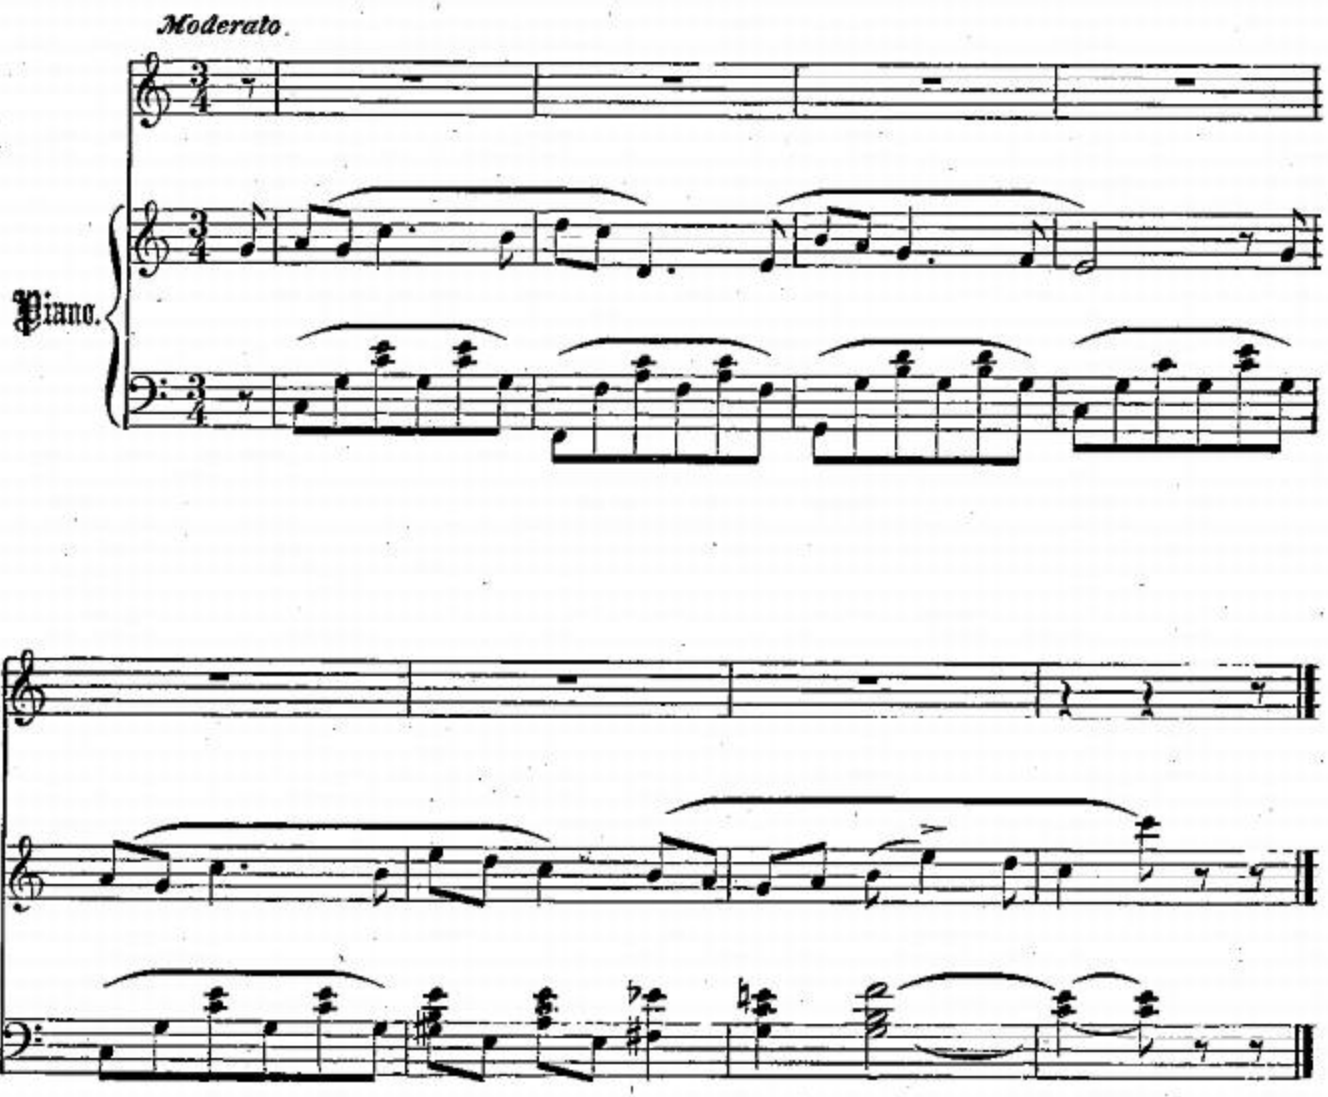
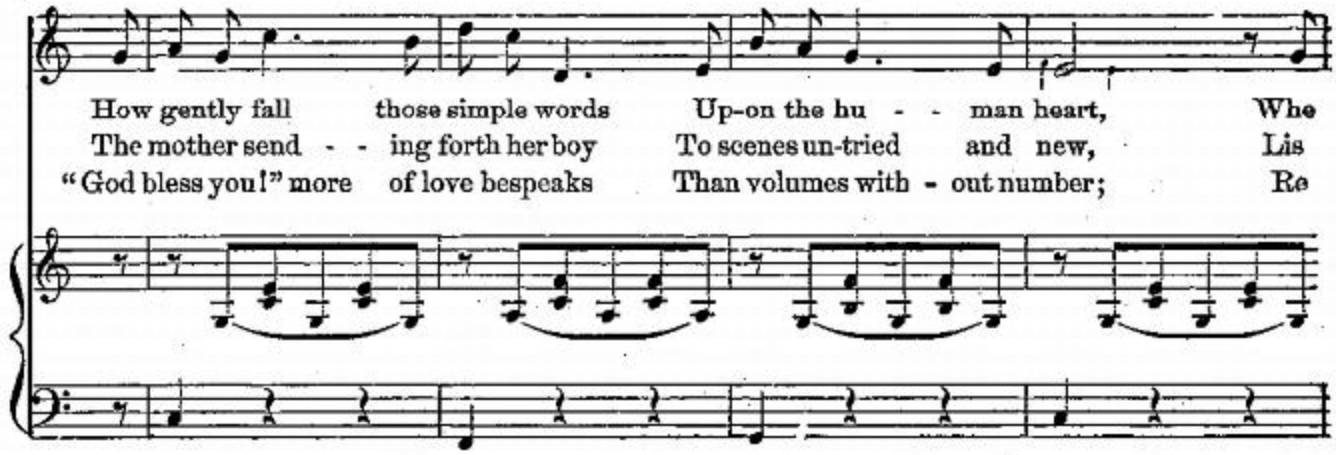
"GOD BLESS YOU!"

BALLAD.

J. R. THOMAS.



Copyright, MCMXCII, by CLARA THOMAS



How gently fall those simple words Up-on the hu - - man heart, Whe
The mother send - - ing forth her boy To scenes un-tried and new, Lis
"God bless you!" more of love bespeaks Than volumes with - out number; Re friends, long bound in strongest ties, Are doom'd by death to part. Yo not a stu - - died, stately speech, Nor murmurs out, "A - dieu!" Sh

- veal we thus our trust in Him, Whose eye-lids nev - - er slumber. I sad - ly press the hand of those Who thus in love ca-ress you, And sad - ly says, between her sobs, When-e'er misfortune press you, Com ask, in part - - ing, no long speech, But while fond hands ca-ress you, I soul re-spon - sive beats to soul, In breathing out, "God bless you!" And to thy moth - er, boy, come back! Then fond-ly sighs, "God bless you!" Come on - ly ask the dear old words, So sweet, so sad, "God bless you!" I
