§ Till ready.

I seem to see a pic-ture of a
We know that there are dif-f'rent kinds of moth-er, With her chil-dren by her side _____ Some her own and chil-dren, There are some who love to roam _____ Then a - gain there's some that she's a - dopt-ed, Still she looks at all with pride _____ Now it some who love their moth-er, They would rath-er stay at home _____ Still with seems the moth-er is in trou-ble And she needs her chil-dren's aid _____

all our man-y faults and fail-ing's She re - mains our on - ly friend _____

Some are com-ing forth to help her — But there's some who seem a - fraid, —
Just like man-y loy-al chil-dren — We should help her to the end. —

Chorus.

A - mer - i - ca has been a moth-er — To the chil-dren of the world — She has tak-en to her bos - om — Ev'-ry home - less boy and girl — Now we find that she's in trou-ble —

Dan - ger's lurk-ing all a - round — A - mer-i - ca, she needs you like a mother —

1. Would you turn your mother down? — 2. A - down? —
