BLUE BELLS OF SCOTLAND.

Arr by JULES EGGHARD.

ANDANTE.

The musical score is presented in five systems, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The tempo is marked 'ANDANTE'. The first system begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The second system has a large ink blot on the left side. The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The fourth system shows a more active treble line. The fifth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in the bass clef.

Copyright 1882 by E. A. SAALFELDER.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a sequence of chords and a melodic line. The lower staff is in bass clef and features a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

The second system of music continues the piece with two staves. The upper staff shows a continuation of the chordal and melodic material, while the lower staff maintains the eighth-note accompaniment.

The third system of music features two staves. The upper staff has a more active melodic line with some grace notes. The lower staff continues with the eighth-note accompaniment.

The fourth system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff includes a melodic phrase with a grace note. The lower staff continues the eighth-note accompaniment.

The fifth system of music is the final system on the page, consisting of two staves. The upper staff concludes with a melodic phrase, and the lower staff ends with a final chord.
