Andantino

The first system of the musical score is for the piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves, treble and bass, in 2/4 time. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked 'Andantino'. The first staff begins with a forte dynamic 'f'. The music features a series of chords and moving lines in both hands, with some notes marked with accents.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment. It maintains the same musical style with chords and moving lines in both hands. The dynamics remain consistent with the first system.

The third system introduces the vocal line. The vocal staff (treble clef) has a rest for the first measure, followed by the lyrics 'O quam tris - tis et af -'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines.

The fourth system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a rest for the first measure, followed by the lyrics 'p'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines.

The fifth system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a rest for the first measure, followed by the lyrics 'flie - ta En - it il la be - ne'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines.

The sixth system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a rest for the first measure, followed by the lyrics 'ne'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and moving lines.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right staff features a series of chords, each with a sixteenth-note melody line above it, all under a single slur. The left staff is mostly empty, with a few notes in the final measure.

This system continues the piano introduction. The right staff has more chords with sixteenth-note lines. The left staff has a few notes in the final measure.

1^{er} SOPRANI.

The first soprano line begins with a rest for two measures, then enters with a melody starting on a half note. The lyrics "Quis est ho - mo qui non" are written below the staff.
