Anmerkung für den Dirigenten.

Die Notation der Partitur ist einheitlich und untransponiert: alle Instrumente klingen, wie sie geschrieben sind, nur Hörner, Engl. Horn und Contrabässe klingen eine Oktave tiefer und die kleine Flöte eine Oktave höher. Die Orchesterstimmen sind in üblicher Weise, der Stimmung der Instrumente entsprechend, transponiert: Clarinetten in A und B, Hörner stets in F, Trompeten I in A und B, II stets in A, Englischhorn in F.

Bei Aufführung durch kleines Orchester ist folgendes zu beachten: 2. Hoboe, Englischhorn, 2. Fagott, 3. und 4. Horn, 2. Posaune, Basstuba sind im Notfalle zu entbehren, da diese Stimmen in alle anderen Instrumente eingezogen sind, auch ist die Harfe im äussersten Falle entbehrlich, oder durch Orchester-Célesta (event. Klavier) zu ersetzen. Stehen nur 2 Posaunen zur Verfügung, so muss die 1. und 3. Stimme besetzt werden. Triangel, Tambourin, gr. Trommel, kl. Trommel, Becken, Tamtam, Pauken und Glockenspiel werden von 3 Mann bedient [2 Hefte Stimmen]; bei Weglassung der Triangel im ersten Satz [nur hier!] ist die Besetzung sämtlicher 8 Schlaginstr. durch 2 Mann möglich.

Im 2. Satz ist es empfehlenswert, das Solo-streichquartett dicht zusammen zu gruppieren. Der 4. Satz [Bläserensemble] muss im Streichquintett, da nur zart begleitend, schwächer besetzt werden.

Remarques pour le chef d'Orchestre.

La notation de la Partition est simple et non transposée, c. à d. que tous les instruments sonnent réellement comme ils sont écrits, à l'exception cependant des cors, du cor anglais, des contrebasses qui doivent sonner une octave plus bas, et de la petite flûte qui sonne une octave plus haut. Les parties d'Orchestre sont, suivant l'usage, transposées d'après la tonalité des instruments employés: clarinettes en la et sib; cors toujours en fa; première trompette en la et sib, deuxième toujours en la; cor anglais en fa.

Pour exécuter cette suite avec un orchestre restreint, il suffit de tenir compte de ces quelques remarques: Les parties de II^e Hautbois, Cor anglais, II^e Basson, III^e et IV^e cors, II^e et IV^e Trombones peuvent être supprimées à la rigueur, par ce qu'elles sont doublées par d'autres instruments; de même, en cas d'absolue nécessité, l'on peut se passer de la harpe, ou, mieux, la remplacer par un célesta d'orchestre ou même par un piano. Tous les instruments à percussion: triangle, tambourin, gr. caisse, tambour, cymbales, tam-tam, timbales et cloches pourront être joués par 3 hommes (avec chacun deux cahiers); on peut aussi, dans la première partie (mais là seulement!), laisser la partie de triangle, deux hommes suffiront dans ce cas pour toute la batterie.

Dans le N^o II, le quatuor solo doit être réuni pour former un ensemble bien homogène; dans le N^o IV, une partie seulement des cordes jouera, pour bien laisser ressortir les bois.

This image shows a page of a musical score, likely for a symphony, featuring multiple staves with complex notation. The score is written in a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The dynamics range from fortissimo (ff) to sforzando (sfz) and sforzando fortissimo (sffz). There are also articulation markings like marcato and Imo. The score is organized into systems, with each system containing multiple staves. The first system has four staves, the second has five, and the third has six. The notation is dense and detailed, with many slurs and ties connecting notes across measures. The overall style is that of a classical musical score, with a focus on precise notation and dynamic control.
