PIANO.

Where spicy winds kiss eastern shores, And fervid sunbeams

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1841 355 by S. Carusi in the Clerk's office of the Dist Court of M.C.

glare                      Where mighty Ganges                      onward roars, Our flag is dim. -                      Tempo.                      there huz-za! Our flag is there!                      Where Hecla belches out its fires                      Up-on the trem-bling air,

And tinges ranks of                      i- - - - - cy spires, Our flag is there, huz-za! Our flag is there      Our flag is there, huzza! Our flag is there!

3

Lo! where the ocean's surgy wave
 Drinks in the lightning's glare,
 And mocks the thunder bolts that rave —
 Our flag is there, huzza! our flag is there.
 Look north, and south, and east, and west,
 Its stripes float in the air,
 Reflected from the water's breast,
 Our flag is there, huzza! our flag is there.

3

Where booming Cannon tell the world
 What perils freemen dare,
 What gallant sign is that unfurl'd?
 Our flag is there, huzza! our flag is there.
 Where states are bound in union strong,
 And glad songs fill the air,
 The land by Freedom cherish'd long,
 Our flag is there, huzza! our flag is there.
