that first carol sung;
Not through the temple's shining courts
Its faultless music rung;
No listening crowds had gathered there,
That wondrous chant to hear;
Save watchful shepherds on the hills,
No human soul was near.

'Twas sung by countless multitudes
Of Angels pure and bright,
And o'er the bare and silent hills
There shone a glorious light;
Such heavenly music ne'er was heard
Before by sons of men,
And never more shall song like that
Be heard on earth again.

We know the tidings which they brought
Of Christ our Saviour's birth,
Their song of "Glory be to God,
Good-will and peace on earth;"
And so the Christmas carol, sung
By Angels long ago,
Is sweeter than all other songs
Which Christians sing below.

 Wise men hastened from the East
 To bring their richest treasure—
 Gold, and myrrh, and frankincense
 And jewels without measure.
 Him they sought, although a King,
 They found in birthplace lowly,
 There within a manger lay
 The Babe so pure and holy.
 CHO.— Ring the merry Christmas bells, &c.

 Earthly crowns were not for Him;
 He came God's love revealing;
 On the Cross He died for us,
 His blood forgiveness sealing.

 Ring out your loudest praises;
 Every heart this happy day
 Its grateful anthems raises.

Come to the manger, in Bethlehem.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 69.

Samuel Smith.

1. Come to the man-ger in Beth-le-hem, A sweet Child lies there-in,.....
 2. But the heart of the world is far too small To take in that lit-tle Child:
 3. Come to the man-ger in Beth-le-hem, Never mind the frost and snow,
 4. And the more the cold world turns Him out, The more we will take Him in,.....

A Ho-ly Child come down to earth To save the world from sin;....
 It sends Him a-way; there is no room For His face so sweet and mild;...
 We will think of the Child, and the thought of Him Shall warm us as we go;....
 When our hearts are full of the Ho-ly Child They will have no room for sin;....

pp

A lit-tle Child with a Heart so large, It takes the whole world in!....
 They would turn Him out if they on-ly could, To the storm so rude and wild....
 We will kiss His Ho-ly Hands and Feet, And tell Him we love Him so!....
 Come to the man-ger of Beth-le-hem, For a sweet Child lies there-in!....

The joyful morn is breaking.

Carol 70.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

E. J. Hopkins.

The joy - ful morn is break - ing, The bright - est morn of earth, Through all cre - a - tion wa - king The joy of Je - sus' birth. His star a - bove is glistening, Where Je - sus cra-dled lies, And all the earth is listening The car - ol of the skies.

High strains of praise are swelling
From angel hosts on high,
And one soft voice is telling
Glad tidings from the sky;
Tidings of free salvation,
Of peace on earth below;
Through every land and nation
The blessed word shall go!

His children's songs shall name Him
In many a tongue to day;
His Church shall yet proclaim Him
To people far away;
Till idols fall before Him,
Till strife and wrong shall cease,
Till all the earth adore Him,
The eternal Prince of Peace!

No room in the inn.

Carol 71.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

H. J. Gauntlett.

Slowly and sustained.

1. No room in the inn for the tra - vel-lers wea-ry, Though hungry and thirs-ty and foot-sore they be;
2. No place but the sta - ble for Jo - seph and Ma - ry, Al-though they are own'd of the true roy - al line;
The chil - dren of Da - vid, in Da - vid's own ci - ty, They come to en - rol at the Cae - sar's de - cree.
They turn from the inn, from its warmth and its plenty, To rest for the night with the ass - es and kine.

Oh, had the host known, though the inn was o'er crowded,
Who sought in his hostel for shelter and rest,
The fairest guest chamber had been for the strangers,
And he had provided for them of his best!

For in the rude stable, where stars were all shining,
The Lord of the Angels took up His abode,
The Babe in the manger so calmly reposing,
Was Israel's Messiah, the dear Son of God.

We join with the Angels in giving God glory;
From Christmas to Christmas the story repeat
How Jesus was laid a fair Babe in the manger,
And hasten with shepherds to kneel at His Feet.

All glory, all glory to God in the highest!
All glory to Jesus for His lowly birth!
With hearts full of joy we re-echo with gladness,
Good will be to men, and sweet peace upon earth.

He, who bore all pain and loss
Comfortless upon the Cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us and hears our cry:
Alleluia! &c.

Thou, our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, Thy ransomed people feed:
Take our sins and guilt away,
Let us sing by night and day,
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen.

He, who slumbered in the grave,
Is exalted now to save;
Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings.

(FOR EASTER.)

Carol 73.

Rev. Sir. F. A. G. Ouseley.

Eas - ter flowers are bloom - ing bright, Eas - ter skies pour ra - dant light,
 Christ our Lord is risen in might, Glo - ry in the high - est.

 Angels carolled this sweet lay,
 When in manger rude He lay;
 Now once more cast grief away,
 Glory in the highest.

 He, then born to grief and pain,
 Now to glory born again,
 Callest forth our gladdest strain,
 Glory in the highest.

 As He riseth, rise we too,
 Tune we heart and voice anew,
 Offer homage glad and true,
 Glory in the highest.

Soldiers, awake! This is the festal hour.

 Soldiers arouse! Banish all Lenten gloom,
 Let sacred joy this Easter morn attend;
 Jesus hath burst the mighty bands of death,
 And holy angels guard the riven tomb.

 Soldiers, to prayer! Kneel first this blessed day
 To Him, The Lord of hosts, the King of kings;
 See on your banner His redeeming Cross,
 And there your motto, "Ever watch and pray."

 Soldiers, to arms! Forth to life's battle-field,
 The Spirit's sword your only trust shall be;
 While on your brow Salvation's helmet rests,
 And Christian faith protects you as a shield.

 Soldiers, salute, with Heaven's triumphant host,
 Jesus, the Prince of Peace, the Conqueror!
 Yield Him the homage, due Almighty God:
 Worship the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Useless watch the guard are keeping
O'er that tomb so still and lone;
He who there in death was sleeping,
Bursts the seal, and rends the stone.
"Weep no more; no more be given
Gushing tears and mournful sighs,
For the grave's dark gates are riven;
Christ is risen!" the angel cries.

Be our Paschal joy unending!
And, O Lord, deign Thou to save
Contrite souls, that lowly bending,
Pray for life beyond the grave.
Praise the Father, earth and heaven,
Praise the Son, who rose this day,
To the Spirit praise be given—

GIRLS. Break forth in praise, angelic throngs !
Spread Bethlehem's plains with sweetest songs,
A cloud of uttered glory ;
Enfold therein the shepherds meek,
And those who fadeless pastures seek,
Described in prophets' story.
ALL. Adore your King !
For God doth bring
Emanuel the Holy Child
By whom the world is reconciled.

Boys. Rejoice, ye waiting Jews devout !
Let your victorious faith ring out
In swelling Benedictus !
The night of watching now is past,
Redemption's day has come at last,
No more can fear afflict us !
ALL. Let trumpets ring
For God doth bring
The promised heir of David's throne,
Whose kingdom all the earth shall own !

GIRLS. Lift up, ye Gentiles, from afar
Your voice of triumph to the star
On Sion's forehead flaming.
For lo ! it burns with heavenly fire,
Of cherished dreams and vague desire
Fulfillment now proclaiming !
ALL. Let pæans ring
For God doth bring
The King all nations longed to find !
The Light and Leader of mankind !

ALL. Hark ! how the bells together chime !
All ringing in the Golden time
The age of love and glory ;
The choirs of Heaven and those of earth
Unite, O Christ ! to hail Thy birth,
All worlds as one adore Thee.
One anthem rolls
From ransomed souls,
From nature and each living thing,
To Thee, incarnate Son and King !

2.

But in a poor stable their couch was made,
And low in a manger the Babe was laid,
O fair was the Child, the mother how fair !
But only the oxen stood waiting there !

3.

But out on the hills was a wondrous light,
And heavenly music entranced the night ;
And beasts of the field were roused in their lair
By the sound of voices and harps in the air.

4.

And shepherds a-watching their flocks by night
Espied in the heavens a marvellous sight ;
Of angels and spirits a mighty throng,
For joy and great gladness singing this song :

5.

O come then, ye faithful, ye men of good will,
Let joy and thanksgiving every heart fill ;
Tell out the glad tidings that Jesus has come,
To open the way to the heavenly home.

Carol, brothers, carol.

Carol 79.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Rev. W. A. Muhlenberg.

CHORUS.

ff Car-ol, brothers, car-ol, Car-ol joy-ful-ly, Car-ol the good tidings, Car-ol mer-ri-ly:

FINE.

ff And pray a gladsome Christmas For all good Christian men ; Car-ol, brothers, carol, Christmas day a-gain.

DUET.

1. Car-ol, but with glad-ness, Not in songs of earth ; On the Saviour's birth-day Hallowed be our mirth ;

D. C.

p While a thousand blessings Fill our hearts with glee, f Christmas day we'll keep, ff The Feast of Char-i-ty.

At the merry table,
Think of those who've none,
The orphan and the widow,
Hungry and alone.
Bountiful your offerings
To the altar bring ;
Let the poor and needy
Christmas carols sing.
CHO.—Carol, brothers, carol, &c,

Listening angel music,
Discord sure must cease—
Who dare hate his brother
On this day of peace ?
While the heavens are telling
To mankind good will,
Only love and kindness
Every bosom fill.
CHO.—Carol, brothers, carol, &c,

Let our hearts, responding
To the seraph band,
With this morning's sunshine
Bright in every land :
Word, and deed, and prayer
Speak the grateful sound,
Telling "Merry Christmas"
All the world around.
CHO.—Carol, brothers, carol, &c,

Silent stars were watching.

Carol 80.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

W. H. A. Hall.

1. Si - lent stars were watching O - ver hill and plain, Hum - ble shepherds on - ly Heard the joy - ful strain,

When by an - gel voi - ces Were the ti - dings told, Sung by an - gel legions With their harps of gold.

Then, in haste, the shepherds
Heedless of their fold,
Seek King David's city
As the angels told.
There they find the manger,
There the Infant King,
There they tell the story
To the wondering.

In the East, the wise men
Journeying from afar,
Guided to the manger
By the mystic star.
Gold and fragrant incense,
Costly gifts they bring,
In the stable lay them,
Kingly offering.

And on this our Christmas,
While our hearts we bring,
Hear the wondrous story,
Joyous carols sing;
To the holy Christ-child
Grant, O Lord, that we,
Like the kings and shepherds,
May be led by Thee.

Blessed night, when Bethlehem's plain.

Carol 81.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

J. W. Sidebotham.

1. Blessed night, when Beth'lem's plain Echo'd with the joyful strain, "Peace has come to earth again." Al-le-lu - ia!

Blessed hills that heard the song
Of the glorious angel throng
Swelling all your slopes along
Alleluia!

Happy shepherds, on whose ear,
Fell the tidings glad and clear,
"God to man is drawing near."
Alleluia!

Thus revealed to shepherds' eyes,
Hidden from the great and wise,
Entering earth in lowly guise—
Alleluia!

Entering by the narrow door,
Laid upon this rocky floor,
Placed in yonder manger poor.
Alleluia!

We adore Thee as our King,
And to Thee our song we sing
Our best offering to Thee bring.
Alleluia!

Mighty King of Righteousness,
King of Glory, King of Peace,
Never shall Thy Kingdom cease!
Alleluia!

Sing we now of joy and gladness.

Carol 82.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

W. Gilbert.

Andante legato.

Sing we now of joy and glad - ness, Christ our King come down to earth, cres. f Frees man-kind from pain and sad - ness, Hail th' In-car - nate Sa - viour's birth.

dim. p List, an - gel - ic strains are stream-ing Through the O - rient skies, cres. f Look, ce - les - tial light is beam-ing On the won - d'ring shep - herds' eyes.

Haste we then, this birth-day morning,
To the Bethlehem cattle-shed ;
Heed we not, tho' scant adorning
Deck the lowly manger bed :
Though man's fleshly form He weareth,
In His birth-place bare,
He the Eternal Kingdom shareth,
Christ Himself is cradled there.

Parish Choir, No. 176—4.

Offer we in plenteous measure
Gold and gem and costly spice,
If our hearts attend our treasure
He'll accept the sacrifice :
If to Him our life be given,
Raised from earth our eyes,
He will grant us rest in heaven,
In His rest—in Paradise.

The bells are ringing glad and sweet.

Carol 83.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

D. E. Hervey.

SOLO.

1. The bells are ring - ing glad and sweet Beneath th'a-dor - ing an - gels' feet, And in our hearts are glad tho'ts born By ju - bi-lant bells of Christ-mas morn; For, in a man - ger, poor and low, Was born the Christ-child, years a - go; And shepherds, on the hills a - far, Were told the ti - dings by a star.

CHORUS.

Oh, ring, glad bells, ring loud and sweet The song the a - ges shall re-peat, Which an - gels sing on Christmas still, Of "Peace on earth," Of "Peace on earth," Of "Peace on earth, to men good-will."

O Christ-child, in a manger born,
The stars sang on Thy birthday morn.
While cradled on Thy mother's breast,
The wise men sought Thy place of rest;
Then peace descended on the earth,
In honour of Thy lowly birth.
Ah! Thou hast died for us, and them
Who hailed Thee King at Bethlehem.—CHO.

Oh, song, adown the centuries roll'd!
Oh, song, which never can grow old!
O Christ-child, born a cross to bear,
That we, at last, a crown might wear,—
Let us, like shepherds, to Thy feet
Bring love, as tribute-offering meet,
And worship there, while angels sing
In praise of Jesus Christ, our King.—CHO.

Star of glory, brightly streaming.

Carol 84.

(FOR EPIPHANY.)

J. Garnett.

ALTO. Recitative.

And lo! the Star, which they saw in the East, went be - fore them, till it came and stood o - ver where the young Child was.

CHORUS.

Star of glo - ry! bright - ly stream - ing, Wel - come, oh! thou bless - ed star!

Star that erst se - rene - ly beam - ing, Led the wise men from a - far.

Thou their wand'-ring foot-steps led - dest, Star of Glo - ry, plan - et mild!

Till thy heav'n-ly light thou shed - dest O'er the ho - ly, bless - ed Child.

Holy Father! Thou who gavest
Them that light and grace to see!
Holy Son! O Christ, who savest
All that look for light to Thee!
Holy Spirit, ever pouring
Grace on them that seek aright!
Grant us, Lord, with hearts adoring,
Still to walk with Thee in light.

No room within the dwelling.

Carol 85.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Rev. R. F. Dale.

"No room" with-in the dwell-ing For Him whose love ex - cell- ing Towards those who never sought Him,

To earth from heav - en brought Him, Who count-ed not the cost To seek the lost.

"No room;" so to the manger
They bore the kingly stranger;
But angel hosts attended,
And angel voices blended,
Whilst on His mother's breast
He lay at rest.

"No room;" O Babe so tender
To Thee our hearts we render,
Not meet for Thy possessing,
Yet make them by Thy blessing
A home wherein to dwell,
EMMANUEL!

'Neath the stars that shone so bright.

Carol 86.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Matthew Cooke.

'Neath the stars that shone so bright Shepherds watch'd their flocks by night Sud - den - ly, in glo - rious guise, Came an an - gel from the skies, Stood be-side them, did not chide them,

Told the ti - dings glad and free, "Christ In - car - nate deigns to be."

Born this day of David's line
Now behold the Babe Divine;
Rude the raiment that enfolds Him,
Rough the manger-bed that holds Him;
Lord all holy, laid so lowly,
Who from highest realm of heaven
Stoops that man may be forgiven.

May we all with heart and voice
Still in Bethlehem rejoice;
Thither by the bright star led
To the House of Living Bread;
Chant the story of His glory
Till His Majesty we see
At His last Epiphany.

Near the Tomb where Jesus slept.

Carol 87.

(FOR EASTER.)

Geo. P. Grantham.

Con spirito.

1. Near the Tomb where Je - sus slept, Ro - man guards their night - watch kept,

Pa - cing to and fro a - lone, By the close - ly seal - ed stone,

CHORUS.

Christ! Thou Con - quer - or! All hail! Guard and stone can nought a - vail!

Death is slain in mor - tal strife; Hail the Prince and Lord of Life!

In the darksome midnight, lo!
Hark! an earthquake rolls below!
Sign of deadly conflict o'er,
Death despoiled for evermore!

Chorus.

That which by the cave-mouth lay,
Angel hands have rolled away;
And the Lord, His three days sped,
Comes triumphant from the dead!

Chorus.

Chorus after last verse.

Christ! Thou Conqueror! all hail!
Let not Death o'er us prevail:
Help us in our mortal strife,
Bring us to the Land of Life!

O! the breathless fear which fell
On the guards no tongue may tell;
Prostrate all, in sore dismay,
As He rose, and passed away!

Chorus.

Christ! Thou Victor o'er the tomb,
Take us in the Day of Doom,
Take us to Thine own dear side,
At the last great Easter-tide!

Christ is risen! Alleluia!

Carol 88.

SEMI-CHORUS.

(FOR EASTER.)

F. C. Maker.

Unison. Harmony.

ff 1. Christ is ris - en! Al - le - lu - ia! Ris - en our vic - to - rious Head!

ff

Unison. Harmony.

Sing His prais - es, Al - le - lu - ia! Christ is ris - en from the dead!

Bow - ing down in joy be - fore Him, Ris - ing up from grief and tears.

Full-Chorus. a tempo. Unison. Harmony.

ff Christ is ris - en! Al - le - lu - ia! Ris - en our vic - to - rious Head!

ff

Unison. Harmony.

Sing His prais - es, Al - le - lu - ia! Christ is ris - en from the dead.

Christ is risen! all the sadness
Of our Lenten fast is o'er;
Through the open gates of gladness
He returns to life once more;
Death and hell before Him bending,
He doth rise, the Victor now,
Angels on His steps attending
Glory round His wounded brow:
Cho.— Christ is risen! &c.

Christ is risen! all the sorrow
That last evening round Him lay,
Now hath found a glorious morrow
In the rising of to-day;

And the grave its first fruits giveth,
Springing up from holy ground,
He was dead, but now He liveth,
He was lost, but He is found:
Cho.— Christ is risen! &c.

Christ is risen! henceforth never
Death or hell shall us enthrall,
Be we Christ's, in Him for ever
We have triumphed over all:
All the doubting and dejection
Of our trembling hearts have ceased,
'Tis His day of Resurrection!
Let us rise and keep the Feast;
Cho.— Christ is risen! &c.

Ⓒ Holy Church, but yester=night.

Carol 90.

(FOR EASTER.)

Melody by H. G. B.
Harmonized by Rev. Wm. Staunton.

1. O Ho - ly Church, but yes - ter - night In dust thy robes were trail - ing, The dew was heav - y on thy head, And thou thy Lord be - wail - ing; O Ho - ly Church, the gates are burst, The seal could hold no long - er, The clos - ing stone was ad - a - mant, The God with - in was strong - er.

O Holy Church, this Easter morn,
 Thy richest banquet spread,
 Thy risen Lord, a-hungred comes
 To bless and share thy bread;
 O Holy Church, the Lord is here,
 Let him repent who heareth,
 "Arise and shine," Thy Light is come,
 Thy glory now appeareth.

O Holy Church, dear Bride of Christ,
 With flow'rs bedeck Thine altar,
 Array thy courts in evergreens,
 Intone thy richest psalter;
 O Mother dear, who all thy Lord's
 Rare graces dost inherit,
 Now bid the loud TER SANCTUS rise,
 To Father, Son, and Spirit.

Christ the Lord is risen to-day.

Carol 91.

(FOR EASTER.)

"Christ the Lord is ris'n to-day;" List-en while the an-gels say. From His tomb the stone we roll'd, Eas-ter skies were cloth'd in gold; Forth in tri-umph Je-sus pass'd, Death's torn bands behind Him cast.

"Christ the Lord is risen to-day;"
Listen while the Soldiers say:
Arms uplift from rest and sleep,
Sword nor Spear the Lord could keep;
Calvary's mount did rock and reel;
Burst the guard of stone and seal.

"Christ the Lord is risen to-day;"
Listen while the Prophets say:
Where lay bound His sacred Head,

Death and hell must loose their dead;
Preach it to a captive world,
Easter Banners are unfurled.

"Christ the Lord is risen to-day;"
Listen while His bless'd lips say;
Graves and seas shall hear My word,
Saints shall wake and hail Me Lord;
Where He soars lift we our heart,
Christ from us Death cannot part.

Sing Alleluia, all ye lands.

Carol 92.

(FOR EASTER.)

Ancient.

Sing Al-le-lu-ia, all ye lands! Ye floods and o-ceans, clap your hands! The King re- turns from glo- rious fight, Whose arms have shat- tered Sa- tan's might: Our glad- dest song shall there- fore be, That GOD WAS REIGN- ING FROM THE TREE!*

The sling and five smooth stones have slain
The giant on the battle plain;
And Holofernes' falchion dread,
Hath sever'd Holofernes' head;
Our Chief is crown'd, for slain was He,
When GOD WAS REIGNING FROM THE TREE!

Alone, despised, and set at naught,
The press He trod, the fight He fought;
Alone He crush'd the Dragon down,

And so alone He wears the crown;
The sun is bright, the clouds must flee,
For GOD WAS REIGNING FROM THE TREE!

Jerusalem, arise and shine!
The glory of thy Lord is thine:
The victor's crown, the Royal Throne,
Are all His gift, and all thine own;
For all of His thine own shall be,
Since GOD WAS REIGNING FROM THE TREE!

*The allusion is to the old rendering of Psalm xcvi: 10, so often quoted by early writers in their controversies with the Jews: Tell it out among the nations, The Lord hath reigned from the Tree.

O'er the hill and o'er the vale.

Carol 93.

(FOR EPIPHANY.)

F. J. Dugard.

Joyfully.

O'er the hill and o'er the vale Come three kings to - geth - er, Car - ing nought for snow and hail, Cold, and wind, and weath - er; Now on Per - sia's san - dy plains,

Now where Ti - gris swells with rains, They their cam - els teth - er; Now through Sy - rian lands they go, Now through Mo - ab, faint and slow, Now through E - dom's heath - er.

O'er the hill and o'er the vale,
Each king bears a present :
Wise men go a Child to hail,
Monarchs seek a peasant ;
And a star in front proceeds,
Over rocks and rivers leads,
Shines with beams incessant.
Therefore onward, onward still !
Ford the stream and climb the hills :
Love makes all things pleasant.

He is God ye go to meet ;
Therefore incense proffer.
He is King ye go to greet :
Gold is in your coffer.
Also Man He comes to share
Every woe that man can bear.
Tempter, Railer, Scoffer ;
Therefore now against the day,
In the grave where Him they lay,
Myrrh ye also offer.

To shepherds, who on Judah's plains
By night their watch were keeping,
The glory of the Lord appeared
While all around were sleeping:
They first the Angel's message heard,
They first went forth to see their Lord.

While sages from a distant land,
A star their footsteps leading,
Came seeking for the Holy Child,
No toil nor danger heeding:
They came, to pay their worship meet,
And lay their offerings at His feet.

To Him, then, let us also pay
Our grateful adoration,
Whose birth we celebrate to-day
With songs of exultation;
Lift up our hearts with one accord:
To Jesus, our Incarnate Lord.

The Vision of the Shepherds.

Carol 107.

CHRISTMAS.

Words by Nahum Tate, 1702.

A. P. Howard.

1. While shep-herds watched their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground, The an-gel of the Lord came down, And glo-ry shone a-round. "Fear not," said he,—for migh-ty dread Had seized their troub-led mind,—"Glad ti-dings of great joy I bring To you and all man-kind.

2 "To you, in David's town this day,
Is born of David's line
A Saviour, who is Christ the Lord,
And this shall be the sign,—
The heavenly Babe you there shall find,
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapt in swaddling bands,
And in a manger laid."

3 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, and thus Addressed their joyful song,—
'All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth, from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease."

What child is this?

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 108.

J. T. Field.

Allegretto.

mf What Child is this, who, laid to rest, On Ma-ry's lap is sleep-ing; Whom an-gels greet with mf anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keep-ing? This, this is Christ the King, Whom dim. shepherds guard, and angels sing; Haste, haste to bring Him laud, The Babe, the Son of Ma-ry!

Why lies He in such mean estate,
 Where ox and ass are feeding?
 Good Christian, fear: for sinners here
 The silent Word is pleading:
 Nails, spear, shall pierce Him through,
 The Cross be borne, for me, for you;
 Hail! hail! the Word made flesh,
 The Babe, the Son of Mary!

So bring Him incense, gold and myrrh,
 Come peasant, King, to own Him;
 The King of kings salvation brings;
 Let loving hearts enthron Him.
 Raise, raise the song on high,
 The Virgin sings her lullaby:
 Joy! joy! for Christ is born,
 The Babe, the Son of Mary!

Hark! how the bells.

 Angels are hymning from above;
 Hark! as again we hear them sing
 "Glory in the highest; Christ is King!"

Hail to the King! who comes so meek,
 Hail to the Child! so poor, so weak;

Hail to the Son! our God, the Word,
 Alleluia! praise ye Christ, the Lord.

There stood three Maries by the tomb,
On Easter morning early,
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly.
With loving, but with erring mind,
They come, the Prince of Life to find:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

But earlier still the angel sped,
His news of comfort giving;
And "why," he said, "among the dead
Thus seek ye for the Living?"
"Go, tell them all, and make them blest;
Tell Peter first, and then the rest."
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Carol 114.

(FOR EASTER.)

pres.

A rhyme, a rhyme, for Eas-ter time Como sing with mirth and glee; . . Come youth and age, with sire and sage, And join in har - mo - ny! For Christ hath burst His pri - son gate, Whose bars be - fore Him fell, . . A - loft He fares, and with Him bears The keys of Death and Hell!

No powers of night can keep His soul
Its prison bournes within;
Corruption foul can ne'er control
His form unstained by sin.
His three days o'er, He comes once more
To tread the hallowed sod
By Sion's gate, where hellish hate
Had slain the Son of God.

And so, through Him who conquered Death,
May we, too, upward press
From death of sin sweet life to win
Of truth and holiness!
And, like the Saints returning home
With Christ, we pray that we May to God's holy City come
And true Mount Sion see!

To the sweet and gentle CHILD.

Gentle Saviour in the cold,
In the dark with gifts of gold,
Those three princes at the door
Stand a-knocking, stand a-knocking,
Thee to worship, gentle CHILD.

Enter princes, from the night!
Here, within, is warmth and light,
Jesus smiles, His hands outstretches
For the offerings, for the offerings,
Praise to Him, the gentle CHILD.

Joseph, sweep the stable clean,
Strew the straw, though all is mean.
Here the Temple, here the Throne,
Here the Altar, here the Altar.
Of our King, this gentle CHILD.

p Magdalen weeping
Sees two angels of the sky
Watch softly keeping,
As Jesus draweth nigh.
mf Rise, Mary, speed thee!
Lone hearts now need thee;
Go, tell My brethren I ascend on high!

p To Peter wailing
Who his Lord hath thrice denied,
Comes Love unfailing—
Comes Christ, the Crucified.
Dark scruples clearing
cr With accents cheering,
f All Peter's penitential tears He dried!

p Two sad ones walking,
Sorrowing for Christ's dear sake,
He joineth, talking,
And with them bread doth break.
cr Faith their sight aideth,
As His form fadeth:
f Burned not their hearts within them, while He spake?

Redemption's story,
f The triumph of their King.
With joys abounding,
Bright notes resounding,
ff Hark, how the silver bells of heaven out ring!

f We, in glad chorus,
Sing to Him in blest accord,
Who would restore us
To life, and love's reward.
ff Bright songs upraise we;
Christ risen praise we;
Hymn we a grateful strain to Christ our Lord!

Carol 123.

Christ is risen.

(FOR EASTER.)

L. E. M.

Christ is ris - en! Christ is ris - en! Con - quered death and all His foes!

Cru - ci - fied, and dead, and bur - ied, Ve - ry Man, as man He rose.

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! He for us the Cross en - dured.

And the bit - ter shame des - pis - ing, Life, im - mor - tal Life, se - cured.

Very God, He stooped to suffer
Keenest sorrows, sharpest pains:
Very man enthroned in glory
Now as King of kings He reigns.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Blessed they who follow on;
Who by rack, or sword, or prison,
Share the crown that He hath won.

Blessèd they the Saints and Martyrs,
Foremost in the Church's van,
Virgin souls of maid and matron,
Babe, and youth, and heary man.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Blessèd all the faithful throng,
Strong in Him to fight and conquer,
Pressing still His way along.

Lift the Cross to-day in triumph,
Lift His wondrous symbol high;
Standard that hath led its legions,
On to holy victory!
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Once of death and shame the sign,
Now of glory never equalled—
See the Cross of JESUS shine!

Backward, forward, o'er the ages,
How its rays unearthly stream!
From eternity its splendours
To eternity shall gleam!
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Lift the matchless symbol high,
With the Resurrection's glory,
Kindling earth, and sea, and sky!

The world itself keeps Easter-day.

Carol 124.

(FOR EASTER.)

L. H. Redner.

The world it - self keeps Eas - ter day, And Eas - ter larks are sing - ing; And Eas - ter flow'rs are blooming gay, And Eas - ter buds are springing: Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

The Lord of all things lives a - new, And all His works are ris - ing too; The Lord of all things lives a - new, And all His works are ris - ing too: Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

Al - le - lu - ia! Praise the Lord. Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Praise the Lord.

There stood three Maries by the tomb
On Easter morning early,
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
With loving but with erring mind
They came the Prince of Life to find:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the Lord!

But earlier still the angel sped
His news of comfort giving;
And "why," he said, "among the dead
"Thus seek ye for the living?"
Alleluia! Alleluia!
"Go tell them all and make them blest,
"Tell Peter first, and then the rest,"
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the Lord!

But one, and one alone, remained
With love that could not vary;
And thus a joy past joy she gained,
That sometime sinner Mary:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The first the dear, dear form to see
Of Him who hung upon the tree:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the Lord!

The Church is keeping Easter Day,
And Easter hymns are sounding,
And Easter flowers are blooming gay,
The holy Font surrounding;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The Lord hath risen, as all things tell,
Good Christians, see ye rise as well:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the Lord!

Hopefully, hopefully swells out the strain,
Telling of Christ's birth again and again,
Sweetly the harps tuned in Christ's home above
Take up the song and repeat it in love;
Echoes of strains sung by Angels on high,
Echoes re-echoed beyond the blue sky.

Parish Choir, No. 300—4.

Tenderly, tenderly die now the chimes,
Passing away as they passed in old times,
Hushed now the music while grateful hearts share
In offerings gladly of song and of prayer;
Silent the bells, but in heart and with voice,
We hail the Lord's birth and for it rejoice.

On the Birth-day of the Lord.

Carol 127.

With spirit.

Car - ol we high, car - ol we low, Sweet - ly car - ol we soft and slow;

Car - ol we loud with the an - gel throng, Car - ol we joy - ful - ly all night long.

Carol of fields, where in the night
Wakeful shepherds beheld a light;
Heard with amaze how in Bethlehem
Jesus, the Saviour, was born for them.

Carol how they joyfully ran,
There to behold their God made Man;
Leaving their flocks in the fields to be Kept by the angels, right fearlessly.

Carol of how all on the hay
He whom the angels told of, lay;
Tenderly cherished by Mary's love,
Rev'rently worshipped by hosts above.

Carol we still — O it is sweet
Thus the Infant Divine to greet,
Know that He loves us, feel He is nigh,
Though He is God who reigneth on high.

Carol how He cometh again,
Seated on clouds, the Judge of men;
Then shall His children with great delight
Rise up to meet Him in glory bright.

Hark! sweet angel voices singing.

Carol 130.

(FOR CHRISTMAS.)

W. T. Belcher.

1. Hark! sweet an - gel voi - ces sing - ing, Her - ald in this hap - py morn;

These sweet strains o'er Bethle - hem ring - ing: Peace, good will, a Sa - viour's born.

Glory to the Lord most highest,
Peace on earth, good will to man,
Love that sin and death defiest,
Destined yet our earth to span.

Hearts rejoice with joy responding,
Yield to the inspiring strain,
Hearts with sin, grief, care, desponding,
Breathe new life, bright hopes proclaim.

Hearts rejoice, all terrors vanish,
When His love pervades the soul,
All your doubting anguish banish,
Let His life your life control.

Hark! sweet angel voices singing,
Swell their anthem, join their praise,
Heaven and earth this joy is ringing
God mankind to heaven will raise

CHORUS. Allegro animato.

Sing we the sto - ry of the Sa - viour's birth, Peace and good will to all on earth,

1. Peace for the wea - ry and the worn, Since Christ is born.
 2. Par - don for sins re - pent - ant sigh, Since Christ shall die.
 3. New hope for life be - yond the skies, Since Christ shall rise.

Ring out the anthem, Jesus lives.

Carol 132.

Lively.

(FOR EASTER.)

C. Fitzsimmons.

1. Ring out the an - them, Je - sus lives, No more to shed His blood; His death to us sal - va - tion gives, And now He reigns with God. Then ring the church - bell, The hap - py news tell The wide world a - broad.

INTERLUDE.

He lives to hear the children's prayer,
To wake the children's song;
He listens to its music there
Amid the heavenly throng.
Then ring the church-bell,
The happy news tell,
The glad sound prolong.

He lives to plead when children sin,
To wash away each stain,
Their souls from Satan's grasp to win,
Saved from eternal pain.
Then ring the church-bell,
The happy news tell,
While earth shall remain.

He lives to bless each little heart
Which rests on Jesu's love,
His grace and mercy to impart,
And every fear remove.
Then ring the church-bell,
The happy news tell
Till the Easter above.

Upon each little restless head
To lay His unseen hand,
And guide the wandering little feet
To Canaan's promised land.
Then ring the church-bell,
The happy news tell,
A heaven-bound band.

He now prepares the children's home,
Way up beyond the sky,
Where sin and sorrow never come,
And children never die.
Then ring the church-bell,
The happy news tell.
Let the echo reply.

Ring out the anthem, Jesus lives!
Repeat the joyful lays
Till every child on earth believes
And sings the Saviour's praise.
Then ring the church-bell,
The happy news tell
Throughout endless days.

Let the whole world chant and sing.

Carol 133.

(FOR EASTER.)

Henry Smart.

Spirited.

1. Let the whole world chant and sing Eas-ter prais-es to our King; Al - le - lu -
 2. For our Lord for us has borne, All the bit-ter weight of scorn: Al - le - lu -
 3. On Him our transgress-ions fell; He for us went down to hell, Al - le - lu - ia! Res-cued from the fie-ry riv-er, Let the blest ones sing for ev-er: Al - le - lu - ia! Death's sharp pains 'twas His to know; His to drink the cup of woe: Al - le - lu - ia! He hath triumphed o'er the foe; He hath wrought sin's o-ver-throw: Al - le - lu - ia! We, too, raise with hymn and song, Full-est prais-es loud and long: Al - le - lu - ia!

 ia! And from Hands, and Feet, and Side, Flow'd His life-blood's crimson tide; Al - le - lu - ia!
 ia! So, once more that Eas-ter morn, He to high-er life was born, Al - le - lu - ia!

Put on thy beautiful robes.

Carol 134.

(FOR EASTER.)

Lively.

1. Put on thy beau-ti-ful robes, Bride of Christ, For the King shall embrace thee to - day; Break forth in - to sing - ing, the morning has dawn'd, And the sha-dows of night are a - way.

 Shake off the dust from thy feet, Bride of Christ,
 For the Conqueror, girded with might,
 Has vanquished the foe, the dragon cast down,
 And the cohorts of hell put to flight.

 Thou art the Bride of His love, His elect,
 Dry thy tears, for thy sorrows are past;
 Lone were the hours when thy Lord was away,
 But He comes with the morning at last.

 The winds bear the noise of His chariot wheels,
 And the thunders of victory roar;
 Lift up thy beautiful gates, Bride of Christ,
 For the grave has dominion no more.

 Once they arrayed Him with scorn: but see!
 His apparel is glorious now;
 In His hands are the keys of death and of hell,
 And the diadem gleams on His brow.

 Hark! 'tis her voice; Alleluia — she sings —
 Alleluia, the captives are free;
 Unfolded the gates of Paradise stand,
 And unfolded for ever shall be.

 Choir answers choir, where the song has no end,
 All the saints raise Hosannas on high;
 Deep calls to deep in the ocean of love,
 As the Bride lifts her jubilant cry.

Sing, O sing, ye children.

Carol 135.

(FOR EASTER.)

George C. Pearson.

CHORUS. Joyfully.

Sing, O sing ye chil-dren, Sing ye joy-ful - ly; Christ our Lord hath ris - en From death's captiv - i - ty.

Ris - en is our Sav-iour, Christ our Lord and King, Therefore sing ye prais-es, Joy - ful homage bring.

VERSE. a little slower.

1. Dark and sad the eve-ning, When His foes prevail'd, When our Mas-ter's Bo - dy To the cross was nailed,

E - vil foes had conquer'd, Ho-li-ness was slain: Sa - tan then vic - torious Ruled the earth a - gain.

Repeat Chorus.

Follow to the garden,
To the rocky tomb,
Where His friends had laid Him
In the deep'ning gloom;
Roman guards are stationed,
Fixed the Jewish seal,
Lest, by night, the faithful,
Should His Body steal.
Sing, O sing, etc.

Ever in the heavens
Reigneth Christ our King,
And, His might extolling,
We His praises sing;
Sing the wondrous glory
Of the joyful hour,
When the grave was conquered
By His mighty power!
Sing, O sing, etc.

The fields are white to harvest.

Carol 138.

(HARVEST.)

H. Fleetwood Sheppard.

The fields are white to har - vest, But where are the reap - ers, where?

dim.
Forth stepp'd the twelve A - pos - tles, O Christ! be - hold us here

They reap'd in sweat and sor - row, Dis - pers'd, but not for - lorn,

The full ears fell be - fore them Of bur - dened stand - ing corn.

To laborers fainting, bleeding,
To eyes that fill with tears,
Still on the blue horizon
A new white field appears.
"To where the angel faces
Look pleadingly to Rome,
And green ears daily ripen,
Go forth from friend and home."

"I go," says brave Augustine,
The gospel on his heart,
"In the great harvest labour,
With joy to take my part."
On white cliffs where the eagle
Of Cæsar once did perch,
Augustine plants Christ's standard,
And founds the Christian Church.

And through the sweep of ages
His followers are seen,
Now sowing, and now reaping,
Fields ripening and green.
The garner's brim not over,
The labourers are few,
Though God still sends His sunshine,
And drops His quickening dew

O Master of the corn-fields,
Call as Thou didst of old!
Men's hearts will leap to labour,
And reap the growing gold.
And what for us Augustine
Did work, we will repay,
To other lands where whitens
God's harvest field to-day.

p To cheer us on our pilgrimage in sunshine or in shade,
Floats the murmur of sweet music from ev'ry branchy glade,
And the warbling of the wild birds, with bleatings of the fold,
Mingled softly with the lowing of cattle on the wold;

mp And the rustle of the leaflets on slender stem and spray,
As though for joy they clapp'd their palms throughout the livelong day,
And the merry rant of children that frolic on the lea,
Fill up the swelling chorus of universal glee.

Come forth, come forth, brave reapers!

Carol 140.

With spirit.

(HARVEST.)

G. B. Lissant.

The musical score is written for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major and common time. It consists of four systems of staves. The lyrics are written below the staves. The score includes dynamic markings: f (forte) at the beginning, p (piano) for the third system, and ff (fortissimo) for the fourth system. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 'C' for common time. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat signs.

Come forth, come forth, brave reap - ers! And bear your sheaves with you,
We come to thank the Mas - ter, The Mas - ter good and true:
We toil, and plant, we wa - ter, Our la - bours ne - ver cease, . .
But God a - lone is Mas - ter, Who giv - eth the in - crease.

p We sow in tears and labour,
cr We reap in joy and strength,
p We tread our pathway weeping,
cr Good seed we bear at length;
mf Our mouth is filled with laughter,
Our tongue is filled with mirth,
The Harvest is of Heaven,
The labour was of earth.

mf The Lord of Life saith to us,
"Come gather in your wheat!
But when you keep your Harvest
p One thing do not forget:
There comes another Harvest
For which no mortal delves,
There I am Harvest-Master,
The sheaves are you yourselves.—

My Angels are the Reapers,
Both night and day they care
To see the seed grow ripper
Within the bending ear:
At last through Heaven's bright portal
The Guardian Angels sweep,
And say 'The corn is ready,
Give, Lord, the word to reap.' "

mf And then the word is given,
"Go forth and reap the corn,
The fields so white to Harvest
Upon this Harvest morn:
Go forth, My Angel Reapers,
And in your bosoms bear
The sheaves to My full garner,
And store the Harvest there."

f O joy! O Life for ever!
O Life of days to come!
O Day which knows no ending!
O endless Harvest-Home!
A Harvest-Home whose pleasure
No blight, no storms alloy!
A blest Abode! A Feast of God!
A Paradise of joy!

The first Christmas Night.

Carol 143.

W. H. Sangster. Mus. Doc.

Brightly. ♯: SOPRANOS ONLY.

I should like to have heard the An - gels sing, On that first great Christmas morn, To have knelt and listened to mu-sic so sweet, O'er the Babe in Beth - le - hem born.

CHORUS.

But I may sing of that Babe to - day, Oh, so ten - der, so kind, so fair. . . And the

An-gels still glad - den our Christ-mas morn, And sing in our mid - - night air.

I should like to have watched the great stars shine,
As they did that Christmas night;
Till my heart was bright with a heavenly flame,
And my soul was bathed in light.
CHO. But the stars are there in heaven above,
And as sweetly still they shine;
And the lapse of years and the wear of time
Make no change in that heaven of mine.

I should like to have been a shepherd there,
'To have watched my flock by night,
To have seen the wonderful glory shine,
Till the hills were paved with light.
CHO. But I need no Bethel hill to climb
Nor a shepherd my calling be,
For I'm but a sheep, and no shepherd I,
That Jesus must be to me.

I should like to have seen that manger crib,
To have knelt before that shrine,
To have laid my gift at those tender feet,
And have worshipped the Babe divine.
CHO. But I may worship that Babe to-day,
And as truly my Christmas see,
For His presence is now my Bethlehem,
And His love shall my carol be.

"Come and worship" seems the burthen

Shouts of praise and songs celestial
Mount up to the skies,
Shadows of terrestrial darkness
From creation rise.

See around the lowly cradle
Wise men from afar
Bow in deepest adoration
To the Holy Star.

Lo! the long expected Jesus
Comes to set us free,
Lift your voices, swell the anthem
To the one in Three.

As a sacred circle forming,
Each with outspread silver wing,
In the dark and early morning,
Softly, reverently, they sing: —

For around Thy lowly manger
Glow a radiance all divine,
Angels guarding Thee from danger,
With increased brightness shine.

Hush'd our songs of exultation,
Hymns and praise alike must cease,
Lo, we watch in adoration,
Christ, our Messenger of Peace.

"There He lies so calmly sleeping,
And as yet untouched by care;
Rest Thee, Babe, our guard we're keeping,
We Thy parents' vigil share."

ff Death is con-quer-ed, Man is free, Christ hath won . . . . the vic-to-ry.

The musical score is written for a full choir and piano. It begins with a 'FULL.' section where the choir sings 'He is ris-en, He is ris-en, Tell it with a joy-ful voice, He has burst His three days'.' The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The tempo and dynamics are marked 'ff' (fortissimo). The score then transitions to a 'SOLO, TREBLE OR TENOR.' section. The soloist sings 'pris-on, Let the whole wide earth re-joice. He has burst His three days' prison, Let the whole wide earth re-joice, Death is con-quer-ed, Man is free; Christ hath won the vic-to-ry.' The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern, with dynamics shifting to 'ff' and then 'pp' (pianissimo) during the solo. The final section returns to 'FULL.' with the choir singing 'Death is con-quer-ed, Man is free, Christ hath won . . . . the vic-to-ry.' The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord and a repeat of the eighth-note pattern.

Trustfully the sages sought Him
When they saw the star arise,
Beaming brightly, beckoning onward,
Moving through the Eastern skies.
And above a lowly stable
Soon it rested, shining clear;
Entering, the wise men found Him
In a manger rough and drear.

Precious gifts of gold and spices
From the Orient they brought;
Low in adoration, bending
To the King whose throne they sought.
In no robe of royal purple
Was He clothed, as princes wear,
But in humblest garb, the Saviour
Came our earthly lot to share.

As the wise men brought their treasures,
Offering them on bended knee,
So may we our prayer and praises
Ever offer, Lord, to Thee.
Let us then, with glad Hosannas,
Sing His praise with sweet accord,
Who was born this day to save us:

CHORUS.

Shepherds watching once by night,
Watching long ago,
Heard a Seraph choir bright
Murmur soft and low—
"Goodwill and love, love and goodwill."
Then Angels spoke, and all was still,

CHORUS: Old, old story, &c.

Very humbly, in a manger—
Holy stars in sight—
Lowly lies a little stranger,
Messenger of light.
He, the promised of old,
He, the Saviour long foretold.

CHORUS: Old, old story, &c.

Haste ye, shepherds, see the wonder,
Fear not mock or scorn;
Mark how in proud David's city
Christ your Lord is born.
His great mission ne'er shall cease
Till the world be filled with peace.

CHORUS: Old, old story, &c.

Sound the truth o'er all the nations,
Wide your joy-bells fling;
Christ has lived—our great exemplar,
Brother, Lord, and King.
Sound Christmas, ye seem to say,
"God's peace be unto all this day!"

A - way! with loy - al hearts and true, O'er hill and dale they press'd, . . . Full four - score wea - ry miles to do The Cæ - sar's high be - hest; . . . And Ma - ry sang "Mag - ni - fi - cat," Her own, her an - cient song, For well wist she that God's de - cree Was bear - ing her a - long, . . . Was bear - ing her a - long.

Away through fields and meadows green,
O'er purple heather-bed,
By mountain pass, or deep ravine,
The faithful couple sped.
And soft and sweet, where'er they went,
To glad the weary way,
Sang Mary that "Magnificat,"
Her own, her ancient lay.

O'er head the storm-clouds often wept,
And tempests o'er them passed,
And cold around them often swept
The bleak December blast.
But still she sang "Magnificat"
Through weather foul or fair;
For all was rest within her breast,
'Twas always sunshine there.

And when the pilgrimage was o'er,
And of their royal kin,
Not one would open wide his door,
And bid them enter in;

Still Mary sang "Magnificat"
With ever joyful tone;
"Whate'er betide, the Lord," she cried,
"Is mindful of His own."

Worn out at last, and ill bestead,
Right glad were they to find
Within a sorry cattle-shed
A shelter from the wind.
And Mary sang "Magnificat"
Right through that wondrous night,
And ere the birth of morn on earth
Was born the Light of Light.

Then let us all with one accord
Join Mary's song, and say,
"My soul doth magnify the Lord"
For ever and for aye.
Loud let us sing "Magnificat,"
That dear and ancient lay;
For God's own Son with us is one,
And He is born to-day.

O clear and shining Light, whose beams
A heavenly radiance shed
Around the palms, and o'er the streams,
And on the Shepherd's head,—
Be near through life, be near in death,
As in that holiest night
Of hope, of gladness, and of faith,
O clear and shining Light!

O Star, which led'st to Him Whose Love
Brought down man's ransom free,
Thou still art midst the hosts above,
We still may gaze on thee!
In Heaven thy light doth never set,
Thy rays earth may not dim;
O send them faith to guide us yet,
Bright Star which led to Him!

Joyous Easter morning.

Carol 169.

George Edgar Oliver.

Joyously.

The musical score for Carol 169 is written for piano and voice. It consists of three systems of music. The first system begins with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "1. O joy-ous East-er morn-ing, That saw the Lord a - rise! O bright and hap - py". The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, with lyrics: "morn - ing! The clouds have left the skies. The night of grief is end - ed, The". The third system concludes the piece with lyrics: "day has come a - gain, And Christ has won the victo - ry For all the sons of men." Dynamic markings include f (forte) at the beginning, mf (mezzo-forte) in the second system, and ff (fortissimo) in the third system.

2 O gladsome Easter morning!
Our hearts rejoice today,
The grave and death are conquered
He is of Life the Way.
The hosts of sin are vanquished
He is the Victor King!
Then let us all with gladness
Our thankful praises sing.

3 O blessed Easter morning!
What day so bright as this,
When, through His mighty triumph,
He won the courts of bliss!
The doors of Heaven are open,
The grave no more has dread;
For risen is our Saviour,
The first fruits of the dead.

Hallelujah! Song of triumph.

Carol 170.

(EASTER.)

Alla marcia.

The musical score for Carol 170 is written for piano and voice. It consists of two systems of music. The first system begins with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of one sharp (F-sharp), and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Hal - le - lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah! Song of tri - umph, Tri - umph o - ver". The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, with lyrics: "death and hell; Hal - le - lu - jah! Song of tri - umph, Great - er far than words can tell." The tempo marking is Alla marcia.

2 Hallelujah! Song of triumph,
Christ, who came the lost to save,
Hallelujah! now hath risen,
Mighty Conqueror o'er the grave.

3 Hallelujah! Holy Angels
Came and rolled away the stone;
Hallelujah! now no longer
Death can claim Him for His own.

4 Hallelujah! Christ hath broken
Bars that none could break before;
Hallelujah! Death defeated,
Sinks to rise again no more.

5 Hallelujah! Song of triumph,
Loud through all Creation roits;
Hallelujah! men and angels
Sing the song of ransomed souls.

2 For it dawns, the promised morrow
Of His birth, who the earth
Rescues from her sorrow.
God to wear our form descendeth;
Of His grace to our race
Here His Son He lendeth.

3 Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat—
Flee from woe and danger;
Brethren, come; from all that grieves you
You are freed; all you need
Here your Saviour gives you.

4 Come, then, let us hasten yonder:
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder.
Love Him who with love is yearning;
Hail the Star, that from far
Bright with hope is burning. Amen.

Weeping, bowed with sorrow,
Little dreaming at the Tomb
What their joy to-morrow.
Whom they sought the Lord they found
Now no more in sadness;
Where did woe and grief abound
There He brought the gladness!

3 Lo, in all our sorrows here,
Often deep repining,
Through all doubt and darksome fear
Easter Sun is shining;
Wherefore now on things above
Set we our affection,
Know the power of Jesus' Love
By His resurrection.

Sing of the Christ-Child's coming
In lowliest estate;
When long-time kings and prophets
With eager hearts did wait.
Where'er His footsteps linger
Shall blossom forth the rose;
And peace shall be abounding
Where'er His spirit goes.

O Babe in humble manger,
Amongst the poor of earth,
Kings brought myrrh, gold, frankincense,
To offer at Thy birth,
The host of heaven triumphant
A glorious strain did sing,
"Peace and good will for ever Through Christ, the new-born King."

Awake, awake, O Zion,
And put on all thy strength;
Filled is the throne of David,
Thy King hath come at length.
His star hath shone in heaven,
And angels at His birth,
Have brought the fair evangel
"Peace and good will on earth."

2 The "wise men" saw His star on high,
And blessed His lowly birth;
God's herald angels in the sky
Rejoiced with Holy mirth.
They charmed the fears of shepherds then
With notes of peace, "good-will,"
And now that Gospel song to men
Inspires their worship still;
O earth rejoice, with heart and voice
And give the Saviour room!
He lives to bless with righteousness
And make the world to bloom.

3 He lives and reigns our God and King
The "Lord of Glory" now,
While round His throne bright seraphs sing,
Adoring spirits bow;
And from His presence, on swift wing
The Christmas angels fly
To woo the world to Christ, and bring Their heavenly melody.
Hark, hear them sing! "Receive your King.
And give your Saviour room!"
His light shall shine with ray divine
To banish woe and gloom.

4 From chapel, church, cathedral high,
From every holy place
Let anthems shake the vaulted sky
And songs of joy and grace!
Let saintly hands and hearts prepare
Their offerings rich, and free
And Christmas cheer be everywhere
With love and charity!
Let all be glad; let none be sad;
Oh, give the Saviour room!
With love's employ our hearts shall joy,
The desert place shall bloom.

And from each starry orb around,
Broke forth such strange, celestial sound,
Th'entranced shepherds on the ground
Stand spell-bound, inly dreaming.
If such divine, melodious hymn,
Of Cherubim and Seraphim,
These harmonies that round them swim,
Are real, or only seeming.

Fear not, O shepherds! nought but bliss
Can come of heavenly rout like this;
The angel's gracious message is (Love with his accents blended)
"All glory be to God on high!
And peace on earth, for which a sigh
Hath long been raised, e'en now is nigh,
Immanuel hath descended."

"For unto you this Child is born,
His swaddling clothes hold not in scorn,
Nor Virgin Mother, so forlorn,
His nature He is veiling;

The Wonderful—the Counsellor,
The mighty God Himself is there,
Has come your deepest woes to share—
A Saviour, all-availing!"

Then with the shepherds we will go—
Come, young and old, come, high and low,
We'll troop to Bethlehem and so
Low bending, each confessing,
We'll cast away our nature's sin,
Pardon and grace we've come to win,
We knock, O Jesus! take us in,
Into Thy fold we're pressing.

Thus in our ears, life's path along,
Shall linger still the angels' song,
Its theme of comfort, simple, strong,
Till heav'n's bright day is dawning;
Nor will we fail with honours meet,
With thankful hearts and carols sweet,
As each year runs its course, to greet
Thine advent, Christmas morning!

Stooping down they see no more
Than the clothes which wrapped Him o'er;
Clothes which wound His feet, His brow,
Death's white vestments, useless now;

Stronger are than sight, than death:
At the tomb where Christ hath been,
Watching waits the Magdalene.

He was here; then she will wait,
Watching early, watching late;
Where her Jesus last was seen,
There will wait the Magdalene.
Looking in with streaming eyes,
Angels twain she there espies:
Angels there are sitting now,
Clothed in raiment white as snow.

Shines their glory through the shade,
Where His Body once was laid:
Hark, with glad accord they cry,
"Jesus lives, no more to die:
Thy dear Lord abides not here;
He is risen; do not fear;
Mary, wipe thy tears away,
See the place where Jesus lay."

Turning round she sees Him stand
In the garden close at hand:
"Mary!" 'tis His accent now:
"Master; it is Thou, 'tis Thou!"

We with her would thanks repeat:
Be Thou by Thy saints adored,
Risen Jesus, God and Lord.

Moderato con spirito.

1. Brave - ly chime, O East - er bells; From their sleep let all a - wa - ken:

"Christ is ris - en," loud it swells; "Death is vanquished," "Earth is sha - ken!"

Brave - ly from your bel - fry ring, "Christ is ris - en," "Christ the King."

'Twas but yester-eve He lay
In the garden, calmly sleeping;
'Twas but at the break of day
Faithful Mary sought Him, weeping,
In the solemn garden ground,
Loving much, she sought and found.

Where the golden lily-heads
Heavy with the dews are bending,
Where the fragrant cedar spreads,
Who, along the path, is wending?
"Mary!" 't was the only word, —
Then she knew it was the Lord.

Parish Choir, No. 657—4.

Tell, O bells of Easter tide,
How, from winter's sleep awaking,
Earth hath laid her shroud aside:
Streams, their icy bonds are breaking,
Leaflets swell, and glad birds sing
Thankful hymns to Heaven's King.

Brightest buds and flowers to-day
Shew the world that Christ is risen,
And by symbols teach the way
That we too shall burst our prison.
Loudly then the tidings ring,
"Christ has conquered," "Christ is King."

Carol 207.

Let the song be begun.

They that followed in pain
 Shall now follow to reign,
 And the crown shall obtain;
     They were sore assaulted,
     They shall be exalted.
 Sing of rest, sing of rest,
 And again pour the strain:
 Gloria in excelsis! Gloria in excelsis!

For the foe nevermore
 Can approach to the shore
 Where the conflict is o'er,
     There is joy supernal,
     There is life eternal.
 Sing of peace, sing of peace,
 Earth and skies bid it rise
 Gloria in excelsis! Gloria in excelsis!

Jesus springs from death and scorning,
On this glad some Easter morning.
Children, sing that glorious rising,
Earth and Heaven with joy surprising:
Echo back the angels' chanting,—
Let no voice to-day be wanting;—
In excelsis Gloria!

Risen is He with power to save us,
From the sins that still enslave us;
Risen in majesty to lead us,
To the home in heaven decreed us;
Fittest music for this Mirth-Day
Is the chant that hailed His Birth-Day
In excelsis Gloria!

Holy Christ, accept the praises,
Which each feeble voice upraises;
And when life shall here have ending,
May our souls to Thee ascending,
Join Thy saints,— like them forgiven,—
In that happiest song of heaven:—
In excelsis Gloria.

And share with Him the glory
He promiseth to give.

CHORUS. Lo, Christ the Lord is risen, etc.

All hail, Thou risen Saviour!
By Thy deserted tomb
Faith stands and points us heav'nward
Above earth's grief and gloom.
There in the spring of heaven
The soul's white flower shall rise
From out earth's winter slumber
And bloom in Paradise.

In their tents abiding, shepherds on the plain,
Heard the angel-voices sing out the glad refrain,
"To God on high be glory,
To men the joyful story,
Good will and peace to all, this happy Christmas Day!"

O'er the darkness rising shines the Royal Star,
Leading to its brightness the people from afar;
The kings of earth adore Him,
And nations bow before Him
Who brings good will and peace on happy Christmas Day!

Maidens, men, and children — sage and sinner too —
Pardon, peace, and gladness, the Saviour brings to you;
The angels' song repeating,
We send the joyous greeting,
Good will and peace to all, this happy Christmas Day!

Christians, carol sweetly.

Carol 211.

Christians, ca - rol sweet - ly, Up to - day and sing! . . .

'Tis the hap - piest birth - day Of our Sa - viour King; Haste we then to greet Him, Hum - bly fall - ing down, While our hands en - twine Him, Dear - est Babe, a crown.

2 Crowds of snow-white Angels
Throng the golden stair;
All things are delightful,
All things passing fair;
Bells, clear music making,
Peal the news to earth;
Chimes within make answer,
All is glee and mirth.

3 Michael, at the Manger,
Bows his royal face;
Gabriel, with lily,
Hides Transcendent Grace;
For, dear friends, the glory
Of that lowly bed
Overpowers the beauty
On Archangels shed.

4 Shall I tell of Joseph,
Who, with rapt surprise,
Sees the light from Godhead
Fill those infant eyes?
Shall I sing of Mary,
Who, upon her breast,
Cradles her Creator
Soothes Him to His rest?

5 Angels, Mary, Joseph,
Yes, I greet you all!
Falling down in worship
At the Manger-stall;
For you hail our Monarch,
Born a Child to-day —
So with you I worship,
And my homage pay.

Ring merrily.

Carol 212.

(CHRISTMAS.)

J. W. Treadwell.

Ring mer - ri - ly! Ring mer - ri - ly! O hap - py Christ - mas bells; And let us hear a - gain the tales Your mu - sic ev - er tells, . . Your mu - sic ev - er tells:— How Chris - tian men in oth - er days Made feast with - in their halls, Hung mis - tie - toe and hol - ly wreaths A - round their old oak walls; How rich and poor knelt side by side, At - call of Christmas chimes; And how the bonds of Chris - tian love Bound up the "good old times."

2 Ring tenderly! Ring tenderly!
O holy Christmas bells;
For ever with your earthly peal
A heavenly chorus swells;
The angels, who were first to bring
The welcome news to men,
Still join with us to celebrate
The Saviour's birth again;
And some whom we have loved and lost
Sing carols with us now,
With all the old love in their hearts,
And new light on their brow.

5 Ring joyously! Ring joyously!
O blessed Christmas bells;
And show us of the future good
Your welcome chime foretells.
We know 't will be a mingled lot
Of pleasure, pain and strife;

That thorns will cluster round the flowers,
Along our path of life;
But ye shall sing to us of hope;
Of help, of love untold;
Reminding us of that bright star
That tips our clouds with gold.

4 Ring merrily! Ring merrily!
O dear old Christmas bells,
And bring all holy blessings down
From where all mercy dwells.
Ring out your gentle messages,
As ye have done of old,
To help the weary and the sad,
The weaklings of the fold;
And tell again the cheering tale
Of Him who bore our woe;
And gave His own heart's life and love,
For breaking hearts below.

Hark! the song of choirs angelic.

(CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 213.

E. Lancaster.

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time, featuring a treble and bass clef. It consists of five systems of music. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic and includes the lyrics 'Hark! the song of choirs an - gel - ic, Ra - dant in their robes of white. Gent - ly'. The second system continues with 'borne up - on the bree - zes Breaks the si - lence of the night. Wake, O'. The third system has 'sleep - er! Wake right ear - ly! He - rald an - gels sing to'. The fourth system, marked with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic, includes 'thee, Mu - sic swell - ing, Joy fore - tell - ing,—'T is thy Lord's Na - ti - vi -'. The fifth system concludes with 'ty. . . mf Symphony after last verse.' and features a 2-measure rest.

2 Filled with fear the wakeful shepherds
Listened to the angels' lay,
Reassured, they learn the message :
"Christ, your Lord, is born to-day !
Peace on earth, good-will to all men
Through eternal ages be."
Sighs and sadness
Turn to gladness
On the Lord's Nativity !

3 Lowly in a manger lying,
Heavenly light around Thee shed,
Object of our praise undying :
Holy Child in humble bed ;

May Thy birthday ever find us
Praising the Eternal Three,
Who, to save us,
Freely gave us
Life, with Thy Nativity.

4 Year by year, Thy Church unsleeping
Careful of Thy lambs below,
Still her faithful watch is keeping,
Till her cup of joy o'erflow ;
Praises will she ever mingle
With her glad festivity :
Carols singing,
Joybells ringing,
On her Lord's Nativity.

There stood three Maries by the tomb,
On Easter morning early —
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
With loving, but with erring, mind
They came the Prince of Life to find,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

But earlier still the angel sped,
His news of comfort giving;
And "Why," he said, "among the dead
Thus seek ye for the Living?"
Alleluia! Alleluia!
"Go tell them all, and make them blest,
Tell Peter first, and then the rest."
Alleluia! Alleluia!

But one, and one alone, remained,
With love that could not vary;
And thus a higher joy she gained,
That sometime sinner, Mary.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The first the dear, dear form to see,
Of Him that hung upon the tree.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

The world itself keeps Easter Day,
And Easter larks are singing;
And Easter flowers are blooming gay,
And Easter buds are springing.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The Lord of all things lives anew,
And all His works are living too.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

san - - - - - na! Ho - san - - - - na . . in the high - est!

bring us to you Babe al - so, Him for to wor - ship ev - - er - mo!

Within the star so great and sheen,
A golden-crownèd Babe is seen;
His sceptre is a crown of gold,
His face like sunshine to behold.
God, evermore to man below,
Light from you blissful star bestow.

From eastern land, in haste the while,
They journey many a weary mile;
O'er hill and vale, through sleet and snow,
By frith and fen, on, on they go.
God, may the pathway never be Too tough and hard that leads to Thee.

Though Herod welcome bade the kings,
Their hearts are full of other things,
Forth from the stately court in speed,
They to the lowly crib proceed.
God, nought till death, whate'er betide,
Us from the right road turn aside.

Parish Choir, No. 845—4.

Now when the kings came to the stall,
Before the Babe they straightway fall;
Each saintly pilgrim then presents
His gold, or myrrh, or frankincense.
God, take our gifts, at best but small,
Goods, body, soul, life, heart, and all.

By frankincense the three proclaim
That God Almighty is His Name;
Myrrh, to the Son of Man they bring,
And gold, in token of her King.
God, keep us steadfast in this creed,
From heresy and schism freed.

Our Lady fain the kings doth greet,
E'en bids them kiss her baby sweet;
Viaticum it was, in fay,
To cheer them on their homeward way.
God, grant, when death shall us depart,
This heav'nly bread may cheer our heart.

VOICES AND ORG.

J. T. Field.

Musical score for 'Sleep, Holy Babe.' by J. T. Field. It is a Christmas carol in G major, 4/4 time, with a tempo of 96. The score is for voices and organ. The lyrics are: '1. Sleep! Ho - ly Babe! Up - on Thy Mo - ther's breast; Great Lord of earth, and sea, and sky, How sweet it is to see Thee lie In such a place of rest. Sleep! Ho - ly Babe! . . Thine An - gels watch a - round? . 2
Sleep! Holy Babe! while I with Mary gaze
In joy upon that Face awhile,
Upon the loving Infant smile
Which there divinely plays.
Sleep! Holy Babe! ah! take Thy brief repose;
Too quickly will Thy slumbers break,
And Thou to lengthened pains awake,
That death alone shall close.

 Crowds of snow-white Angels
 Through the golden stair;
 All things are delightful,
 All things passing fair:
 Bells, clear music making,
 Peal the news to earth;
 Chimes within make answer,
 All is glee and mirth.

 Michael, at the manger,
 Bows his royal face;
 Gabriel, with lily,
 Hides transcendent Grace:
 For, dear friends, the Glory
 Of that lowly bed
 Overpowers the beauty
 On Archangels shed.

 Shall I tell of Joseph,
 Who, with rapt surprise,
 Sees the light from Godhead,
 Fill those infant eyes?
 Shall I sing of Mary,
 Who, upon her breast,
 Cradles her Creator,
 Soothes Him to His rest?

 Angels, Mary, Joseph,
 Yea, I greet you all!
 Falling down in worship
 At the manger stall!
 For you hail our Monarch,
 Born a child to-day:
 So, with you I worship,
 And my homage pay.

 Chiefest day in our possessing,
 Crowned with Christmas love and blessing,
 Shout ye nations, Christ confessing,
 In excelsis gloria!

 How the glorious news is flying!
 Christ, to save a world from dying,
 In a lowly manger lying:
 In excelsis gloria!

 "Peace on earth," the Angel chorus
 Loudly sang while hovering o'er us,
 This the message that they bore us,
 In excelsis gloria!

 Oh! the bells so madly pealing;
 Tidings of great joy revealing;
 Through our hearts their echoes stealing
 In excelsis gloria!

Bright Easter Day! Dear Easter Day!
Day of days the very best:
Lift up thine eyes, poor soul, to-day,
Christ has conquered — thou shalt rest.
Jesu Christe, Alleluia!

3.
Bright Easter Day! Dear Easter Day!
Songs of joy to-day we raise,
Glad songs to cheer our onward way,
Songs of love, and songs of praise.
Jesu Christe, Alleluia!

4.
Bright Easter Day! Dear Easter Day!
Lord, Thy day of power, this:
We praise in song, in song we pray,
May our souls partake Thy bliss.
Jesu Christe, Alleluia!

There stood three Marys by the tomb,
On Easter morning early,
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly:
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (Organ.)
With loving, but with erring mind,
They came the Prince of Life to find:
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (Organ.)

But earlier still the Angel sped,
His news of comfort giving;
And "Why," he said, "among the dead
Thus seek ye for the Living?"
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (Organ.)
"Go, tell them all, and make them blest;
Tell Peter first, and then the rest:"
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (Organ.)

But one, and one alone remained,
With love that could not vary,
And thus a joy past joy she gained,
The sometime sinner, Mary:
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (Organ.)
The first the dear, dear form to see
Of Him that hung upon the tree:

The world itself keeps Easter Day,

2.
O holy Babe! on Mary's knee,
How weak and poor art Thou!
Yet, mighty God, so rich in grace,
Adoringly we bow.
Though mother's hands
Wrap swaddling bands,
No royal robe we see.
Emmanuel!
Emmanuel!
To Thee we bend the knee.

3.
O helpless Babe! Thou knowest not
What gifts those wise men bring,
Their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense
Presenting to their King.
What gift can we,
Redeemed by Thee,
In gratitude impart?
Emmanuel!
Emmanuel!
We yield Thee all our heart.

4.
O gentle Babe! Thou'rt human still,
Though seated on Thy throne;
All power to Thee is given for us
Whom Thou hast made Thine own.
A gift we pray,
This Christmas day!
O wash us from all sin!
Emmanuel!
Emmanuel!
Come, then, and dwell within!

2.

A little Child is born to-night,
And Shepherds haste to see
Their God and King in infant form,
And worship with their true hearts warm,
The Christ on bended knee.
A little Child is born to-night,
And Wise Men from afar
Follow afresh that wondrous light,
That gloweth in the heavenly height,
The Saviour's morning star.

3.

A little Child is born to-night,
To hearts for long years lone,
To Anna, widow, Simeon, sage,
Their Star of childhood, joy of age,
For evermore their own.
A little Child is born to-night,
O come ye, one and all,
And hail in faith, and hope, and love,
The Child who left His throne above,
To lie in yonder stall.

Ring out the bells for Christmas.

Carol 248.

Merrily.

1. Ring out the bells for Christmas, The hap-py, hap-py day; In win-ter wild the ho-ly Child Within the cra-dle lay: Oh, won-der-ful! the Sa-viour Is in the man-ger lone;

His pal-ace is a sta-ble, And Ma-ry's arms His throne. Ring out the bells for Christ-mas, The mer-ry, mer-ry Christ-mas; Ring out the bells for Christ-mas, The hap-py, hap-py day.

2.

On Bethlehem's quiet hill-side,
In ages long gone by,
In angel-notes the glory floats,
"Glory to God on high!"
Yet wakes the sun as joyous
As when the Lord was born,
And still He comes to greet us
On ev'ry Christmas morn.
CHORUS. — Ring out the bells, etc.

3.

Where'er His sweet lambs gather,
Within His holy fold,
The Saviour dear is waiting near,
As in the days of old:
In each young heart we see Him;
In ev'ry guileless face,
We see the holy Jesus,
Who grew in truth and grace.
CHORUS. — Ring out the bells, etc.

4.

Then sing your gladsome carols,
And hail the new-born Son;
For Christmas light is passing bright,
It smiles on ev'ry one:
And feast Christ's little children,
His poor the orphans call,
For He who chose the manger,
He loveth one and all.

2 We are soldiers of the Cross,
Ours the old, old story;
Counting all our gain as loss,
But the gain for glory.
In the path our fathers trod
With their faith unswerving;
Heroes of the Church of God—
So would we be serving.

3 Though around on every hand
Satan's hosts assail us,
We've a Captain in command
Who will never fail us;
Fierce may rage the battle strife,
Nothing shall alarm us;
Pressing to eternal life
Not a shaft shall harm us.

4 As we raise our martial song,
Courage ne'er abating,
Angel bands, a holy throng,
On our steps awaiting.
Soon the journey will be o'er,
Passed each dark affliction;
Let us think how Jesus bore
Scourge and crucifixion.

5 See the heavenly mansions bright
Faithful hope adorning;
Far behind us looms the night,
But before the morning.
Onward, onward to the goal,
Jesus goes before us;
Come, O come! each ransomed soul
Sound on high the chorus.

And the prison shatter'd: Sing of joy, joy, joy, And to-day Raise the lay, Gloria in ex - cel - sis, A - men.

They that follow'd in pain,
Shall now follow to reign,
And the crown shall obtain:
They were sore assaulted,
They shall be exalted,
Sing of rest, rest, rest;
And again,
Pour the strain,
Gloria in excelsis.—Amen!

3
For the foe never more
Can approach to the shore,
Where the conflict is o'er;
There is joy supernal;
There is life eternal;
Sing of peace, peace, peace;
Earth and skies
Bid it rise,
Gloria in excelsis.—Amen!

Then be brave, then be true,
Ye despised and ye few,
For the crown is for you;
Christ, that went before you,
Spreads His buckler o'er you;
Sing of hope, hope, hope;
And today
Raise the lay.
Gloria in excelsis.—Amen!

CHRISTMAS WAITS SINGING CAROLS.

The stars are shining bright and clear.

Carol 270.

(CHRISTMAS.)

E. Bunnett.

Cheerfully. cres.

The stars are shin - ing bright and clear, The hills are white with snow; Our Christmas eve has come a - gain, Our hearts with joy o'er - flow: The Christ-mas carols, sweet and glad, Are sound-ing in the air, . . And Christmas wreaths in glist'ning show Make bright the house of prayer.

2 Not here across the snow was heard
The first sweet Christmas song;
But where the crimson lilies bloom,
Judea's hills among;
Those hills where David long before
His father's sheep had kept;
And where, o'er Rachel's lonely tomb,
The mourning Jacob wept.

3 And not by earthly choristers
Was that first carol sung;
Not through the temple's shining courts
Its faultless music rung;
No listening crowds had gathered there,
That wondrous chant to hear:
Save watchful shepherds on the hills,
No human soul was near.

4 'Twas sung by countless multitudes
Of Angels pure and bright,
And o'er the bare and silent hills
There shone a glorious light;
Such heavenly music ne'er was heard
Before by sons of men,
And never more shall song like that
Be heard on earth again.

5 We know the tidings which they brought
Of Christ our Saviour's birth,
Their song of "Glory be to God,
Good will and peace on earth;"
In crowded church and quiet homes
We chant that carol still;
'Tis heard from city streets and courts,
From vale and lonely hill.

6 For us the gracious Saviour came,
For us He lived and died,
For us was born a little Babe,
For us was crucified:
And so the Christmas carol, sung
By angels long ago,
Is sweeter than all other songs
Which Christians sing below.

Eastern monarchs, Sages three.

(CHRISTMAS OR EPIPHANY.)

Carol 279.

Words from Latin text of the 15th Century.

Melody from the Andernach Gesangbuch, 1603.
Harmonized by G. R. Woodward.

Eastern monarchs, Sages three, Come with gifts in great plenty, Worship Christ on bended knee—Cum Vir-gi-ne Ma-ri-a.

- 2 Gold, in honour of the King,
Incense to the Priest they bring,
Myrrh, for time of burying—
Cum Virgine Maria.
- 3 On His might (it hath no end)
All created things depend,
To His will the world must bend—
Cum Virgine Maria.

- 4 His the praise and glory be,
Laud and honour, victorie,
Power supreme! and so sing we
Cum Virgine Maria.
- 5 On the feast-day of His birth,
Set on thrones above the earth,
Angels chant in holy mirth
Cum Virgine Maria.

- 6 Thus, to bless the One in Three,
Let this present company
Raise the voice of melody—
Cum Virgine Maria.

A day, a day of glory.

(CHRISTMAS.)

Carol 280.

Words by J. M. Neale.

Old French Carol.
Har. by Charles Wood.

{ A day, a day of glo-ry! A day that ends our woe! } Yield, sum-mer's brightest
{ A day that tells of tri-umph A-gainst that our van-quish'd foe! }

sun-rise, To this De-cem-ber morn: Lift up your gates, ye Prin-ces, And let the Child be born!

- 2 With Gloria in excelsis
Archangels tell their mirth:
With Kyrie elèyson
Men answer upon earth:
And angels swell the triumph,
And mortals raise the horn,
Lift up your gates, ye Princes,
And let the Child be born.
- 3 He comes, His throne the manger;
He comes, His shrine the stall;
The ox and ass His courtiers,
Who made and governs all:

- The "House of Bread" His birth-place,
The Prince of wine and corn:
Lift up your gates, ye Princes,
And let the Child be born.
- 4 Then bar the gates, that henceforth
None thus may passage win,
Because the Prince of Israel
Alone hath entered in:
The earth, the sky, the ocean
His glorious way adorn:
Lift up your gates, ye Princes,
And let the Child be born.

2 That Babe was a King, mystic gifts, lo, they bring,
Sure tokens they were of some great One to be;
To Bethlehem led, Eastern sages have sped
From afar "The Desire of all Nations" to see.
REF.—O how wondrous, etc.

3 Accomplished their hope, their treasures they ope—
Gold, frankincense, myrrh, to that Infant they brought,
Gifts costly and rare, full of meaning they were,
Though not yet unveiled were the great truths they taught.
REF.—O how wondrous, etc.

4 No tokens of state round that Royal Babe wait,
Seeming least, and yet greatest of monarchs was He;
But in reverence low, princely Magi did bow,
As though they divined all His true dignity.
REF.—O how wondrous, etc.

1. Chris-tian chil-dren, wake and list - en, Songs are break-ing o'er the earth; While the stars in mes-sage down: Still each year, thro' mid-night sha-dows, It is heard in ev - 'ry town.

2 What is this that they are telling,
Singing in the quiet street,
While their voices high are swelling,
What sweet words do they repeat?
Words to bring us greater gladness,
Though our hearts from cares are free,
Words to chase away our sadness,
Cheerless though our hearts may be.

3 Christ has left His throne of glory,
And a lowly cradle found:
Well might angels tell the story,
Well may we their words resound.
Christian children, wake and listen,
Songs are ringing through the earth,
While the stars in heaven glisten,
Hail with joy your Saviour's birth!

all was ra-diant light... No-el! No-el! the Babe is born In Beth-le-hem this day...

2 The shepherds crouching o'er the fire
On pipes of straw did play;
When lo! broke forth the angel-choir,
And night was turned to day.
The heavens rejoice! Let earth admire
The tidings they did say.
Noel! Noel! the Babe is born
In Bethlehem to-day.

For Satan's cruel reign is done,
Begun the reign of Grace.
Noel! Noel! the Babe is born
In Bethlehem to-day.

3 For unto us a Child is come,
A King of David's race,
With peace to every hearth and home,
And men in every place;

4 Unite, ye Christian people all,
In hymns of holy mirth;
Bring voice of praise, and suppliant call,
Emmanuel on earth!
Behold the manger, prostrate fall,
And hail the heavenly Birth.

The world itself keeps Easter Day.

From "Piae Cantiones"

Carol 292.

1. The world it-self keeps Eas-ter Day, And Eas-ter larks are sing-ing; And Eas-ter flow'rs are blooming gay, And Eas-ter buds are spring-ing. Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia. The Lord of all things lives a-new, And all His works are ris-ing too, In no-va ju-ven-tu-te.

2 There stood three Maries by the tomb,
On Easter morning early,
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
With loving but with erring mind
They came the Prince of Life to find,
Cum pia servitute.

3 But earlier still the Angel sped
His news of comfort giving;
And "why," he said, "among the dead
"Thus seek ye for the living?"
Alleluia! Alleluia!
"Go tell them all and make them blest,
"Tell Peter first, and then the rest,"
Mandatum hoc secute.

4 But one, and one alone remained,
With love that could not vary;
And thus a joy past joy she gained,
That sometime sinner, Mary:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The first the dear, dear form to see
Of Him who hung upon the tree
Pro hominum salute.

5 The Church is keeping Easter Day,
And Easter hymns are sounding,
And Easter flowers are blooming gay,
The holy Font surrounding;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The Lord hath risen, as all things tell,
Good Christians, see ye rise as well.

Flashed a light across the sky,
In the early morning, early,
"Glory be to God on high."

Glory in the heavens eternal,
Upon earth be glory, too,
For the day of grace hath broken,
And a King is born to you.

"Glory be to God on high"
Rang the sound of angels harping
Through the stilly list'ning sky.

He hath triumphed gloriously:
Now, through Christ may man triumphant,
Joyful gain the victory.
Alleluia! Saviour, keep us
By Thy heavenly grace, we pray,
That we keep with Thee in Heaven
Everlasting Easter Day.

5 Alleluia! Lord, we hail Thee,
Join the chorus of the skies,
And with Angels and Archangels
Bid the Hymn of Praise arise.
Alleluia! praise and glory,
Laud, thanksgiving, honour, might,
Worship, blessing, adoration,

Carol 308.

Arthur Sullivan

1. Up - on the snow - clad earth with-out The stars are shin - ing bright, As
2. 'Twas in the days when far and wide Men own'd the Cæ - sar's sway, That

Heav'n had hung out all her lamps To hail our fes - tal night; For on this night, long years a - go, The be - dient to the same, With Ma - ry, his es - pous - ed wife, The saint - ly Jo - seph came.

A stable and a manger, where
The oxen lowed around,
Was all the shelter Bethlehem gave,
The welcome that they found!
Yet blessed among women was
That holy mother-maid,
Who on that night her First-born Son
There in the manger laid.

The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
E'en from His very Birth,
Had not a place to lay His Head,
An outcast on the earth:
And yet we know that little Babe
Was tender to the touch,
And weak as other infants are;
He felt the cold as much.

In swaddling bands she wrapped Him round,
And smoothed His couch of straw,
While unseen Angels watched beside,
In mute, adoring awe.
How softly did they fold their wings
Beneath that star-lit shed,
While Eastern Sages from afar
The new-born radiance led!

And thus it is, from age to age,
That as this night comes 'round,
So sweetly, underneath the moon,
The Christmas carols sound.
Because to us a Child is born
Our Brother, and our King,
Angels in Heaven, and we on earth,
Our joyful anthems sing.

Again the morn of gladness.

EASTER.

Carol 328.

Words by John Ellerton.
Joyful.

Sir John Stainer.

mf 1. A-gain the morn of glad-ness, The morn of light is here; And earth it-self looks fair - er, mf And heaven it-self more near; The bells like an-gel voi - ces, Speak peace to ev-'ry breast;

f And all the land lies qui - et To keep the day of rest. "Glo - ry be to Je - sus!"

Let all His chil-dren say: "He rose a-gain, He rose a-gain, On this glad Eas - ter Day!"

mf 2 Again, O loving Saviour,
The children of Thy grace
Prepare themselves to see Thee
Within Thy chosen place.
Our song shall rise to greet Thee,
If Thou our hearts wilt raise;
If Thou our lips wilt open
Our mouth shall show Thy praise.
f "Glory be to Jesus," etc.

mf 3 The shining choir of angels
That rest not day or night,
The crowned and palm-decked martyrs,
The saints arrayed in white,
p The happy lambs of Jesus
In pastures fair above,— cres. These all adore and praise Him
Whom we too praise and love.
f "Glory be to Jesus," etc.

mf 4 The Church on earth rejoices
To join with these to-day;
In every tongue and nation
She calls her sons to pray:
Across the Northern snow-fields,
Beneath the Indian palms,
She makes the same "pure offering,"
And sings the same sweet psalms.
f "Glory be to Jesus," etc.

f 5 Tell out, sweet bells, His praises!
Sing, children, sing His name!
Still louder and still farther
His mighty deeds proclaim!
cres. Till all whom: He redeemèd
Shall own Him Lord and King,
Till every knee shall worship,
And every tongue shall sing!
f "Glory be to Jesus," etc.

Let the merry church bells ring.

Carol 329.

EASTER.

Henry S. Cutler, Mus. Doc.

BELLS.
Allegro.

1. Let [the mer-ry church bells ring! Hence with tears and sigh - ing; Frost and cold have fled from Spring, Life hath con-querred dy - ing. Flowers are smi - ling, fields are gay Sun - ny is the weath - er; With our ris - ing Lord to - day, All things rise to - geth - er.

2 Let the birds sing out again
From their leafy chapel,
Praising Him, with whom in vain
Satan sought to grapple;
Sounds of joy come fast and thick,
As the breezes flutter;
Resurrexit, non est hic,
Is the strain they utter.
Let the merry, etc.

3 Let the past of grief be past;
This our comfort giveth,
He was slain on Friday last,
But to-day He liveth:
Mourning heart must needs be gay,
Nor let sorrow vex it,
Since the very grave can say,
Christus Resurrexit.
Let the merry, etc.

Why the Eas-ter lil - ies stand like an-gels white, 'Mid the palms and myrtles, On this day so bright.

2 'Tis because our Saviour,
He who lived and died,
Left His grave so gloomy,
Rolled the rocks aside;
On the first day morning,
On a day like this,
'Twas His resurrection
Brought us joy and bliss.

3 We are glad 'tis Easter,
That is why we sing,
To our risen Jesus
Happy songs we sing;
And our hearts we offer,
These He'll not despise,
In our souls for ever
Jesus, Saviour, rise.

O Christmas, merry Christmas!
'Tis not so very long
Since other voices blended
With the carol and the song.
If we could but hear them singing
As they are singing now,
If we could but see the radiance
Of the crown on each dear brow;
There would be no sigh to smother,
No hidden tear to flow,
As we listen in the starlight
To the bells across the snow!

O Christmas, merry Christmas;
This never more can be;
We cannot bring again the days
Of our unshadowed glee.
But Christmas, happy Christmas,
Sweet herald of good will,
With holy songs of glory
Brings holy gladness still.
For peace and hope may brighten,
And patient love may glow,
As we listen in the starlight
To the bells across the snow.

 He took the sting of death a - way, And o - pened heav'n to men.
 A - bout the strange and ho - ly joy, On Eas - ter Day that fell.

3 There was a rock-hewn Grave
 In Joseph's garden-ground,
 Where CHRIST's dear Body buried lay,
 With soldiers watching round.

4 But ere the dawn was risen
 Upon that Easter Morn,
 The King of Life had burst His prison
 And put His foes to scorn.

5 And ere the sun was high
 On that third happy day,
 An Angel bright flew from the sky
 And rolled the stone away.

6 The holy women brought
 Their spices rich and rare;
 The Grave was ope'd, the Lord they sought
 No longer rested there.

7 O what a wondrous sight;
 The soldiers all were gone,
 And lo, behold an Angel bright
 Was sitting on the stone.

8 "Fear not," he gently said,
 "Ye seek your Lord again,
 But He is risen, and left His bed,
 Come, see where He has lain."

Forth from the grave in ma - jes - ty He comes to set His peo - ple free! Strew fra-grant blos-soms in His way, And crown Him King on Eas - ter Day! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia! Praise the Lord! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Praise the Lord!

Org.

2 At early morn around His tomb
A wondrous light was beaming,
And from its depths a sweet perfume,
Like fragrant spices, streaming!
Alleluia!

While angels stood beside the door
Which He had opened evermore,
And said to His Disciples dear
The Lord is risen — He is not here!
Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

3 The joyous news of Easter spread,—
Tell far and wide the story
That JESUS lives, Who once was dead,
And reigns the King of glory!
Alleluia!

His hand a jewelled sceptre bears —
His head a crown immortal wears —
And, writ in gems upon His breast,
Are names of those He loves the best!
Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

4 Bring flashing jewels to adorn
His crown of royal glory!
Let diamonds gleam where cruel thorn
Once pressed His temples gory!
Alleluia!

Your costliest offerings to Him pay
Who rose triumphant Easter-Day:
Join precious pearl with rarest gem
And form with love His diadem!
Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

5 Hearts washed in Blood make jewels rare
And glow with light undying:
Each loving act, each fervent prayer
A radiant gem supplying!
Alleluia!

More precious to the risen Christ
Than emerald or amethyst!
And these, on Easter-Day we bring
As grateful offerings to our King.
Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

6 On Thy dear Cross we lay them down,
And there rejoicing leave them;
O King of Love, in mercy own
And graciously receive them!
Alleluia!

Wear them for ever on Thy breast,
Thou interceding, Great High-Priest;
And when Thou comest, Lord, again
Count us among Thy Jewels then!
Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

In many a darksome cottage,
 In many a crowded street,
 In Winter bleak, with shivering cheek
 The homeless child you meet;
 Gaze on the pale wan features,
 The feet with wandering sore,
 You see the souls He loveth
 The Christ-child at the door.

Then sing your gladsome carols
 And hail the new-born sun;
 For Christmas light is passing bright,
 It smiles on every one.
 And feast Christ's little children,
 His poor, His orphan call;
 For He who chose the manger,
 He loveth one and all.

Ring, ring the bells!

Carol 371.

(CHRISTMAS.)

F. A. Challinor.

Allegretto.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of five systems of music. The piano part is in 6/8 time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The vocal part is in the same time and key. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score includes dynamic markings such as mf, cres., mp, f, dim., and rall.. The first system begins with the tempo marking Allegretto. and the dynamic mf. The second system includes the dynamic mp. The third system includes the dynamic f. The fourth system includes the dynamic dim.. The fifth system is the refrain and includes the dynamic f and the tempo marking rall..

1. Ring, ring the bells, the joy - ful bells! This mer - ry Christ - mas morn, . . Their

2 Ring, ring the bells, the Christmas bells!
For in their joyous chime
Once more on earth the chorus swells
Of angel-song sublime.
The sweet old story, ever new,
Falls on the heart again,
Refreshing as the early dew,
Or soft as summer rain.
Ring, ring the bells, the Christmas bells,
The merry, merry Christmas bells!

3 Ring, ring the bells, the Christmas bells!
Prophetic of the day
When He of whom their ringing tells
Shall all the nations sway.
Shall bless and rule and fill each heart,
Shall bid all sorrows cease,
And give His own the better part
Of everlasting peace.
Ring, ring the bells, the Christmas bells,
The merry, merry Christmas bells!

'Tis vacant now this morn;

Beside the open graves,

And angels come on the Easter-day,

The darksome gloom with their light they fill,

As they did when Christ was born;

As they speak of the Lord who saves;

And their voices sound in glad refrain,

Christ conquered Death in that bitter strife,

And they bring glad tidings to earth again.

He will bring us into eternal life.

Come, ye lofty, come, ye lowly.

Words by Rev. Archer Guerneý.

CHRISTMAS.

A. F. M. Custance.

Brightly.

2 Come, ye poor, no pomp of station
Robes the Child your hearts adored ;
He, the Lord of all salvation,
Shares your want, is weak and poor ;
Oxen round about, behold them ;
Rafters naked, cold, and bare,
See the shepherds, God has told them
That the Prince of Life lies there.

3 Come, ye children, blithe and merry,
This one Child your model make ;
Christmas holly, leaf and berry,
All be prized for His dear sake ;
Come, ye gentle hearts and tender,
Come, ye spirits, keen and bold,
All in all your homage render,
Weak and mighty, young and old.

4 High above a star is shining,
And the Wise Men haste from far ;
Come, glad hearts, and spirits pining,
For you all has risen a star ;
Let us bring our poor oblations,
Thanks and love, and faith and praise,
Come, ye people, come, ye nations,
All in all draw nigh to gaze.

5 Hark, the Heaven of heavens is ringing ;
Christ the Lord to man is born !
Are not all our hearts, too, singing,
Welcome, welcome, Christmas morn !
Still the Child all power possessing,
Smiles as through the ages past,
And the song of Christmas blessing
Sweetly sinks to rest at last.

Waken, Christian children.

Carol 412.

CHRISTMAS.

Words and music by the Rev. S. C. Hamerton.

4 In a manger lowly,
Sleeps the Heavenly Child ;
O'er Him fondly bendeth
Mary, Mother mild.

5 Far above that stable,
Up in Heaven so high,
One bright star out-shineth,
Watching silently.

6 Fear not then to enter,
Though we cannot bring
Gold, or myrrh, or incense
Fitting for a King.

7 Gifts He asketh richer,
Offerings costlier still,
Yet may Christian children
Bring them if they will.

8 Brighter than all jewels
Shines the modest eye ;
Best of gifts He loveth
Infant purity.

9 Haste we then to welcome,
With a joyous lay,
Christ, the King of Glory,
Born for us to-day.

glo-ry be to God," they cry; . . . "All glo-ry be to God," let earth . . . re-ply.
sweetly sing the an-gel throug . . . And all the heav'nly host re-hearse the song.

Through field and wood the song resoundeth,
O'er hill and vale the chorus boundeth:
Exultingly the echoes roll,
And hymns of triumph spread from pole to pole.

The shepherds view the host returning,
Their hearts with holy ardour burning;
To Bethlem they wend their way,
Repeating with glad tongues th' angelic lay.

In haste they seek the heavenly Stranger;
They find the Babe laid in a manger;
With wonder and with awe they fall,
And joyfully adore Him, Lord of all.

Now every voice with rapture swelleth,
For Christ the Lord with mortals dwelleth;
Let men and angels Him adore,
And shout their loud hosannas evermore.

There's a wonderful tree.

CHRISTMAS.

Words by Mrs. M. N. Meigs

F. Schilling.

1. There's a won-der-ful tree, a won-der-ful tree, The hap-py chil-dren re-joice to see,
 Spread-ing its branch-es year by year, It comes from the for-est to flour-ish here. Oh, this beau-ti-ful tree, with its branch-es wide, Is al-ways, Is al-ways bloom-ing at Christmas-tide.

2 'Tis not alone in the summer's sheen,
 Its boughs are broad, and its leaves are green;
 It blooms for us when the wild winds blow,
 And earth is white with its feathery snow;
 And this wonderful tree, with its branches wide,
 Bears many a gift for the Christmas-tide.

3 'Tis all alight with its tapers' glow,
 That flash on the shining eyes below,
 And the strange sweet fruit on each laden bough
 Is all to be plucked by the gatherers now.
 Oh this wonderful tree, with its branches wide,
 We hail it with joy at the Christmas-tide.

4 And a voice is telling, its boughs among,
 Of the shepherds' watch and angels' song;
 Of a holy Babe in a manger low,
 The beautiful story of long ago,
 When a radiant star threw its beams so wide,
 To herald the earliest Christmas-tide.

5 Then spread thy branches, wonderful tree,
 And bring some dainty gift to me,
 And fill my heart with a burning love
 To Him who came from His home above —
 From His beautiful home with the glorified,
 To give us the joys of the Christmas-tide.

1. Si-lent night! hal-low'd night! Earth is hushed, Heav'n a-light! An-gels throng the star-lit air,
 2. All is still, Je-sus sleeps; Ho-ly watch Jo-seph keeps; Ma-ry bends His Face to see,
 Whisp'ring round the Child so fair: "Sleep, sleep, O Ba-by King! Sleep," . they soft-ly sing.
 Murm'ring low her lul-la-by; "Sleep, sleep, my Babe Di-vine! Sleep, . God's Son and mine!"

3 Blissful night, prophesied;
 Angel-Hosts glorified,
 Wondrous news to shepherds tell!
 Heavenly harps their chorus swell!
 "Peace!" a Seraph sings,
 "Peace the Saviour brings."

4 Gather round, people dear!
 Young and old, gather near!

(GOOD FOR PROCESSIONAL.)

Carol 422.

Words and Music by Rev. George P. Grantham.

1. Now sing we a strain of joy, . . . To whom all our thanks are due ; . .
 2. For He, with His eye of love, . . . Hath look'd on each fur - row'd field ; . .
 3. O God ! Thou art kind and good ! . . . The eyes of all wait on Thee, . .

 Though fam - ine or death may loom, . . Yet still doth Thy love pre - vail ; . .

Bright thanks-giv - ings sing un - to God our King, The Lord of the Har - vest home.
 By Him they are sent, and they help have lent, To ri - pen the gold - en corn !
 While each doth a - bide will our God pro - vide That seed - time nor har - vest fail.

The wheat of eternal life
 The sower goes forth to sow ;
 The weak heart of man is the narrow span
 Where all holy fruits must grow.
 There watered by contrite tears,
 And warmed by love's kindling ray,
 The seed cometh up, and the fruitful ears
 Grow ripe for the lasting day.

Then come, let our praises blend,
 Uplifted to God's high throne ;
 Both body and soul He alike doth tend,
 Then both should His glories own.
 Upraise we then heart and voice
 With joy to our heavenly King,
 With happy refrain ; and in joyous strain,
 Our praises of rapture sing.

1. Thine, Lord, are the blos-soms of for - est and field, And the love - li - est gems which the gar - dens yield;
2. Thy wis - dom and love hid the seed in the earth, And watch'd o'er its growth from its se - cret birth.

The heath of the up-lands, the fens of the glen, And the flow-ers that gladden the dwell-ings of men.
Once man-tled with snows from the win - try blast, Till the call of the spring-tide was heard at last.

Thine, Lord, were the dews and the showers of heav'n,
So eagerly longed for, so lovingly given;
The breath of the morning, the sunshine of noon,
The sweetness of May, and the glory of June.

We meet in Thy temple to worship and pray;
But we think of Thy suffering children to-day:
Grant, Lord, that these gifts of Thy bounty may shed
The glow of Thy smiles on their weary head.

Thou dwellest in beauty no tongue can express,
The beauty and glory of Höliness;
But the flowers are glimpses of Thëe and Thine,
Wherein tēder gleams of Thy goodness shine.

We offer Thee, Lord, in these fruits and flowers,
No fabric of mǎn's, no fashion of ours;

A song of Spring once more we sing.

Words by W. H. Groser.

(FLOWER SERVICE OR CHILDREN'S DAY.)

J. Booth.

Brightly.

1. A song of Spring once more we sing As Win-ter flies a-way, . And
 2. For once a-gain the prom-ise-strain Floats down from days of yore, . That change-ful hours bring sun and show'rs To weave a crown for May, . To weave a crown for fruits of earth shall wake to birth, To bless the toil-er's store, . To bless the toil-er's

May: . ff With heart and voice we all re-joice On this re-turn-ing day. .
 store: . Each an-nual round with boun-ties crown'd Till time shall be no more. .

3 Thee, Lord, we praise for Springtide days,
 And life's yet fairer Spring;
 These golden hours, these opening pow'rs,
 ¶:To Thy glad service bring: ¶
 Thine own to be, from sin set free—
 Our Father, Saviour, King!

4 Though foes may throng, Lord, make us strong—
 A firm, unfaltering band—
 The good to seek, the truth to speak,
 ¶:And for the right to stand; ¶
 Till, duty done, and victory won,
 We gain the better land.

Beauteous are the flowers of earth.

Words by W. Chatterton Dix.

(FLOWER SERVICE.)

Sir J. Stainer.

FOR TREBLES AND ALTOS. Cheerfully.

1. Beau-teous are the flow'rs of earth, Flowers we bring with ho - ly mirth, Bright and sweet and gay;
 2. Yes, He will; for all things bright Are most pre-cious in His sight, And He loves to see
 3. Yes, He will; for chil-dren's love Makes this world like heav'n a-bove, Where no e - vil reigns,
 4. So our low - ly gifts to Thee, Lord of earth and sky and sea, Thou wilt kind - ly take;

Will our Fa - ther deign to own Gifts we lay be - fore His throne, On this hap - py day?
 Chil - dren come with flow'rs for Him, Whom the flam - ing Se - ra - phim Wor - ship cease - less - ly.
 And where all u - nite to bring Pur - est of - fer - ings, and sing Love's un - end - ing strains.
 Ev - 'ry lit - tle flow'r we bring, Ev - 'ry sim - ple hymn we sing, And not one for - sake.

5 And where'er these flowers shall go,
 Sickness, sorrow, tears, and woe,
 Lighten, heal, and cheer:
 With Thy loving touch restore,
 All Thy plenteous grace outpour,
 Soften pain and fear.

6 Beauteous are the flowers of earth,
 Flowers we bring with holy mirth,
 Bright and sweet and gay;
 Father, Son, and Spirit, own
 Gifts we lay before Thy throne,
 On this happy day.

Now sing we a song for the harvest.

Carol 453.

Words by John W. Chadwick.

S. Reay

1. Now sing we a song for the har - vest, Thanks-giv - ing and hon - our and praise,
 2. And thanks for the har - vest of beau - ty, For that which the hands can - not hold,
 3. But now we sing deep - er and high - er, Of har - vest that eye can - not see;

For all] that the boun - ti - ful Giv - er Hath giv - en to glad - den our days;
 The har - vest eyes on - ly can gath - er, And on - ly our hearts can en - fold:
 They ri - pen on moun - tains of du - ty, Are reaped by the brave and the free.

For grass - es of up - land and low - land, For fruits of the gar - den and field,
 We reap it on moun - tain and moor - land, We glean it from mead - ow and lea,
 O Thou who art Lord of the har - vest, The Giv - er who glad - dens our days,

For gold which the mine and the prai - rie To del - ver and hus - band - man yield.
 We gar - ner it in from the cloud - land, We bind it in sheaves from the sea.
 Our hearts are for ev - er re - peat - ing Thanks-giv - ing and hon - our and praise!

CHRISTMAS AND EPIPHANY.

Tune "In vernali tempore."
Har. by Rev. G. R. Woodward.

Carol 464.

Words by Dr. John Mason Neale.

1. { O'er the hill and o'er the vale, Come three kings to - geth - er,
Car - ing nought for snow and hail, Cold and wind and wea - ther; }

{ Now on Per-sia's sand - y plains, Now where Ti - gris swells with rains, They their cam - els te - ther: }
{ Now thro' Syrian lands they go, 'Now thro' Mo - ab, faint and slow, Now o'er Edom's hea - ther. }

2 O'er the hill and o'er the vale,
Each king bears a present:
Wise men go a Child to hail,
Monarchs seek a Peasant:
And a star in front proceeds,
Over rocks and rivers leads,
Shines with beams incessant:
Therefore onward, onward still!
Ford the stream and climb the hill:
Love makes all things pleasant.

3 He is God ye go to meet:
Therefore incense proffer:
He is King ye go to greet;
Gold is in your coffer:
Also Man, He comes to share
Ev'ry woe that man can bear—
Tempter, Railer, Scoffer:
Therefore now, against the day,
In the grave when Him they lay,
Myrrh ye also offer.

There came three kings.

CHRISTMAS AND EPIPHANY.

Köln Gesangbuch, 1623,
 Har. by B. Luard Selby.

1. There came three kings from east-ern land, Star-led by God's Almigh-ty hand, To Christward thro' Hie - ru - sa - lem,
 2. With - in the star, so great and sheen, A gold-en crowned Child is seen; His sceptre was a cross of gold.
 3. From Morning-land, in haste the while, They journey many a hundred mile: O'er hill and dale, in frost and snow,
 4. Why, Her - od, hon - our so the kings? Their minds are set on o - ther things: Forth from the state-ly court in speed

Un - to the crib at Beth - le - hem, God, thither too our footsteps guide, To serve that Babe at ev - 'ry tide.
 His face like sunlight to be - hold, God, e - ver now to man be - low Light from you bliss - ful star be - stow.
 By land, by water, on they go, God, may the roadway nev - er be Too rough and hard that leads to Thee.
 They to the lowly crib pro - ceed, God, see we nev - er swerve a - side, But keep Thy path, what - e'er be - tide.

5 No sooner come within the stall
 Then down upon the knee they fall,
 And offer Him, in order meet,
 Gold, myrrh, and incense passing sweet.
 God, take our gifts, or great or small,
 Heart, soul, life, limb, name, substance—all.

5 By frankincense the three proclaim
 That God Almighty is His Name:
 Myrrh to the Son of Man they bring,
 But gold in token of the King.
 God, keep us steadfast in this creed,
 From heresy and schism freed.

TREBLE VOICES ONLY.

Più moderato. ♩ = 66.

In our Eas-ter glad-ness! 1. He is ris - en! we who watch'd Thro' the night of sor - row,
2. He is ris - en! in His might, King of kings ex - cel - ling;

dim. cres. mf

Wait - ing for our Lord's re - turn On the glo - rious mor - row! List - en now with great de - light
All cre - a - tion lifts her voice, These glad tid - ings tell - ing: He who lay with - in the grave,

dim. cres. mf

To the won - drous sto - ry; Welcome with ex - ceed - ing joy Christ, the Lord of glo - ry!
And to hell de - scend - ed, Conquers death, and hath to - day Hell's do - min - ion end - ed.

3 In our midst our Master stands,
Lifts His hands in blessing;
Here by faith His feet we clasp,
Him as God confessing:
Then the prints of love behold,
Hands and feet once wounded,
Head once crowned with thorns, with Light
Evermore surrounded.

CHO.—He is risen! etc.

4 Fear not, ye who seek the Lord!
Jesus in His beauty
Waits to welcome all who tread
Paths of loving duty.
Jesu, ever keep us safe
Under Thy protection,
Till we see Thee face to face
In the Resurrection.

CHO.—He is risen! etc.

Carol 473. At Easter morn the lark ascending.

Words from the German of Emmanuel Geibel.

J. Knecht (1793).

1. { At Eas - ter morn the lark as - cend - ing, Loud car - olled forth her mer - ry lay, }
 { To heaven's high dome her swift flight wend - ing, To greet with praise the new - born day. }

2. { A - wake! pour forth your streams, ye foun - tains, And praise the Lord with glad - some heart; }
 { A - wake! and join the cho - rus, moun - tains, Let ev - ery tree and plant take part. }

And as she car - olled, thus re - sound - ed From field and grove glad na - ture's voice:
 Ye vio - lets in the mead - ows hid - ing, Ye flower - ets all, with per - fumed breath,

A - wake! let joy be now un - bound - ed, Our Lord is risen, let all re - joice!
 Pro - claim a - loud the joy - ous tid - ings, Love hath o'er - come the power of death.

3 Then welcome all with acclamation,
 This saving health the Lord doth bring,
 Free pardon and a full salvation
 Is uttered to us by the Spring.

Almighty power new life hath given,
 Each twig, once dead, doth know the dawn;
 Almighty power the tomb hath riven —
 Awake! it is the Easter morn!

Words by Frances R. Havergal.

ASCENSION.

Edwin Pond Parker.

1. Gold - en harps are sounding, An - gel voices ring; Pearly gates are o - pen'd, O - pen'd for the King.
CHO. All His work is end - ed, Joy - ful - ly we sing: Je - sus hath as - cend - ed, Glo - ry to our King.

D.C.
Christ, the King of glo - ry, Je - sus, King of love, Is gone up in tri - umph To His throne a - bove.

2 He who came to save us,
He who bled and died,
Now is crowned with gladness
At His Father's side.
Never more to suffer,
Never more to die;
Jesus, King of glory.
Is gone up on high! — CHO.

3 Praying for His children
In that blessed place,
Calling them to glory,
Sending them His grace;
His bright home preparing,
Little ones, for you;
Jesus ever liveth,
Ever loveth, too. — CHO.

Pansies, lilies, roses.

Words by C. Griffiths.

(FLOWER SERVICE.)

J. Booth.

1. Pan-sies, lil-ies, ros-es, Flow'rs of ev-'ry hue, Take each one as com-ing Straight from God to you;
2. Just as earth's cre-a-tion Show'd the might of God, So does ev-'ry flow'r-et Spring-ing from the sod;
3. Touch these sweet flow'rs gently, So di-vine-ly dress'd: They are, in earth's language, Thoughts of God ex-press'd-
4. Praise Him, then, with sing-ing; Tell His love a-broad; Be the whole earth ring-ing With the name of God;

Tell-ing won-drous se-crets Of His pow'r and love, Wearing still the brightness Of the home a-bove. .
He who guides the star world, Curbs the ocean's power, With the same hand paint-eth Ev-'ry leaf and flower. .
Thoughts of heav'nly glo-ry, Sweet-ness, pur-i-ty: Must not He who framed them Much more love-ly be? . .
Lakes and hills be tell-ing, Sun-set skies and flow'rs, Something of the beau-ty Of this God of ours! . .

REFRAIN.

O these flow'rs of sum-mer, An-gel-like are they; Lis-ten to the mes-sage Which they bring to-day.

4 Joyously the shepherds ran,
Knelt to Jesus - God and Man;
"Come," they bid us haste with them,
See the Babe of Bethlehem!

5 He was in the manger laid,
By His holy Mother-Maid.
He is on His altar now;
With the shepherds let us bow.

6 Jesu! Whom we here adore,
May we love Thee more and more;
As by faith we, wondering, see
This Thy great humility!

 3. Ring, hap-py bells of Eas-ter time! Our hap-py hearts give back your chime!

A-cross wide fields of melt-ing snow The winds of sum-mer soft-ly blow,
 The Lord is risen! the night of fear Has passed a-way and heav'n draws near;
 The Lord is risen! We die no more: He o-pens wide the heav'n-ly door;

And birds and streams re-peat the chime Of Eas-ter time, of Eas-ter time.
 We breathe the air of that blest clime, At Eas-ter time, at Eas-ter time.
 He meets us, while to Him we climb, At Eas-ter time, at Eas-ter time.

The stars, the stars shone bright, When Christ our Lord . . . was born, . . . on When Christ our Lord was born, was born on Christ - mas night, . . . When Christ our Lord was born, . . . on Christ - mas night.
When Christ our Lord . . . was born, . . .

2 'Twas Mary, daughter pure of holy Anne,
That brought into this world our God made Man.

5 The Angels hovered round, and sang this song:
Venite adoremus Dominum.

3 She laid Him in a stall, at Bethlehem,
The ass and oxen shared the roof with them.

6 And, thus, that manger poor became a throne;
For He whom Mary bore was God the Son.

4 Saint Joseph, too, was by to tend the Child,
So guard Him, and protect His mother mild.

7 O come then, let us join the heavenly host,
To praise the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

sor-row a-side; Christ Je-sus our Sav-iour was born on this tide!

5 The King of all kings to this world being brought,
 Small store of fine linen to wrap Him was sought;
 But when she had swaddled her young Son so sweet,
 Within an ox manger she laid Him to sleep.

6 Then God sent an angel from heaven so high,
 To certain poor shepherds in fields where they lie,
 And bade them no longer in sorrow to stay,
 Because that our Saviour was born on this day.

7 Then presently after the shepherds did spy
 Vast numbers of angels to stand in the sky;
 They joyfully talkèd, and sweetly did sing,
 "To God be all glory, our heavenly King."

8 To teach us humility all this was done,
 And learn we from thence haughty pride for to shun;
 A manger His cradle Who came from above,
 The great God of mercy, of peace, and of love.

3 Jesus Christ from death is risen;
'Tis His Godhead bursts His prison,
While His manhood rises free
O'er our mortal misery,
And to sinners bring salvation,
Thus in God's humiliation
Man has won the victory.

Alleluia!

4 This the law our Saviour teaches,
This the call His triumph preaches:
Sinner, from the grave of sin
Rise, eternal joy to win.
From the death our sin decreed us
Sinless He by death has freed us,
Sing we then His victory.

Alleluia!

Dear Saviour, make us fruitful,
And by Thy power divine,
Help us in youth and manhood
By holy deeds to shine.
Let all around take knowledge
That we have been with Thee,
And by Thy grace are growing
In love and purity.

 Is born in Beth-le-hem. } Come, see the won-drous thing The an-gels' lips re-veal!

And let the joy-bells ring . . A wel-come to the new-born King, With a mer-ry, mer-ry Christmas peal, With a mer-ry Christmas peal. No-el! No-el! No-el! .

Let all up-on the earth that dwell, Sing praises to Em-man-u-el! No-el! No-el! No-el!

4 Enwrap in swathing bands,
 And in a manger laid,
 Behold Him, by Whose hands
 The heavens and earth were made.
 Come, see the wondrous thing, etc.

5 The darkness now is past,
 The light of life doth shine,
 The day hath dawned at last,
 Behold the appointed sign.
 Come, see the wondrous thing, etc.

4 "I bring you," said he,
 "From the glorious Three,
 Good tidings to gladden mankind;
 The Saviour is born,
 But He lies all forlorn
 In a manger, as soon you will find."

5 At mention of this,
 (The source of all bliss,)
 The angels sang loudly and long;
 They soared to the sky,
 Beyond mortal eye,
 But left us the words of their song :

6 "All Glory to God,"
 Who laid by His rod,
 To smile on the world through His Son :
 "And peace be on earth,"
 For this wonderful birth
 Most wonderful conquests has won ;

7 "And good-will to man,"
 Though his life's but a span,
 And his thoughts so evil and wrong ;
 Then pray, Christians, pray ;
 But let Christmas-Day
 Have your sweetest and holiest song.

Carol 593.

Words by J. S. B. Monsell.

HARVEST.

A. W. Hamilton-Gell.

1. Earth be-low is teem-ing, Heaven is bright a-bove; Ev-'ry brow is beam-ing
In the light of love; Ev-'ry eye re-joi-ces, Ev-'ry thought is praise.
Hap-py hearts and voi-ces Glad-dennights and days. O, Al-migh-ty Fa-ther,
Boun-ti-ful and free, Hear our glad thanks-giv-ing, Ris-ing un-to Thee.

Every yonth and maiden
On the harvest plain,
Round the wagons laden
With their golden grain,
Swell the happy chorus
On the anthm air,
Unto Him who o'er ns
Bends with constant care.
O Almighty Father, etc.

For the sun and showers,
For the rain and dew,
For the nurtnring hours
Spring and summer knew;
For the golden autumn,
And its precious stores,
For the love that brought them
Teeming to our doors.
O Almighty Father, etc.

He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far:
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him,
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.
All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all His love.

We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food;
Accept the gifts we offer,
For all Thy love imparts,
And, what Thou most desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.
All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all His love.

 Christ is risen! henceforth never
 Death or hell shall us enthrall,
 Be we Christ's, in Him for ever
 We have triumphed over all;
 All the doubting and dejection
 Of our trembling hearts have ceased,
 'Tis His day of Resurrection!
 Let us rise and keep the Feast:
 Cho. Christ is risen! etc.

CHRISTMAS OR EPIPHANY.

Words by Rev. G. P. Grantham.

Rev. G. P. Grantham.

1. Deep the gloom, and still the night, Cold and damp the wea - ther, When, the chill night -
 2. Look - ing for the prom - is'd King, Who in Eas - tern quar - ters, Soon should spring to
 3. Up they spring, and quick - ly hie, Each his path - way bend - ing, Through the chil - ly air de - spite, Met three kings to - geth - er. One was old with snow-white hair, life, to rule O'er earth's sons and daugh - ters. Then this eve, while rapt in sleep, mist and gloom, O'er the earth de - pend - ing. How the world in dark - ness lay,

One the prime of man-hood bare, And the third a youth, stood there With the mon the hea - ther.
 One had rous'd in ac - cents deep "Haste ye; watch ye; vig - il keep By Eu - phra - tes' wa - ters.
 Till the Day-Star shed its ray, Na - ture thus would fain dis - play;—Mys - tic em - blems lend - ing.

 Then the kings with solemn gaze
 Looked on high beholding;
 For the marvel yet to come,
 Heav'n their spirits moulding,
 When behold, with silent awe,
 Suddenly the clouds they saw
 Like a darkened veil withdraw,
 Wonders more unfolding.

 In a trice a star shone forth,
 O! so brightly shining!—
 Nearer, nearer yet it came,
 Still towards earth inclining!
 And 'twas shaped—O wondrous sight!
 Like a child enthroned in light,
 Crown'd, though yet, with sceptre bright
 Victor—cross combining!*

 Then one cried, "Behold the star
 Of which seers have spoken,
 Beaming on the land afar,
 And of life the token!
 Haste we, brothers! let us speed;
 See, it moves! It comes to lead
 To the Christ, of Judah's seed
 Born of line unbroken!"

 Up they rise, and bend their way,
 Toil nor labour sparing,
 Over mountain, hill and plain,
 Costly treasures bearing.—
 So do ye your off'rings make,
 Fear no pain for Jesu's sake,
 Ever strive heaven's road to take,
 For your Lord preparing!

*An allusion to a legend, preserved in an ancient Commentary on St. Matthew, that the star, on its first appearance to the Magi, had the form of a radiant child, bearing a sceptre or cross.

3 "Mankind was spilt by Adam's guilt,
 That sin it grieved Me sore;
 O man, for thee here I shall be
 For thirty years and more.
 A spear so sharp shall pierce My heart
 For deeds I never have done;
 Father of grace, hide not Thy face,
 Forsake Thou not Thy Son.

4 "No pity shall my soul befall,
 But death shall course full sore;
 First man! I wys, this death it is
 For thee and many more."
 Then let us sing to heaven's high King,
 And praise His wondrous love,
 Since, man to save, His Son He gave,

2 For the angels' song at the Birth of Christ
With tidings of joy began;
And it rang with a Glory to God in the Highest,
And a brotherhood true to man;
Yet 'twas winter time for the rich and poor,
When the shepherds came to Saint Mary's door.
CHO: Yet 'twas winter, etc.

3 True Sages were they who to Bethlehem led,
Brought frankincense, myrrh, and gold,—
Which they offered to Christ on his manger-bed,
With a reverent love untold;
But 'twas winter time for the rich and poor,
As the Wise Men knelt at Saint Mary's door.
CHO: But 'twas winter, etc.

4 So make we our offerings now to Christ's need,
When His poor all around we see:
Inasmuch as to them we have done the deed,
He will say, "Ye have done it to Me:"
'Tis a wintry time for the rich and poor,
Say who shall be driven from a Christian's door?
CHO: 'Tis a wintry, etc.

Young and old must raise the lay.

Carol 681.

Words by Rev. J. M. Neale.

CHRISTMAS.

Old Melody, Har.
by M. Praetorius, 1610.

1. Young and old must raise the lay, That their heart en - ga - ges;
2. For the God, by all a - dored, Comes to His e - lect - ed.
3. If the pur - ple proves the King, Where is good - ly rai - ment?
4. For the pur - ple here is grass; For the throne, the man - ger;

For the Child is born to - day, Who is King of a - ges.
For the Babe that is the Lord, Hastes to be re - ject - ed.
It the man need - eth ran - som - ing, Who shall make the pay - ment?
For the court - iers, ox and ass Kneel be - fore the Stran - ger.

5 Through the desert as we go
Sorrowful and fearing,
From the Rock the waters flow
That shall work our cheering.

6 Manna, wherewith all are fed,
Comes for our salvation;
Born in Bethlehem, House of Bread,
By interpretation.

7 Young and old must raise the lay
That their heart engages;
For the Child is born to-day
Who is King of ages.

8 Young and old their deeds so frame,
That as He came hither,
They, when He their lives shall claim,
May to Him go thither.

Happy voices catch the echo
 Of the angels' song;
 Grand old chant, and joyous carol,
 Ring the aisles along.
 Let our lips their homage pay
 To the Saviour, born to-day.

Graceful Christmas greens are wreathing
 Column, choir and nave;
 While their cross-tipped boughs say ever,
 "Jesus comes to save."
 And the spicy fir's perfume
 Breathes its welcome:—"Christ is come!"

4

In our souls let glad obedience,—
 Faith and love entwine,—
 Yielding Christmas odors sweeter
 Than the fragrant pine:
 So our hearts shall homage pay
 To the Saviour, born to-day.

Precious Christmas gifts are gladdening
 Many a heart and home;
 But the "Gift all gifts excelling,"
 Christ, Himself, is come;
 In your hearts make speedy room,
 For the Christ, the Lord is come!

And have we no gifts to offer
 To our Lord and King?
 Lord, "ourselves, our souls and bodies"
 Unto Thee we bring.
 With our lives glad homage pay
 To the Saviour, born to-day!

The Angel and the shepherds.

Carol 688.

Tr. by Rev. S. Baring-Gould.

CHRISTMAS.

French Flanders Melody.

1st VERSE SOLO (The Angel). 2ND V. CHO. (The Shepherds).

1. A - wake, ye shep - herds, in - stant - ly, For - sake your flocks a - while; The new - born Pas - tor
 2. What sound is this from out the sky? Not yet the dawn does break. The day for la - bour, of His sheep, A - waits you with a smile; Give glad - some song and car - ol sweet, With night for rest, O why should we a - wake? The cock from off the farm - yard rick Has rea - dy pipe and flute To - day, that we in heav - en sing, The earth must not be mute.

 not yet tun'd his throat, The voice was but a dreamer's voice, On dream - ing ears it smote.

The Angel (SOLO).

3 O shepherds, wake and rise betimes;
 The darkness rolls away,
 The dawn is kindling in the East—
 The dawn of perfect day.
 To those who long in darkness strayed
 Awakes the Gospel dawn,
 To all who wandering sheep have been
 The Shepherd true is born.

The Shepherds (CHO.).

4 Arise, arise, bring tabret, lute, }
 And shepherds haste a way,
 We'll tune, as we to Bethlehem speed,
 A gallant roundelay.
 The shepherds' feast of feasts is come,
 We'll dance and pipe and sing,—
 The Holy Child that's born will be
 The shepherds' Holy King.

CHRISTMAS.

Words by W. H. Havergal.

W. H. Havergal.

1. So hap-py all the day, Had I been with-out play, And such good thoughts had come o'er my mind,
2. And the birds, all day long, Had left trill-ing their song; And the sun had gone down, oh, so red!
3. The stars were all drest In their brightest and best; And the moon show'd a streak of her gold:

That I wonder'd what it meant, Or for why it wassent, As I ne'er had felt aught of the kind.
We had fold-ed the sheep, And were talk-ing of sleep, But some-how we cared not for bed.
'Twas a glo-ri-ous night; And we thought of the sight Of which Da-vid our fa-ther had told.

4 A sound struck our ear,
Sweet, joyous, and clear,
It seemed like a musical breeze:
But, ere we could gaze,
We were all in a blaze,
And found ourselves down on our knees.

5 A bright one then said,
('Twas like life from the dead,)
"Good tidings, good tidings I bring!
Messiah's come down;
In your own little town
You will find Him a Babe and a King!"

6 And then the whole choir,
Rising higher and higher,
Sang of "glory, sweet peace and good-will";
The sheep seemed to dance,
And the mountains to prance,
And the stars could no longer stand still.

7 Then onward we sped,
To find out the bed,
Where the Saviour in lowliness lay;
Near Bethlehem's inn,
(Oh shame on their sin!)
We found Him midst cattle and hay.

8 But we saw the blest sight;
'Twas our Judah's delight;
And Mary and Joseph were there:
And soon we made known
To all in the town
What we heard the good angel declare.

9 And now every day,
I sing and I pray
To the Babe who is Saviour and all:
May His wonderful birth
Be known through the earth,
And cheer both the great and the small!

Soon shall hear the gladsome sound,
Joyous tidings of salvation
Borne to earth's remotest bound.
Then shall rise in tones excelling,
Praise for grace so freely shed,
And the Easter hymn be swelling,
"Christ is risen from the dead!"

4 Victor now, to Heaven ascended,
Seated on the Father's throne,
Christ, in whom our nature blended,
Will His blessed children own.
If above, in glory meeting,
We the heavenly courts should tread,
Sweeter then will sound the greeting,
"Christ is risen from the dead."

J. Wainwright.

1. Christ-ians, a-wake, sa-lute the hap-py morn, Where-on the Sa-viour of man-kind was born;
 2. Then to the watch-ful shepherds it was told, Who heard th' angel-ic her-ald's voice: "Be-hold,
 Rise to a-dore the mys-ter-y of love, Which hosts of an-gels chant-ed from a-bove;
 I bring good ti-dings of a Sa-viour's birth, To you and all the na-tions up-on earth:
 With them the joy-ful ti-dings first be-gun Of God In-car-nate and the Vir-gin's Son.
 This day hath God ful-fill'd His promis'd word, This day is born a Sa-viour, Christ the Lord."

mf 3 He spake; and straightway the celestial choir
cr In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire:
 The praises of redeeming love they sang,
f And heaven's whole arch with alleluia rang:
 God's highest glory was their anthem still,
d, n Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.

mf 4 To Bethlehem straight the happy shepherds ran,
dim To see the wonder God had wrought for man:
 And found, with Joseph and the blessed maid,
 Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid;
cr Amazed the wondrous story they proclaim,
 The earliest heralds of the Saviour's name.

mf 5 Let us, like these good shepherds, then employ
 Our grateful voices to proclaim the joy;
 Trace we the Babe, Who hath retrieved our loss,
 From His poor manger to His bitter Cross;
 Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
 Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

cr 6 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
f To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song;
 He, that was born upon this joyful day,
 Around us all His glory shall display;
 Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
 Of angels and of angel-men the King.

CHRISTMAS.

E. Lémare.

1. Ring out, ye mer-ry, mer-ry bells, Ring out at Christmas time, . . . And
 2. Ring out, ye mer-ry, mer-ry bells, A-rouse the sleep-ing morn; . . . Glad bear the An-gel's mes-sage on, With ev-'ry . . . swell-ing chime.
 ti-dings have come down to earth, To us a King is born.

3 Ring out, ye merry, merry bells,
 Proclaim a Saviour's birth;
 With joy and hope your music swells,
 Peace and good-will to earth.

4 Ring out, ye merry, merry bells,
 To us a Son is given;
 And all the hosts of Angels bow
 To that one Name in heaven.

O hear, great and small,—
 And God bless you all,—
 Our song of a Christmas morning.
 There came in due time
 From a far eastern clime
 Certain wise men led on by a star;
 Their gifts they unroll'd,
 Myrrh, incense, and gold,
 And bore the glad tidings afar.

Now peace to you all
 And deliv'rance from thrall

Not in a kingly palace
The Son of God they found,
But in a lowly manger
Where oxen fed around.
The glorious King of Heaven,
The Lord of all the earth,
In mercy condescended
To be of humble birth.

Long looked the simple shepherds,
With holy wonder stirred,
Then praised God for all the things
Which they had seen and heard.
And homeward went rejoicing,
Upon that Christmas morn,
Declaring unto every one
That Jesus Christ was born.

CHRISTMAS.

Words and music by J. Stainer.

1. Cold was the day . . . when in a gar-den bare, . . . . Walk'd the Child
 2. Soon was His pres- . . . ence miss'd with-in His home, . . . . His Moth-er . .

accept. to verses 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 9.

 Je - sus wrapt in ho - ly thought; His brow seemed cloud - ed gen - tle mark'd His ev - 'ry way; Forth then she came to cres. dim.

 with a weight of care, Calm - ness and rest from world-ly things He sought.
 seek where He did roam, Full of sweet words His trou - ble to al - lay.

* When sung as a Tenor Solo, small notes may be sung.

3 (Solo)

"Speak, gentle Lord;" she cried with reverent love,
 "Tell me, I pray, what griefs around Thee press,
 Though I of earth, and Thou from Heaven above,
 I am Thy Mother; what doth Thee distress?"

4 (Cho.)

pp Sweet was her face as o'er His head she bent;
 Longing to melt His look of saddest grief,
 With lifted eyes His ear to her He lent;
 Her kindly solace brought His soul relief.

f Then did He smile, a smile of love so deep,
 Winter himself grew warm beneath its glow,
 From drooping branches scented blossoms peep,
 Up springs the grass, the seal'd fountains flow.

Summer and spring did each with other vie,
 Offering to Him the fragrance of their store;
 Chanting sweet notes the birds around Him fly,
 Wondering why earth had chequered so her floor.

7 (Solo.)

pp Then round his Mother lilies white entwined,
 Fresh as her love, and chaste as she was pure;
 About His head the Passion-flowers did bind,
 Type of the sufferings He must soon endure.

8 (Cho.)

Hid in the wreath was many a cruel thorn;
 Yet on His brow He placed it, full of joy:
 Full well He knew why He on earth was born,
 How by His Blood He should our woes destroy.

f Know then, dear brother, in these Christmas hours,
 Sorrow, like snow, will melt if He but smile;
 And if He clothe thy wintry path with flowers,
 Amidst thy mirth, think on His thorns awhile.

cree me, Was with this du - ty la - den, His Mo - ther here to be.
That Christ, the God in - ear - nate, An in - fant mild would be.

MEN. 3 And what said he, O Mary,
This angel when he spake,
When he foretold that Jesus
On earth our form should take?
WOMEN. He said, "The Lord be with thee,
For full of grace thou art,
And thou art highly favoured,
Thou meek and pure of heart."

MEN. 4 Now tell us, blessed Mary,
Say where didst thou abide
When Gabriel did promise
This first great Chistmas-tide.
WOMEN. In Galilee I rested,
In holy love and fear,
And in my meditation
The Angel did appear.

MEN. 5 Did shepherds from the mountains
In humble garb and meek,
With joyous exultation
The Holy Infant seek?
WOMEN. They sought the humble manger,
And soon as they did see
The new-born Prince of Glory,
They sank on bended knee.

CHORUS. 6 We humbly trust, O Mary,
That God will give us grace
To love this Holy Infant
And ever seek His face;
So at the last great Advent,
When He as Judge shall stand,
We may amongst the blessed,
Be placed on His right hand.

NOTE.—The Prologue (first four lines) should be sung by a single bass or tenor voice (unaccompanied) to the first four lines of the melody. Then all commence verse 1, in chorus and in harmony. The men, when singing alone should of course sing the melody, and the women likewise. In each of these cases the accompaniment may carry the harmonies.
