The lyrics, written below the staves, include:

A handwritten musical score for three voices (SATB) and basso continuo. The score consists of ten staves of music. The top four staves are for voices, each with a soprano, alto, tenor, and bass part. The bottom six staves are for the continuo, featuring a basso continuo staff with a bassoon-like instrument, a harpsichord staff, and a cello/bass staff. The music is written in common time with a key signature of one sharp. The vocal parts sing in Latin, with lyrics including "et projiciamus a nobis jugum ipsorum dirum", "et projiciamus a nobis jugum ipsorum", "et projiciamus vincula eorum", "et projiciamus vincula eorum", "et projiciamus vincula eorum", "et projiciamus vincula eorum", and "et projiciamus vincula eorum". The continuo parts provide harmonic support, with the bassoon/harpichord staff often playing eighth-note patterns and the bass staff providing a sustained bass line.

A handwritten musical score for three voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor) and piano. The score consists of six staves. The top three staves represent the vocal parts, each with a different vocal range (Soprano, Alto, Tenor) indicated by a 'C' or 'A'. The bottom three staves represent the piano, with a 'P' indicating the piano part. The music is written in common time. The lyrics are in Latin and read as follows:

z o in eo qui con fidun in eo in e = o.
fidun in e = - - - o in e = o.
