

The Unknown Dead

Edited by Robert A. Hudson

Words & Music by John H. Hewitt

Andantino

6

1. Where the moun - tain ash nods to the tem - pest's wild howl - ing, Where the
2. They have fought for their rights, for the land of their sires, — Their —
3. Then — let them sleep on 'neath the sod of the val - ley, Where —

6

p

Chords: G, C/G, G, G, C/G, N.C.

9

ech - o shrinks mute in the vale dark and deep; Where the forms have stood up like a bul - wark of might; They have night dews will — lave the long grass o'er their beds; A -

9

Chords: G, A7(omit 3), D, N.C.

11 G C/G G G C/G N.C.

gaunt knelt above, vul - ture at on the al - tar day of the grim burn mus - ter wolf is prowl - ing, The Free - dom's fires, And they'll ral - ly, And

13 G G D G

bones of dead he - roes are tak - ing their sleep. No thrust back the foe in her glo - ri - ous light. No glo - ry will twine a bright wreath round their heads. No slab there ap - pears, wet with sor - row - ing tears; The bright stars for them, plucked from Fame's di - a - dem; Un - white mar - ble stone shall rise o'er the Un - known; But rall.

15 D D

17 Bm N.C. Bm A7 a tempo

hem - lock and lau - rel hang o - ver the spot; And ____ no - ticed, un - heed - ed, they act - ed their parts, 'Mid the
 in our sad hearts a fresh re - cord shall be; Tho' ____

unison f mf

19 D D

no - bod - y knows where the rel - ics re - pose, Of the clash - ing of arms, and the bat - tle's a - larms, They ____ named nev - er more, they will live in the core, The ____

p

21 D A A rall. D

sol - dier whose ____ deeds and whose name are for - got.
 fell with the ____ love of home deep in their hearts.
 brav - est who ____ fought and who died to be free.

f

23 Refrain G C/G G G C/G G

Let the req - ui-em be sung; let the sad pray'r be said, For the 23

dim.

26 G D G Em rit. G D7(omit 3) G N.C. G C

he-roes for - got - ten: the Un - known Dead. For the he - roes for-got - ten: the cresc.

26

29 G D G a tempo D.S.

Un - known Dead.

29

dim. cresc.