A handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring six staves of music. The notation is square neumes on a four-line red staff. The lyrics are written in a Gothic script below the staves. The text is a Latin hymn, likely the 'Ave' from the Mass. The score is divided into two parts by the title 'Secunda pars.' at the top left. The lyrics are: 'Aue solem genuisti, Aue solem genuisti, Aue prole protulisti, mūdo lapso, con tulisti uitam & imperia um. Aue Christe fili Dei, Maris portu signū dumi aromatum uirga fu mi, Angelorum Domi ne An gelorum Do mis'. The music is written in a single system, with the lyrics aligned under the corresponding staves. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and a small blue stain at the bottom right.
