

TO MISS DORA DAVIS
Richmond Va.

Do you think the moon could have seen us?

Words by
WILLIE E. PABOR,
Music by

J. R. Thomas

NEW YORK.

Piano Song 4
Guitar . 34

Published by J. H. Peters 200 Broadway

St. Louis, J. DeBeyer & C^o

Chicago, De Motte Bros.

Cincinnati, J. DeBeyer & C^o

This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and in the United Kingdom of Great Britain.

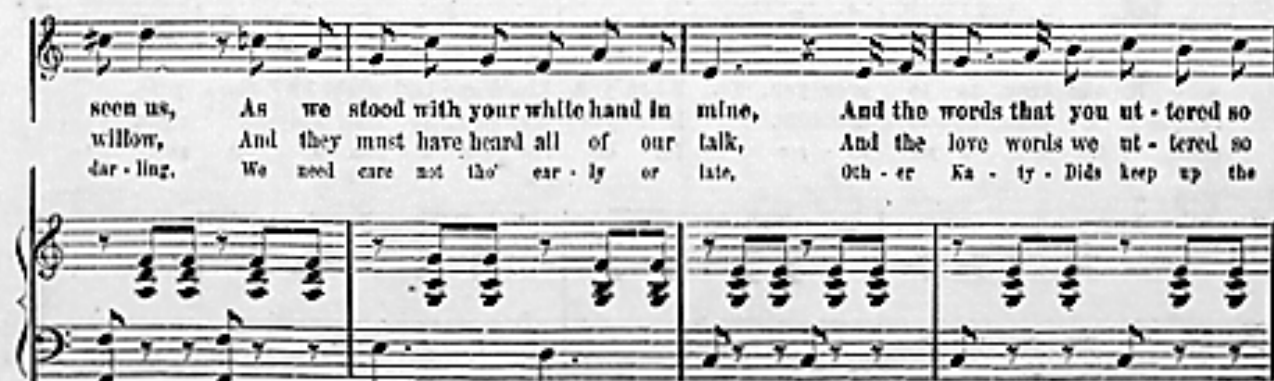

2nd Ed. Copyright, 1900, J. H. Peters.

DO YOU THINK THE MOON COULD HAVE SEEN US.

BALLAD.

Words by WILLIE A. PABOR.

Music by J. R. THOMAS.

soft-ly Seem'd to me like a whis-per di-vine; Did you think when the time came for soft-ly Must have gone up to them from the walk; For one said "you did," while ansto-ry As to what was done down by the gate: And the moon can be-tray us so parting And we wonder'd the hour was so late, There was oth-er Cried "you did-n't," all thro' the long night, While I long-er. Tho' be-neath it, my com-ing you wait, For ey

a - ny one near us to hear you, When you kiss'd me last night by the gate.
 thought as I went thro' the moonlight If you did, you at least had a right.
 right of the ring on your fin-ger You can kiss me a - gain at the gate.

CHORUS.

5

Soprano.
There was some-bod-y near us 'to hear us, There was somebod-y out just as late; For the Alto.

There was some-bod-y near us to hear us, There was somebod-y out just as late; For the Tenor.

There was some-bod-y near us to hear us, There was somebod-y out just as late; For the Bass.

There was some-bod-y near us to hear us, There was somebod-y out just as late; For the whisper went by in the moonlight, That you kissed me last night by the gate.

whisper went by in the moonlight, That you kissed me last night by the gate.

D. S. S.

