First system of the piano introduction. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 2/4. The system concludes with a mf (mezzo-forte) dynamic marking.

Second system of the piano introduction. The right hand continues the melodic pattern with some grace notes. The left hand maintains the eighth-note accompaniment. The system ends with a f (forte) dynamic marking.

Third system of the piano introduction. It begins with a ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking. The right hand has a more active melodic line. The system concludes with a ben ritmo (good rhythm) instruction.

Vocal entry with lyrics. Four staves are shown, each with a f (forte) dynamic marking at the beginning. The lyrics are: "The cot - ton fields are white with bloom, — The pick - ers". The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef.

Piano accompaniment for the vocal entry. The right hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment, and the left hand plays a similar pattern. The system begins with a f (forte) dynamic marking.

The first system consists of four vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal parts are in a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass). The piano accompaniment is in the right and left hands. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are 'way, A - way, A - way down South in Dix - ie.' repeated across the staves. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand.

The second system is a piano accompaniment for the vocal parts. It is marked 'Moderato' with a tempo indication of '(♩ = 92)'. The key signature remains three flats. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The dynamics are marked 'mf' (mezzo-forte).

The third system continues the piano accompaniment. The key signature changes to two flats (B-flat, E-flat). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The dynamics are marked 'f' (forte).

ff rit

The fourth system concludes the piano accompaniment. The key signature changes to one flat (B-flat). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The dynamics are marked 'ff rit' (fortissimo, ritardando).
