When in Disgrace

When, in disgrace with fortune and men's eyes, I all alone beweep my outcast state, And trouble deaf heaven with my bootless cries, And look upon myself and curse my fate,

M. Tuttle

Largo espressivissimo e con rubato

For thy sweet love remembered such wealth brings That then I scorn to change my state with kings.

Note to performers: I have purposely omitted any bowings or dynamics and all but a few tempo indications. The great conductor Furtwängler once remarked that you can't conduct something you haven't lived. Those who have lived it will know how to play this piece.
