Detailed description: This is a page from a musical manuscript, likely a Mass setting. It features five systems of music, each consisting of a vocal line (treble clef) and a lute line (bass clef). The notation is in a historical style, with square notes and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are in Latin, written in a Gothic script below the notes. The text is: 'Veni de libano ij ueni ij ueni, coronaberis, cor me um, soror mea, spon- sa me a, in uno crine colli tui, ij ij pulchriora sunt ubera tu a uino, & odor unguen- torum tuorum super omnia aromata ij'. The 'ij' (two) appears to be a measure rest or a specific rhythmic value. The manuscript shows signs of age, with some staining and wear on the paper.
