Basius à 5. Voc:

A single line of musical notation from a manuscript. It begins with a treble clef. The notation consists of various note values: minims (half notes), crotchets (quarter notes), and quavers (eighth notes). Some notes are beamed together. The ink is dark on aged, slightly discolored paper.

Et in terra Pax, ij hominibus, bonæ voluntatis, Lau-dam⁹, laudam⁹ te, laudamuste, laudamus, laudam⁹ te, benedicim⁹ te, ij ij adoramuste,

ij glorificamus te, ij ij

A single staff of music with a treble clef. The notation consists of diamond-shaped notes, some with stems, and some with 'X' marks. The notes are arranged in a sequence that corresponds to the lyrics 'ij glorificamus te, ij ij'.

The musical score is written on ten staves, each with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and repeat signs. The lyrics are written below the staves, with some words appearing on multiple staves. The text is in Latin and is a form of the Kyrie eleison.
