Andante

The frozen streets in Moonshine glitter, the midnight hour has long been past, ah me the wind blows keen and bitter, I sink beneath the piercing blast in every Vein seems life to languish their weight my limbs no more can bear But no one soothes the Orphan's anguish and no one heeds the Orphan's prayer.

3^d Verse

Perhaps you think my lips dissembling of virtuous sorrows feign a

4th Verse Easter

He's gone! no mercy man will show me in prayers no more I'll waste my breath, here on the fro - zen Earth I'll throw me and wait in mute despair - for death farewel, thou cruel world tomorrow no more thy scorn my heart will tear. the grave will shield the Child of sorrow and Heaven will hear the Orphan's prayer.

5th Verse

But thou proud Man the Beggar scorning unmoved who sawst me kneel for f

bread, thy heart shall ache to hear at morning that morning found the Beggar dead and when the room resounds with laughter my famish'd cry thy mirth shall scare and often shalt thou wish hereafter thou hadst not scorned the Orphans prayer.
