Var 2

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff features a series of eighth-note runs with trills (tr) and a fermata. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with eighth notes and rests.

The second system continues the musical piece. The treble staff has more eighth-note runs with trills and a fermata. The bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

The third system of musical notation shows further development of the eighth-note runs in the treble staff, with trills and a fermata. The bass staff maintains the accompaniment.

The fourth system of musical notation continues the pattern of eighth-note runs and trills in the treble staff, with a fermata. The bass staff accompaniment remains consistent.

The fifth system of musical notation introduces a variation, labeled "Var 3". The treble staff features a different melodic line with trills and a fermata. The bass staff accompaniment continues.

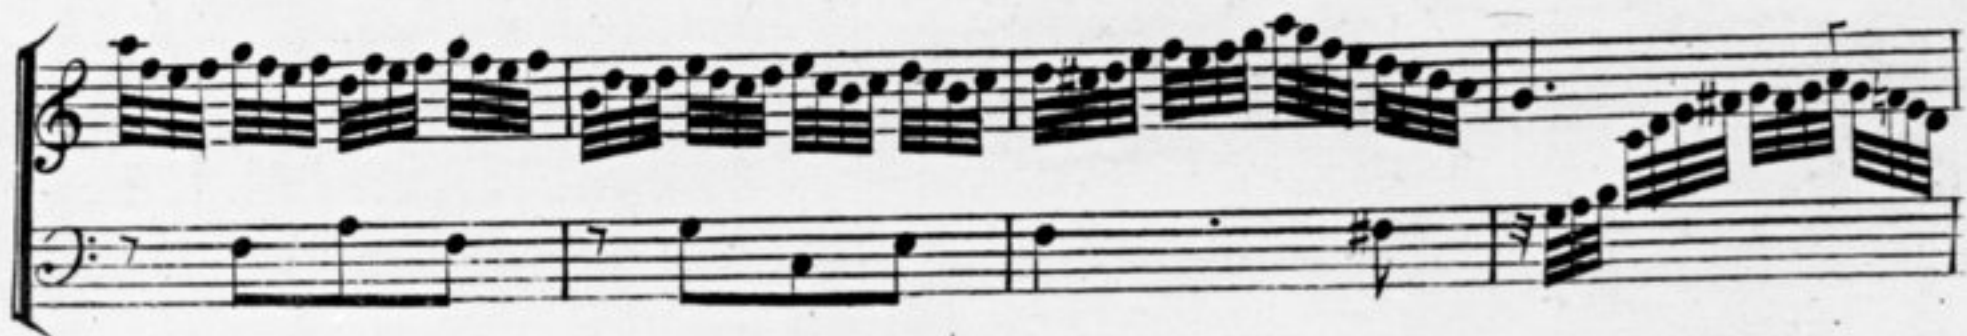

The sixth system of musical notation continues the variation. The treble staff has eighth-note runs with trills and a fermata. The bass staff accompaniment is present.

The seventh system of musical notation concludes the piece with a final system. The treble staff features eighth-note runs with trills and a fermata. The bass staff accompaniment ends with a double bar line.

This page contains a handwritten musical score, page 17, consisting of seven systems of music. Each system is written on a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The notation is dense and complex, featuring numerous beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often grouped in sixteenth-note patterns. The key signature is predominantly one flat (B-flat), with occasional natural signs and sharps indicating key changes or accidentals. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of the seventh system. The manuscript is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper.
