

Copyright secured December 13 1853
Publication deferred same day

To Miss Susan Mathiot

I'LL LOVE THEE THEN

Words by

Finley Johnson Esq.

Music by

John H. Hewitt.

Gallinham

25 c. Net.

Published by MILLER & BEACHAM Baltimore,
Successors to E.D. Benteen.

I'LL LOVE THEE THEN.

3

J. H. HEWITT.

Moderato.

PIANO

Dolce.

I'll love thee when the spring flow'rs bloom — For,

'twas in spring we met; The bliss-ful scenes which 2548

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1853 by Miller & Beacham in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Md.

round us shone, Are fresh in mem-ry yet. I know that we were young-er then, But hearts as true as ours, Have scarce-ly felt the chill of time. Or no- ted pas- sing hours. . . . And, on our day of 2548

hap - - pi - - ness, Joy's sun has scarce - ly set; Then, in the spring-time I will love, For it was then we met.

Ad lib.

Rall:

Cres.

2.

I'll love thee in the summer too,
 For, when the spring is past,
 Thy summer smiles so beautifully
 Around my path were cast.
 And tho' the hand of time has press'd
 Relentless on my brow—
 And age is slowly creeping on,
 Still— still I'll love thee now.
 For, see— our spring of love is o'er,
 Ripe fruits our branches fill—
 Yet, be it spring or summer time,
 Thine shall my love be still!