

49 Copyright secured September 4th 1849
Publication deposited same day

Look from thy lattice, gentle lady

A Serenade

Written & Adapted by

J. H. HEWITT

Respectfully dedicated to

Mr: John S. Fry

OF RICHMOND

by

M R: CHARLES HOWARD.

Published by G. WILLIG Jr. Baltimore.

Grazioso.

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the piano, indicated by a treble clef and a bass clef with a key signature of two flats. The middle staff is for the voice, indicated by a soprano clef. The bottom staff is also for the piano. The vocal part begins with the lyrics "Look from thy lat-tice gen-tele la_dy While we touch the soft gui-tar.... Our". The piano part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and chords. The vocal part continues with "barque is on the wa-ters rea-dy To be guid-ed by loves star....". The piano part concludes with a final chord.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1849 by G. Willig jr in the Clerks Office of the Dist^t Court of Md.
2299

Love seeks the moonlight and the bil-lows, When the winds are hush'd to sleep . . . He loves to breathe on dow-ny pil-lows, Smiling when the dreamers weep.

2

Oh, do not chide us, gentle maiden,
 If we fill the air with song;
 Midnight's breath is sweet when laden
 With the notes that float along.
 Then, ere we leave thee, wake and listen,
 Let our simple music tell
 How bright the eyes with tear-drops glisten,
 When the lips breathe "fare thee well!"