The left hand musical score consists of six systems of staves. Each system has a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music features a variety of chords, including triads and dyads, with some triplets indicated by a '3' over the notes. The bass line is generally more active than the treble line, providing a harmonic foundation.

The right hand musical score consists of six systems of staves. Each system has a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music features a variety of chords, including triads and dyads, with some triplets indicated by a '3' over the notes. The treble line is generally more active than the bass line, featuring more melodic movement. The score includes first and second endings, marked with '1.' and '2.' above the staff. The piece concludes with a double bar line and the initials 'D.C.' (Da Capo).
