A single line of handwritten musical notation on a five-line staff. The notation is written in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of several measures of music, featuring quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. A double bar line is visible towards the right side of the staff. The handwriting is somewhat stylized and characteristic of 18th or 19th-century musical notation.

A single line of handwritten musical notation on a five-line staff. The notation is in a key signature of one flat (B-flat), indicated by a flat symbol at the beginning of the staff. The notes are diamond-shaped, a common notation in early manuscript notation. The melody consists of several measures, with some notes beamed together. The handwriting is in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper.
