

DOWN WHERE IT'S ALWAYS JUNE

Words and Music by GEORGE L. COBB

Luella Cowen.

Published by H. C. WEASNER & CO. Buffalo, N.Y.

Down Where It's Always June

Words & Music by GEORGE L. COBB

Tempo di Marcia

Puck-er your lips and close your eyes,
Hon-ey the hon - ey moon is shin-dear, I've brot a - long a big sur - prise, dear, Now take this kiss and

- ing, Hon - ey the wed - ding bells are chim - ing, Put on your Sun - day

lis - ten well I've got a se - - cret I must tell, I know a place clothes and come Down to the church and we'll be one, And when the preach-

where we can dwell, Just the place to love.
er man is done, We'll go far a way.

CHORUS

Down where it's al-ways June, dear, We'll spend our honey-moon,

I'll build a bun-ga-low, dear, Just big e-nough for two to spoon and croon and soon we'll live, dear, on love and kiss-es, Down where the ros-es bloom. Kiss-es will greet you, Kiss-es will keep you, Down where it's al ways June. June.