

Copyright secured March 6th 1852
Publication deferred same day

To Miss Fannetta Williams.

ELODIE,

"TIS MY LAST PARTING SONG"

For the
PIANO-FORTE

Written & Composed

BY

J. H. HEWITT.

C. T. Callaghan

Published by F. D. BENTEN & CO. Baltimore.

W. T. Mayo, New Orleans.

25 Cts Net.

E L O D I E.

"TIS MY LAST PARTING SONG."

J. H. HEWITT.

Moderato con espressione.

VOICE.

PIANO.

'Tis my last par - - ting song— my boat's on the shore, I may not be - 2382

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1852 by F. D. Benteen &amp; Co. in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Md.

hold thy bright eyes a - - - ny more; Sweet

E - - - lo - - - die, list! while I pour forth my lay, And re - mem - - - ber its strain when thy bards' far a - - way. My heart will be 2382

5

thine, love, thro' weal and thro' woe, My load - - - star art thou, love, where-e - - - ver I go.

cres.

2.

'Tis my last serenade— but wherever I rove,
 The theme of my song shall be Elodie— love;
 Sweet Elodie, pride of the green, sunny isle,
 The light of my life is the beam of thy smile.
 Farewell, then, to thee, love— my barque's on the sea,
 May good angels guard thee, my own Elodie.