

TO MY FRIEND

MYRON A. COONEY, New-York.

Parlor Edition,

RIP VAN WINKLE,

ROMANTIC OPERA,

WORDS BY

J. HOWARD WAINWRIGHT,

MUSIC BY

GEO. F. BRISTOW.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. When circled round in youth's glad Spring, - 3½ | 8. List! the merry Bells are Ringing, - - |
| 2. Vivandiere, Song, - - - - 5 | 9. Joy ne'er ceasing, (Duet,) - - 4 |
| 3. Alone, all alone in this wide World, - - 3½ | 10. O'er my Heart some spell is stealing, (Trio.) |
| 4. The Gentry may talk, - - - - 5 | 11. Whither art thou going? (Duet,) - |
| 5. The day is done, the setting Sun, - - | 12. I cannot wait his coming, - - - |
| 6. The dew of Night, I'm afraid, - - | 13. Nay, do not weep, my Alice, dear, - |
| 7. Protecting Power, (Prayer,) - - - | 14. He's gone, and now the Wild-wood Rose, |

NEW-YORK.

Published by WILLIAM HALL & SON, 543 Broadway.

GEORGE F. NISBETT & CO.,

PRINTERS, NEW-YORK.

"THE GENTRY MAY TALK"

(THE MUG OF BEER)

RIP VAN WINKLE;

All^o Spiritoso.

f pp

f sf

mf

The gentry may talk of their ex-cell-ent wine,...

p

6557

dolce.

Their li- quors so cost- ly and dear.... They may call....

pp

them di- - vine, But I ne'er will re- - pine,.....

f

.... If I have but a mug full of beer. If I have but a mf cresc: - - - -

mug full of beer.... They may call them di- - vine But I p cresc: - - - -

ne'er will re-pine, If I have but a mug full of beer.....

..... They may call them di-vine, But I ne'er will re-pine, If I have but a mug full of beer.

mf

Its foam like a snow-drop floats o-ver the brim,.... Its bubbles like diamonds ap - pear.... I will ev - - er a - gree, That the

p

pp

tip - ple for me..... Is a spark - ling mug full of beer.

Is a spark - ling mug full of beer.... I will ev - - er a -

mf

p cresc. ff

-gree, That the tip - ple for me, Is a spark - ling mug full of

cresc. ff

mf cresc. ritard.

beer..... I will ev - er a - gree, That the tip - ple for

p cresc. f

a tempo.

me, Is a spark - ling mug full of beer.

ad lib. a tempo. f

8f