Recit.

A handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. The score consists of approximately 15 staves of music. The notation includes various musical symbols such as clefs, time signatures, notes, rests, and accidentals. The handwriting is in dark ink. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some staining. The music appears to be a single melodic line, possibly for a violin or flute. The notation is dense and fills most of the staves.

This is a handwritten musical score for a Continuo instrument. The score is written on twelve staves, each beginning with a C-clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notation is dense, featuring many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes, indicating a fast tempo. Various performance instructions are written throughout the score, including 'piano' (multiple times), 'forte', and 'Da Capo' at the bottom. The paper is aged and shows some staining. A red circular library stamp is visible in the lower right corner, partially overlapping the 'Da Capo' instruction.

Recit.

A handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. The score is written in black ink and consists of ten staves. The first staff is marked "Recit." and contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests and dynamic markings like "piano." and "forte." above the notes. The second staff begins with a double bar line and the word "Aria." written above it. The rest of the score continues with various musical notations, including notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The paper shows signs of wear, with some staining and a slightly irregular edge.
