

Copyright secured October 8 1857
Publication Deferred March 1858

OUR HOME'S ON THE DANCING WAVE

Written, Composed & Inscribed to

Lieut. Winfield Scott Bell

OF THE U.S. REVENUE SERVICE,

BY

John H. Hewitt.

Gillingham.

Published by MILLER & BEACHAM Baltimore.

Entered according to Act of Congress, A.D. 1857 by Miller & Beacham in the Cl. Off. of the Dist. Court of Md.

OUR HOMES ON THE DANCING WAVE.

J. H. HEWITT.

Allegro non troppo.

PIANO

Marcato. sf sf

h. 8

h. Dim. p

3118

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1857 by Miller & Beacham in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Md.

Our home's on the dancing wave... That laughs as we cleave it through: We The smuggler's craft heaves in sight,... She's hug-ging the mis-sy shore,... To love the wild storm-kings stave,.. And e-cho his wild hal-loo!... There's a creep un-der shade of night,... With steady and muf-fled oar..... To wreck ly-ing on our lee,... And perishing souls are a-board; Right quarters all hands now fly,..... For ac-tion the deck is clear'd,... Her bravely we skim o'er the sea,.... The welcome relief to af-ford.... Up sails shi-ver in the wind's eye,.... The dark rakish craft is now near'd.... Now, mf

p

3118

helm, my boys she wears away, Right merrily o'er the wave; Her prow now cleaves the man the guns! the match prepare, Hark! thundering e-cho roars! That mu-sic makes the Refrain.

diamond sea, The shrieking crew to save... Ho!... for the heaving sea, A smuggler stare, The contraband craft is ours!...

Cres. Il basso marcato.

life on the mountain waves for me, Ho!... for the heaving sea, A life on the waves for sf

me.

f