

Quartet in g minor

Cello

flute, violin, viola and continuo

G. P. Telemann

TWV 43 g4

Allegro

The image displays the Cello part of the 'Quartet in g minor' by G. P. Telemann. The score is written in bass clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked 'Allegro'. The piece consists of 43 measures, which are organized into ten systems of five measures each. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and accidentals (sharps and naturals). The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the 43rd measure.

