

Traitor Spare That Flag

Poetry by William J. Wetmore, M.D.

Adapted from Woodman Spare That Tree which was adapted from The Old Armchair

Music by Henry Russell

With much feeling and expression.

Andante

Quasi legato

con espress.

Traitor Spare That Flag

15

1. Trai - tor, spare that flag, Touch not a sin - gle

18

star, 'Twill rouse each loy - al heart, And 21

light the flames of war. Still let that stand - ard wave, The 25

sym - bol of our land; Raised by our pa - tri - ot

28

sires, A brave and no - ble band.

31

34

37

2. That old fa - mil - iar flag, Waves proud - ly as of

Traitor Spare That Flag

40

yore; It floats on man - y a sea, On 43

con anima

man - y a for - eign shore; Ha! trai - tor! wouldst then here, An -

47

oth - er em - blem see? Vile mon - ster! let it

50

stand, That ban - ner of the Free!

67

fields of blood - y strife, That flag has brave - ly

70

led, And af - ter bat - tles won, Has 73

wrapped its hon - ored dead

76

79

4. Still proud-ly wave old flag;

83

Bright em-blem of our land; Touch not a sin-gle

86

star, Stay, trai-tor, stay thy hand; That ban-ner still shall 90

float, That flag shall ev-er wave; He 93

who would dare de - stroy, Shall fill a trai - tor's

96 grave.

99