Sonata Fantasia
per il pianoforte
(2018)

COMPOSER'S NOTE

Sonata Fantasia per il Pianoforte is a single movement piece in free form. It is divided in five tightly bound together sections, with the slowest one in the middle. The piece makes extensive use of quintal harmonies and progressions, starting from the beginning with a continuously winding arpeggio (on the notes C, G, D), played against a wide spaced three notes sequence a fourth apart (descending D ♭ , A ♭ , and E ♭). Thematically the first, third and last sections of the piece use the same, extremely simple, motives, while the second, and partly the fourth, sections use more lyrical ones. (The composition won Honorable Mention in the Opus Dissonus International Piano Composition Competition 2018.)
